

SCHOOL AT BUTTE FALLS PLANS TO FORM ORCHESTRA

BUTTE FALLS, Sept. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, recently of southern Texas, have bought the Faber & Simerville store and they and their two sons are now residents of Butte Falls. The Simervilles have no definite plans for the future but will probably remain in Butte Falls for the next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Larsen of Phoenix visited relatives here over the week end.

The Butte Falls schools were closed Friday so that teachers and pupils could have a chance to attend the Jackson county fair at Medford.

Merritt Tungate, who has been visiting relatives here for the past week, left Monday for Chicago, where he will enter the school of aviation.

Mrs. Julia Doubleday spent Monday in Medford.

Miss Eleanor Curry left Friday for Medford, after a few weeks' visit with relatives here. She has been employed to teach this term at the Lincoln school in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Squire and daughter Dolores are new residents here, having moved here Sunday from Medford.

Leslie Casey, who has been a patient at the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford for several weeks, arrived home last week. He will spend some time visiting with relatives before joining his father in Oakland, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Courtwright and family were Medford visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Simerville spent Friday in Ashland.

Among those from here who attended the fair Friday and Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nee, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker, Mrs. John Clark, Lloyd Clark, Beth and Helen Simerville, Mrs. Earl Hoover, Miss Hazel Taylor, Miss Naomi VanGross, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Simerville, Mrs. Frank Hoover, Mrs. Alberta Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland and children, Robert and Lenore Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Blasing and family, Mr. and Mrs. Courtwright and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tungate and family, Mr. and Mrs. Goss, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Short and family.

The county road machinery was moved out this week and no more work will be done on this part of the road until spring. Much of the road has been greatly improved between here and camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beckdoll were business visitors in Butte Falls the first of the week.

Mrs. Gertrude Spencer of Medford spent the week end at the Mahoney home.

Four Abbott, who has been ill for some time due to an injury received while working in the woods, was taken to the Community hospital in Medford Monday.

Will Hills and son Edward of Rogue River were visitors at the Simerville home Sunday. Edward returned home Sunday evening but Mr. Hills will visit here for a few weeks.

Among those from here who attended the dance in Gold Hill Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harindeen, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoover, Orh Abbott, Helen and Beth Simerville, Earl Wymore and Merritt Tungate.

Mrs. Ross Wymore is suffering from a severe case of asthma. She was taken to Medford Monday and placed under the care of Dr. Molt.

At a special school meeting held Monday evening, several items of importance were taken up. Plans were submitted by Mr. Bachelor for library shelves in the high school. These were accepted by the board and construction will begin as soon as materials can be obtained. Permission was given Miss VanGross to order the necessary magazines for both schools.

Arrangements are being made for orchestra work provided there are enough pupils interested. Needed repairs are to be made on the playground and necessary apparatus is to be purchased. Because of the popularity of the typing classes, this year, it will be necessary to order three new typewriters. Mr. Parker informed the board that he had secured an insurance policy to cover pupils riding in the bus.

Floyd Hoyel of San Jose, Cal., arrived here Tuesday for a short visit with friends. He and his father have been on a two months' motor trip through the Pacific states, Canada and Montana. They expected to be back in San Jose Thursday.

Congratulations and best wishes for a happy married life are being extended to Charlie White and Arline Chambers, who were married in Medford Tuesday. They will make their home in Butte Falls.

Tuesday night there was a show and dance in the Woodman hall. C. A. Nelson and son William spent several days in Medford last week.

Mrs. W. J. Nee announced the beginning of classes in piano and voice beginning October 1. Lessons will be given individually at regular appointed hours. This promises to be a good class, both in size and interest, and pupils are urged to sign up before the beginning of the term. Mr. Nee has had several years' work from private teachers in both voice and piano, three years' study in the music department of Willamette university and has a special music teacher's certificate from Monmouth Normal. Full-time lessons and high quality of instruction are guaranteed.

The fifth and sixth grades challenged the seventh and eighth grades to a game of volley ball at the morning recess period Wednesday, and were defeated with a score of 21 to 17.
