MACKS CREEP UP TO WITHIN GAME OF WOBBLY YANKS

By Herbert W. Barker
Associated Press Sports Writer.
There's not much to choose between the two major league pennant races but the fact remains that most of the drama is being enacted in the American league.

The St. Louis Cardinals have made the National league battle more or less of a cut-and-dried proposition by the simple process of matching anything their closest competitors may not achieve. If the New York Giants lose the Cardinals manage to do the same thing. If they win, Bill McKechnie's boys see to it that John McGraw doesn't profit in the standings thereby.

But in the American league, Miller Huggins' champion New York Yankees have eleven faithful supporters more alternative moments of ecstatic joy and dismal gloom than is good for the constitution, even of a leather-jumped Bronx fan. From good to bad and back again Yankee fortunes have gone this year. The Bronx was in deep mourning today for the Yankees, losing a 12-inning battle to the Chicago White Sox yesterday, saw the Philadelphia Athletics creep to within one game of the lead again.

Meanwhile the National league remained unchanged as the Cardinals and the Giants tangled in a double-bill and emerged with one victory apiece as home runs flew thick and fast at the Polo grounds. What advantage there was went to McKechnie for he got rid of two more games from his schedule without losing any ground to his chief rival.

Pitchers got none of the glory at the Polo grounds. George Harter, who once patrolled right field for McGraw, took things in his own hands in the first game, crashing out three home runs, and the Cardinals coasted to an 8 to 5 victory. The boys calmed down a bit in the second game until the eighth inning when the Giants, fighting to overcome a two run lead, sailed into old "Pete" Alexander for five runs, four of them on Hogan's second home run of the day—a mammoth drive into the left field bleachers. That left the score 7 to 4 and there it remained.

Despite the even split, the Giants were heavy losers. They were presented with a wonderful opportunity to tie for the lead and ended exactly where they started—two games out of first place. They meet the Cards again tomorrow and for the last time on September 26.

In the other National league games, the Pittsburgh Pirates trounced the Phillies 6 to 4, while the Cincinnati Reds were splitting even in two games with the Boston Braves. The Reds won the first game 7 to 2 but went down in the nightcap, 9 to 5 when the Braves scored eight runs in the first inning.

Urban Faber was the master of the situation at Chicago where the Yankee ship struck a reef and went down with all hands aboard. The veteran spitballer held the championship to eight hits in 12 innings and walked off with a 4 to 3 decision.

Before the Yankees finally had gone down at Chicago, the Athletics, thanks to Jack Quinn, had turned back Detroit, 6 to 1. The Tigers got only six hits off Quinn and would have suffered a shutout but for a fumble by Jimmy Dykes.

The St. Louis Browns clinched first place in the standings by defeating the Boston Red Sox, 4 to 2. Alvin Crowder pitched his 19th victory of the season against only five defeats.

With the enthusiastic endorsement of Coach Callison and Superintendent Hedrick, preparations for the regular high school football broadcasts are completed, and the first game will go on the air a week from tomorrow. This will be the Chemawa-Medford game played on the local field, and announced play by play by C. T. Baker of the chamber of commerce.

That the broadcasters will prove a strong factor in advertising the games and increasing the attendance, is the belief of W. A. Galt, chairman of the radio committee, who has arranged to have the remote control apparatus removed to the high school field for the Chemawa game.

DELANEY WINS IN DILATORY FASHION FROM A 'SET-UP'

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Jack Delaney, once the colorful "ranger of the north," has come back—but not as far as he has gone back. Returning to the ring at Ebbets field last night for his first fight since he was knocked out by Jack Sharkey last April, Delaney stored an unimpressive technical knockout over Nando Tassi of Italy in 11 rounds.

For nine rounds it looked as if the battle would go the full 15 frames with Delaney the winner on points. In the tenth the Bridgeport boxer landed a flurry of lefts on the Italian's face and inflicted the first real damage of the bout. After 25 seconds of the eleventh had passed, Referee Eddie Forbes stepped in to save Tassi from further punishment.

