"I'm going home, but maybe I won't stay there," said John L. Sweet just before he left last evening to join his brother in Chicago, Ill., after having arrived here last week as a "half-man and half-woman" attraction with the carnival which appeared at the fairgrounds, Sweet, 38 years old, resembles a harem boy very much, and has a monkey face of which he seems to be very proud. He had been with the company since last November and claimed that he liked the company as well as that he plans on remaining in it for a short time. He engages the staves of people who pay a dime to see him, and declares, "I sure like to go through my monkey-shines, 'cause I kinda look like 'em."

It was Harry Hoiler of Ashland, and not Hofer, as announced in this paper, that had such a fine display of daffodils and gladioli at the Jackson county fair. The Loyal Women's class will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. C. Wood on the Pacific highway, Tuesday, September 18. All women having no work to do, may meet at the First Christian church at 1:30 and cars will be provided. Everyone welcome. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Westcott of Portland left here this morning after spending the past month as the guest of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Singleton. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bauer returned to Marshfield Sunday, where they visited friends. T. A. Hopkins, vice-president of the Southern Oregon Gas corporation, and L. A. Williamson, general auditor for the Loveland engineers, arrived here this morning, expecting to inspect properties and attend to various business matters in connection with further improvements. Both men are from San Francisco. Miss Athra Dewey, a member of the high school faculty at Ashland, visited Crater Lake Sunday. Miss Cecile Coss left here this morning for Eugene in preparation for the opening of the fall term of the University of Oregon. Miss Coss, who is a member of the Alpha Xi Delta sorority, will enroll as a junior. Floyd Judah, president of the Peck-Judah travel service of San Francisco, stopped here today en route to Crater Lake for the purpose of setting a line-up on the scenic drive and the lake, in view of making future schedules for tourist excursions. One of the largest dance parties of the year attended the final dance at the fairgrounds pavilion Saturday night. Wild Barton's orchestra furnished a fine program of excellent dance music and specialty numbers during the evening. Many out of town people were noted in the large attendance, including several parties from Grants Pass and Klamath Falls. Next Monday night will be a big night in American Legion circles, the occasion being the annual meeting and election of officers of the Medford post. Much interest is being taken in the election, and a close race is predicted for several of the offices. Preparations are being made for a short entertainment program followed by a "feed" after the regular business meeting. Post Commander Bromley urges every Legion member to plan now to attend this annual meeting. Whit Barton and members of his orchestra left early yesterday morning for Lewiston, Ida., after filling a four-night engagement at the fairgrounds pavilion. They had a long hard trip ahead of them, being scheduled to play a dance at Lewiston tonight, and left town right after the close of the pavilion dance. Notice to Contractors.
