Before the wedding march was played, Mr. M. F. Sheets, sang "Oh, Promise Me", which was followed by another solo song by Mrs. Bertha Dietrich, "I Love You Truly".

The Mendelssohn wedding march was played by Mrs. H. W. Frame. The bride was preceded by Rev. R. W. Nelson, who led the groom and the best man to the altar. Robert Steadman acted as best man.

Little Irene Steadman, as flower girl led the bride party, scattering rose petals in their path. She wore a ruffled frock of pink organdy.

The bride entered on the arm of her father. She was dressed in a gown of white tulle, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and ferns. Her veil was held in place by a wreath of white orange blossoms.

Miss Leah Dietrich as bridesmaid was dressed in a frock of yellow georgette trimmed with silk crepe lace, and carried a bouquet of white and pink snapdragons and ferns.

The church was beautifully decorated with large bouquets of deep pink gladioli and banks of ferns, with smaller baskets of white daisies throughout.

held September 25th and will be of much interest to the people of the Crater Lake region.

Mrs. M. J. Norris, the retiring regent was presented with a past-regent's pin in appreciation of the last year.

Because of the nearness of Constitution day, Mrs. B. G. Harding's paper, "The Development of the Constitution," was especially interesting. Her paper was very comprehensive and starting with the early struggle of the people for self government gave clearly and briefly the development of the ability of the people for self rule up to the time the constitution was written.

Mrs. Wm. W. Holt gave a paper on "How Issues Help to Shape Campaigns." This was not only timely and instructive but filled with plenty of humor.

A beautiful "sunburnt quilt," made of several shades of yellow, by Mrs. William Nyman received many favorable comments.

J. M. Johnson, pastor

We shall study the letter which Paul wrote to the Corinthian Christians in our bible school tomorrow. The reference is the first four chapters. The memory verse is the 1st verse of the 16th Ps. Our school opens at 9:45. There is a good class for all grades. Rally Day services are only one week off. Come help us have a real rally.

Attend the young peoples' services at 7 o'clock if you are a young person. We want you all. You are welcome. The young ladies will furnish the leadership and the specials in the evening preaching service.

In the morning service the pastor will preach on the subject: "The Worthy Walk With God." There will be good special music in this service too. There will be reception of members. In the evening the subject will be: "Evidences of the Great Apostasy." The young ladies will lead the musical numbers.

The gospel team goes to Recco Creek for the afternoon service, and will go to Butte Falls for services on the 30th in the afternoon. It is hoped that several others will go to help the young men.

American Legion Auxiliary Notes

At the regular social meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary on Monday evening many interesting things were done. The president, Mrs. N. C. Chaney, in an opening welcome speech made everyone feel at home and happy to be there.

Miss Melba Williams, accompanied by a friend at the piano sang "By the Bend of the River," by Clara Edwards, followed by a negro spiritual entitled "Run Mary Run."

After this Miss Williams presented Dick Steyer, Phil Quisenberry and Tinsley Campie in several selections played by this trio on their harmonica. This should have been a quartette but unfortunately Woodrow Shaw was absent. Reports were given showing financial standing since the convention.

Letters of appreciation were read by Mrs. Douglas Wilson, which came from important Auxiliary women from over the state. These letters were from Mrs. Lydia E. Hirsfall, Coos Bay; Bertha Church of Roseburg; one from our own "Polly" (Mrs. J. W. McInturf), state secretary; Mrs. Leavie Stewart, Albany, Com. woman for District No. 3 this year; Mrs. Coates, Mrs. Hershner, Mrs. Kelly and others. These ladies all spoke enthusiastically of the good times they had in Medford, treatment and courteous reception.

After this, plans were made for fair activities for the coming week, which at this time have mostly been successfully carried out.

Medford Auxiliary has now 262 members and is the largest Legion Auxiliary in the state. Membership of the unit are justly proud of this.

Owing to the new ruling present Auxiliary officers will hold office until next election thirty days previous to the next department convention. The state of Oregon has 4445 members at the present time.

The committee on refreshments, Mrs. Mary Webber, Mrs. Carol Parker, and Mrs. Laura Kerr, with Mrs. Holloway as chairman served home made cakes and frozen fruit salad with whipped cream. These with good coffee made attractive refreshments. "Attractive" seemed to be the right way of describing the conditions when one observed the hungry looking guests who were finally seen on the inside looking very happily over well filled plates. "Oh, this is a great country!"