Although Tassi fought manfully and attempted to carry the battle to his opponent, Delaney was easily the master and looked bad principally because he could not end the bout sooner. Tassi went down three times, slipping twice, and once in the first round half slipping and half beaten down. He took a count of eight that time and came up unimpaired.

Both fighters came into the ring over the light-heavyweight limit, Delaney weighing 181 pounds and Tassi 178.

Old Time Play Still Very Popular

"Uncle Tom's Cabin," which opened yesterday at Hunt's Casino, is a well-made, moving and generally interesting film which has left the story of "Lisa, her husband, Harris, the rascally Lawyer Marks, the villainous Simon Leverage, the altruistic Shelby, poor Uncle Tom, Topsy, Eva and the final happiness.

The skin of Uncle Tom may be as black as the ace of spades, but Uncle Tom has a heart of gold, and the audience, having been made privy to the fact, was quite obliging in giving of its tears and sympathy.

One of the best performances in the film is given by a Negro actor, James T. Lawce. He is a tall, outstanding fellow, strong of face and gentle in his demeanor; Margarita Fishley is the "Lisa," skilful in certain of its emotional requirements. Arthur Edmund Carew is the George Harris, her husband, a splendid actor.

The musical score, with its occasional song, adds that sweet southern atmosphere, so pleasing to everyone.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" seems a sincere effort. It is a well-made film, and its biggest moment, the escape over the ice, amazed and thrilled the large audience.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Motor club executives and state officials are expected to meet at the meeting of motor club officers from 11 western states, were held today by Edward N. Smith of Washington, general manager of the Western Automobile life association.

ALUMNI APT TO GIVE HIGH SQUAD FIGHT TOMORROW

The high school football team will play its first game of the season tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Holly street field against the alumni team.

Coach Callison's proteges will go against a tough proposition, and will have a struggle on their hands, as their opponents are a rugged lot, and not full of confidence. A number of the high school squad are not up to previous form, owing to putting much credence in the flattery handed them by their friends and their gridiron prowess, and consequently have not got down to business.

The alumni team will comprise such players as Harley Dressler, Archie Laing, Eddie Demmer, Preck, the Singlers and the Dunks, Stanley Biden, Cliff Moore, Gilbert Knies, and others who won their spurs in high school and have forgotten nothing.

The starting line-up for the high school will be: Center, Bernie Hughes; guard, Green; tackle, Stuch and Morgan; ends, McDonald and Bowerman; quarter, Melvin; halfbacks, Anderson and Herold; and fullback, Conkle.

Sport Briefs

STOKE POGER, Eng., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Charles Whitcomb today won the thousand guinea tournament for professional golfers. He defeated Henry Cotton in the final match of the 36 holes, four up and two to play.

Johnny Hines at Rialto Tomorrow

The fast and most hilarious comedy production is Johnny Hines' latest, "The Wright Idea," which comes to the Rialto tomorrow. Johnny's latest racket is the invention of a luminous and blotterless ink, which he endeavors to put on the market in spite of a troublesome love interest. And never was true love so hilariously humorous.

The plot suspects Johnny of stealing some bonds, and yet she loves him—and yet she has him shadowed by a blundering detective, through a maze of sequences which are eloquently amusing. Another funny complication is Johnny's encounter with a "nut-like" gentleman, who lavishly presents him with a motor car and a yacht, which he does not own himself.

The comedian puts a laugh twist on each of these merry obstacles and comes out triumphant, wealthy and possessing the girl, but not until one of the most amazing sequences ever filmed takes place.

ANGELS ARE WORSE THAN THE BEAVERS

(By the Associated Press.)
An eighth inning rally that netted three runs gave Portland its third straight win over the Angels.

Batteries: Ortman and Whitney; Barfoot and Hannal. Sacramento downed the Beavers for the first time in this series in one of the most bitterly contested games of the season. The victory by a score of 2 to 1, put the Senators two games in the lead again as Hollywood fell before Oakland.

