CARDS AND YANKS KEEP SLIM HOLD IN FLAG CHASES

By HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Down the home stretch, race baseball battalions and their short shift for those that slip, even momentarily, now.

Two months ago a game lost was accompanied by no particularly disastrous after-effects, but with only two weeks to go, a defeat for a contender calls for tearing of hair in the home camp and loud and prolonged cheers from pennant rivals.

Both races are as far from being decided as they were on the opening day of the season. Sunday's games left the Yankees a half game ahead of their bitter American League rivals, the Philadelphia Athletics, while the St. Louis Cardinals stretched their national league advantage to two full games, when the second place New York Giants bowed to Pittsburgh.

That giant defeat, by 1 to 0, was a bitter pill for Larry Benton, right-handed red-head of John McGraw's twisting staff. Larry held the battling Pirates to two hits in the eight innings, he worked and walked only two men and yet had only himself to blame for his defeat. Both Pirates came in the third inning, when the only run of the game was scored.

Dazzy Vance saw a well-pitched game go by the boards as the Cincinnati Reds triumphed over the Brooklyn Robins, 4 to 3 in 10 innings.

The Yankees made a rare slip, standing for another day when they beat St. Louis, 7 to 5, and evened the series. The Yankees were off to an early lead and saw to it that the Browns never caught up. Lou Gehrig smacked out his 24th homer of the year in the fifth, but Babe Ruth went hitless.

Back of Lefty Grove's great pitching the Athletics coasted to victory over the down-trodden Cleveland Indians, 7 to 1. It was against seven defeats and the Indians' 11th successive reverse.

Good pitching by Alphonso Thomas and "Slim" Harris gave Chicago and Boston an even break in a double-header. Thomas allowed four hits in his first game, which went to the White Sox, 7 to 1, while Harris allowed the same number in twirling Boston to a 2 to 0 shutout in the night-cap.

Sacramento is again on top of the heavy after taking a twin bill and his of the seven games from the late league leading stars. Hollywood's desperate efforts in the last of the opener to win fell short and the Senators won, 6 to 5. Nine pitchers, five of them shoeks, were used in the nightcap. Hollywood led, 5 to 0, at the fourth but the Solonis went rampant and the game ended, 12 to 6. Batteries, first game, Keating and Severed; Valla, Couch, Murphy and Bassler; second game, Vnel, Kallio, Bonnelly, Gould and Severed; Rhodes, Murphy, McCabe, Hollerson, Kinney and Agnew.

Portland was back in sixth place after grabbing the double offering from the Seals, the first in 16 innings, 8 to 7, and the short final, 1 to 0. The score was 6 to 4 in the Seals' favor in the ninth of the opener when a homer, double and a walk tied things. Each scored once in the 12th and two singles and a pair of passes gave Portland victory in the 16th. Batteries, first game, Ortman, Ponder and Whitney; Thurston, Jones, Mails and Sprinz; second game, Ponder and Saunders; Mouty Glywn and Vargas.

The Missions took the series from Oakland by dividing the Sunday games, winning in the morning, 8 to 5, and losing, the nightcap, 6 to 3. Batteries: First game, Holling, Nelson and Baldwin; Boehler, Sparks, Kasiah and Road, Baker; second game, Shea, McAvoy and Lombardi; Pillette Davernort and Bronzel.

Seattle took the two closing games from the Angels, although the series was lost. The Indians scored two in the eighth in the morning to win, 5 to 4, and a five-run rally in the same inning of the afternoon battle gave them victory, 7 to 2. Batteries: First game, House, Bryan and Ainsmith; Pilt and Hannan; second game, Sullivan and Cox; Gabler, J. Jacobs and Morton.

SACS REGAIN LEAD; FARRELL DEFEATS BEAVERS TAKE TWO HAGEN AND EVENS WORLD TITLE PLAY

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—(AP)—So adept are girls under 16 becoming with the driver, nibble and putter that the Women's Western Golf association may allow them to compete in its major championships next year. The association's executive committee has framed an amendment to the constitution whereby any player, regardless of age, may compete. Heretofore, girls under 16 were barred.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Johnny Farrell and Walter Hagen were all square today in their series of five matches for the "unofficial world's golf championship." Farrell, holder of the national championship, defeated "Sir Walter," the British open titleholder, in the fourth 36-hole encounter at the Six Army Country club yesterday, on a 99, and thereby opened the series at two victories each.

The fifth and deciding match now is to be staged, although the date and scene have not yet been selected. Hagen lost his chance to capture the title without the necessity of another match by running into difficulties on the last five holes.

After taking the lead on the two up, Hagen took a six on the 32nd and a five on the 33rd, while Farrell was down in four on both. That squared the match. A four on the 35th made Farrell dormie one, the first time he had been in the lead. The match ended at the home hole, which was halved in five.

Each scored 72 in the morning round, one over par, but Hagen took a 77 in the afternoon to 73 for the national open champion.

SALEM WINS OVER BEND CHAMPIONS

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 17.—(AP)—With a dramatic finish that brought the spectators to their feet, the Salem Senators yesterday in a ninth inning rally overcame Bend's 6 to 3 lead and won, 7 to 6. The victory leaves the Eagles and the Senators tied for the Willamette valley league title. The play-off will be on neutral ground at Eugene next Sunday. Beck was taken from the box for Salem in the eighth and Davis, a new pitcher for the senators, went in. Davis smashed a long single against the center field fence in the ninth that scored Epps, after McGinnis and Edwards had walked. With the bases full, Jenks rolled an easy one into the diamond and Coover threw out McGinnis at the plate. Eubanks, Bend catcher, attempted to double by a throw to first, heaved the ball into right field, allowing Edwards and Davis to score. A hit by Edging scored Jenks.

Before the game a costly desk set was presented by the Salem, Bend, Albany and Eugene clubs to George J. Wilhelm of Junction City, president of the league. The presentation was made by Tom Carlson, Bend fire chief.

G. A. R. VETERANS MEET AT DENVER

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 17.—(AP)—Trains today are still bringing in delegates and comrades to the 82nd annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. Hotel lobbies resound to an occasional file and drum, a war-whoop now and then and the constant hum of voices, retelling the experiences from the storming of Fort Sumner to the surrender of Lee—the war of the second is fought over again.

The encampment opens officially Wednesday and the event of the occasion, the parade of the thinning ranks of the veterans, will be held that day. Yesterday the soldiers were shown the sights of the city and many journeyed up Lookout Mountain to do honor to Buffalo Bill, another veteran of a different sort of war.

Miss Demaree and young West are placed in line to compete with best amateur singers of other American cities.

EASTERN DEMAND FOR EGGS KEEPS UP COAST PRICES

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 17.—(AP)—Local wholesale egg markets were decidedly strong today with shippers and large dealers eager to purchase fresh offerings at Friday's advanced quotations and in some cases bidding slightly more. Prevailing prices on the Seattle market are even higher than here. It is pointed out, and New York and other eastern consuming centers are taking everything which meets their standard of quality at high figures. Heavy shipments are moving east from coast cities and indications are that demand from that quarter will keep prices here at a profitable level for producers, commission men declare.