WASHINGTON SCHOOL

The number of pupils enrolled in departmental work at Washington is on the increase, the enrollment at the end of the second week being 166. New pupils are: Edna E. Fisher, and Winifred Tucker in 6th; Jack Vaughn, 5A; and Claud Terry, 6B.

One of the objectives for which we are all striving is a quick, orderly passing into and out of the building. With the aid of two drummers, ably helped by William Meyers and Dean Pieper of the 6A, we are interested and much improvement is shown.

Thursday was "Open up the ground day" for our school and the result was so good we are going to observe that event five days a week. We hope the people in passing will see the improvement and help us by not throwing papers near our building.

Mrs. Milbap, a teacher of Lebanon, Oregon was visiting the penmanship and geography classes this week. Visitors are always welcome.

Mr. Rice, the originator of the Rice system of penmanship which is now being used in the Medford schools, gave a demonstration lesson before pupils of the department on Monday. Many pupils had to stand during the lesson but the interest was good, for Mr. Rice gave funny little stories to emphasize his important points.

Regular lessons, health inspection and fire drills have made a busy week.

JACKSON SCHOOL Teachers

All the teachers of the Jackson school that were on the job last year are "on deck" again this year except Mrs. B. R. Finch, who decided not to teach. Her place had been filled by Miss Yvonne Smith.

School Fair

Much interest was shown in the school fair held last week and as the ribbons indicate, Jackson has her share of firsts, seconds and thirds as usual.

Attendance

The attendance at the close of school last Thursday was 299. This is a slight increase over last year, which was about 290. At the opening of school this year there were 285 on time the first day. This is a few more accounted for that have not entered yet and are expected soon.

School Improvements

The school has seen several improvements during the summer months. The ceiling and walls in room 7 have been replastered. The old plaster had fallen off due to a leak in the roof. A new metal room is being put on the building to replace the old tar roof that was well worn out and was leaking in a great many places.

The old rose arbor in front of the school has been removed because it was considerably decayed and the reason dismantled. It was necessary to widen the walk on each side of it, also to facilitate marching.

In the place of the old arbor a fine new metal flag pole has been erected. The old pole had to be removed because of the weakening

News of Medford Schools

The high school exhibit at the fair was one of the most outstanding in the educational building. The committee in charge was Miss Maurine Carroll, chairman; Mrs. Elizabeth Jerome, Mrs. Virginia Wait, and Leland A. Mentzer.

There are six departments represented, namely: Clothing, food, commerce, chemistry, mathematics and manual training.

The clothing exhibit represents the two-year course. The articles in this department were five woolen, or make-over problems, five cotton and linen dresses, five costume slips, five combination suits, and 10 pieces of hand work, among them a beautiful quilted cushion.

The commerce department exhibited 20 typing budgets in the mathematics department. Paul Turner exhibited 10 original geometric theorems.

The manual training division had pictures of the house which they built for Harvie Young in the spring of 1928. Views were shown of the house before and after its completion. Plans and blue-prints were also shown. A picture of the bicycle rack, which the boys built was also on the card.

The food department had a very attractive display of canned goods, which consisted of 10 jars of fruit, 10 jars of canned vegetables and 5 jars of jelly.

The high school booth was arranged very attractively. At each side on the walls were the clothing displays, in the back were pictures of the manual training work and on each side of the pictures were the typing budgets, and the geometrical theorems. The table in the center had the canned fruit and vegetables, along with the chemistry notebooks.

Because of the large number attending school this year, all students could not be accommodated in the physical training department. There are four classes for girls in the morning, and three for boys in the afternoon. The rule that only freshmen and sophomores must take physical training has supplanted the former which made it necessary for all students to attend these classes.

William Purdin, who graduated from Medford high school last year, was recently awarded pins by the Royal and Underwood typewriting companies for expert typing. This requirement of the Underwood pin was 70 words per minute. He was able to write 72 words per minute. This pin is gold, set in pearls, and valued between $15 and $20. The Royal pin was awarded for 70 words per minute, with a limit of 50 mistakes. A small pin with 28 on it is attached to the larger pin by a fine gold chain. The southern Oregon typing championship was awarded to William Purdin last spring.

At a student council meeting, held Thursday afternoon, Miss Helen Rogers, a member of the senior class, was elected secretary of the student body, to take the place of Miss Elbow Mae Wilson, who resigned.