Batteries: Rachea and Sevarald; Koolster, Knott, Davenport and Baldwin; Bivens, Sypher. Oakland downed the Stars 4 to 2 due principally to the air-tight ball of Howard Craghead. Only three hits were allowed Hollywood and in the pinches the Acorn chucker was even more stingy. Batteries: Craghead and Reed; Wezel, McCabe and Bussler.

San Francisco swamped Seattle in a deluge of 18 hits to win 13 to 2 and move to within one game of second place Hollywood Stars. Batteries: Jacobs and Sprinz; Graham, Wilson and Ainsmith.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Gave Her Strength
King City, Mo.—For seven months before my baby was born I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was able to do my own work and to eat heartily, where before I was a weak, sickly and could not relish a meal. Congratulations to the Vegetable Compound, as it is the best tonic in the best tonic I have ever taken.

I ever took. I have given birth to seven children before this, losing all of them, not being able for some reason to carry them to their full time. I hope this letter will help others to use this tonic.—Mrs. A. L. CLEVELAND, Box 354, King City, Missouri.

NARROW ESCAPE IN AUTO MIX-UP PHOENIX SECTOR

By MARY O. CAREY
KIDEN PREGNANT, Sept. 20.—

Last Sunday evening while several young ladies lying near Phoenix were accompanying Miss Ercel Young in her car to make a call on the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denzer, at the Hader place, Miss Young in turning around killed her engine in the center of the road. Before she could set it started two other cars came upon her and had to collide in order to avoid striking the stalled car. A man coming from the south also came near running into the stalled car because of the lights blinding him. Luckily, no one was seriously hurt and the cars were only slightly damaged. Only a week before, within 50 steps of this same place, Mr. Hamilton and his sister came near being killed when their skidded and struck the end of the cement culvert across the road. Their car turned completely over and landed inside down within 20 feet of where it struck. Mr. Hamilton had a broken collar bone and minor bruises but Miss Hamilton was not injured.

Mrs. Irene Wells carried off many of the first prizes at the county fair. Mrs. Wells has always received first prizes on her canned exhibits and on cakes and dried products.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson had a very fine pen of White Leghorn pullets at the county fair. They took a first prize. T. J. Fish and his son, Harold, took several firsts on their stock exhibits at the fair.

Mr. C. Lockwood of the White Wing captured a number of firsts and a grand champion on his Leghorn at the fair. East Eden was shocked and grieved at the sudden death of Jas. Campbell, one of the best known farmers and stock men in this valley. Mr. Campbell was highly respected and beloved by all who knew him and will be mourned by a host of friends. Sympatians are extended to the bereaved widow and family.

The E. T. Newby packing house at Phoenix is installing a new apple grading machine and the packers had a couple of days of enforced idleness this week.

Mrs. J. W. Fish of Phoenix enjoyed a visit the latter part of the week from her mother, Mrs. Ida E. Jones, and also her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Staten of Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner of Yreka were visiting Mrs. Gardner's aunt, Mrs. Ed Hamilton, near Phoenix. They were accompanied by Mrs. Hamilton to Crater Lake.

Mrs. George Jackson was calling on Mrs. Hamilton last Wednesday afternoon.

Thieves entered the garden of Will High of Talent and took fruit and vegetables to the extent of a load for a Ford car. Anyone who would pilfer the garden of a man who is situated like Mr. High is devoid of any heart at all.

Mr. and Mrs. Day of Ashland came down last Sunday to hear Rev. Nelson's sermon and are glad to know Mr. Nelson is leaving Phoenix soon.

Ed Hamilton is hauling straw from the Carey place for winter feeding. Mr. Van Dyke is hauling the last alfalfa crop from the George Hartley place to his dairy ranch north of Phoenix.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barneburg are spending a week or ten days at the Barneburg stock range home, while Mr. Barneburg has a hunting trip.

Lightning killed one of Fred Barneburg's work horses last Saturday night during the big storm. The horse was near the dwelling house when struck.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Drake were visiting at the Carey home last Sunday afternoon, as were Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Rouse and family.