It was decided at this meeting that the student body and H. I. Times ticket combin'd, would cost $1.50. Students having one of these tickets will receive 10c reduction on athletic tickets. If the student body and H. I. Times tickets are purchased separate, each will cost $1.

The Latin club is to be reorganized next week, under the supervision of Miss Ruth Able. The old members will meet this week and elect new officers. Those who are now taking Latin will not be admitted to the club until the next of the first semester. In order to be eligible to this club, grades must be kept as high as C, which is between 82 and 87.

So far this season there are 227 freshmen registered, 161 sophomores, 151 juniors, 100 seniors, and two post-graduates, making a total of 631 students.

Cliff Moore and Albert Prout have been registered for post-graduate courses in Medford high school this fall.

The W. J. Rice system of penmanship is being taught in high schools. So far only eight students have received invitations to this non-credit class.

Seventy-five girls signed up on Tuesday to try out for glee club. The names of those chosen have not been announced yet. A glee club for freshman girls will be held twice a week after school.

JUNIOR HIGH

Reporters: Genevieve McGee, Wayne Lowry, Barbara Wall, Belle Cummings, David Lowry, Nelly Green, Anna Mae Fuson, Florence Danalls.

Friday was school day at the Jackson county fair and we were all glad for a full holiday.

Mr. Rice, author of Rice system of penmanship, visited our schools last week and instructed teachers and pupils as to how to use the Rice method which has been adopted by all the Medford schools.

Junior H. Harmonics band played at the fair last night. We are proud of our pioneer harmonica band and hope more will join. Band practices has begun under the leadership of Wilson Waite.

A new two-story building has been built for the educational exhibits of Medford, Phoenix, Talent, Ashland, Jacksonville and Gold Hill. These are all on the first floor. All other nearby towns and rural schools are on the second floor.

Junior H is exhibiting several writing desks, foot stools and book ends; also many neat articles in sewing.

Manual training is taught by Mr. Pritch and sewing by Miss Lund. The exhibit of writing under Miss Wise and work from the science classes of Miss Whisenant.

Medford stands among the first not only in the state but in the United States, as well as in school banking, and our record keeps improving.

Every Tuesday is bank day, beginning with Tuesday, Sept. 18. This year we hope to smash all past records.

Much enthusiasm is being shown by students of Junior H at the coming football season. About 30 boys are out daily. Wenzel will be back at center and the rest of the team looks good.

On the 29th, Coach Henderson and Mr. Hanly will meet with other coaches and principals to plan a schedule of games.

Grants Pass will not enter the league this year, but Ashland and Hoodburg are back stronger than ever.

The Junior H library, Miss Andrews, was visited by her sister, Mrs. T. D. Ewing over the week end. Mrs. Ewing visited the school on Monday. She is on her way back to Port Arthur, Texas after having spent the summer in Eugene.

This coming week girls will have a chance to try out for basketball under the supervision of our new coach, Miss Carver.

Miss Andrews has been busy this last week helping pupils secure used books.

Many new books have arrived, including "Story of Our Country" by West & West, "From Columbus to Lincoln" by Logie, "From Lincoln to Coolidge" by Logie, "Boys' Book of Border Battles" by Babin, and "The Story of My Boyhood and Youth" by William Purdin.

Among the fiction books are: "Just Patty" by Seaman, and "Three Sides of Paradise Green." New numbers on the book list are "Sticker" by Ann Abbott on an "Isopod" by Greenoff and "Prairie Rose" by Bush.

W. R. GIBLETT TO MOVE TO GREAT FALLS, MONTANA

After having served as manager for the Medford district of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company for the past two years, W. R. Giblett, accompanied by his family, will leave Tuesday for Great Falls, Mont., to take charge of a much larger district for the same company. His successor as yet has not been announced, but will probably arrive within the next week.

The transfer to Great Falls is an important promotion for Mr. Giblett, inasmuch that the field there is over four times as large as the local district and includes over 24 men, whereas he had less than seven here. He will also have two main offices in Montana, as Helena is included in the same field.

Mr. Giblett arrived in Medford from Tacoma and has been with the company for the past six years, beginning duties in the Washington city, but was transferred from there to another district and back again before he was sent to southern Oregon to fill the position left vacant by William Cook who was transferred to Eugene.

The family will be missed locally, especially the daughter, Elaine, who appeared numerous times on the stage in songs and dances even though she is hardly older than five years. Mr. Giblett yesterday expressed regret in leaving, saying that he had learned to like Medford very well, but added that he may drop back here in the future for short visits.
