

C. POINT WOMAN RETURNS AFTER LONG ABSENCE

CENTRAL POINT, Sept. 21. — After an absence of 28 years, Mrs. Rose Jackson, formerly Mrs. Rose Pankay, returned to her old home in Central Point to visit her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. O. Pankay, her sister, Mrs. Della Tex and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Jackson was accompanied by her two sons, Sam and Andrew, and her daughters, Mrs. Twitchell and her two children from Oklahoma. Mrs. Jackson and sons live in Woodbury, Cal., at present, but since leaving Central Point, she has been to South America and Hawaii.

Mrs. Twitchell and children left Sunday for their home in Oklahoma and Mrs. Jackson and sons left for Salem, Wednesday to attend the state fair, after which they will return to Central Point for another few days' visit before returning to their home in California.

Attorney Trill of Medford, accompanied by his daughter, Jeanette and son, Jerome, were in town Wednesday evening. Iva J. Purkayle started on her return trip to his home near Soda Creek, P. C., Saturday, after a few weeks' visit with his mother, Mrs. Mabel Purkayle, his brother, O. C. Purkayle and many old time friends. This is Mr. Purkayle's first trip home for about 10 years, during which many changes have been wrought in our city and valley.

Mr. Morgan has purchased the Charles Cassidy house, near the prison, and is remodeling it, preparatory to occupying it. Horace Terrell spent last week in our valley, visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Fox and other old time friends. He drove back to Newburg the last of the week to begin his duties as dean of men this week in the Newburg college. He is well and favorably known in our valley, as he taught a couple of years in our high school and then another couple in the Medford high.

Mrs. Ernest Reams, who has been here nearly all summer, was able to be at the fair one day last week. Mrs. Mary Mathes and daughter, Mary Francis of Medford, spent the day at Fox's last Sunday. Dr. Goldsbury made a business trip to Roseburg Thursday, returning home Friday. Ed Miller has been engaged in doing carpenter work for Dr. and Mrs. Goldsbury recently. W. C. Nicholson was a caller on his cousin, Mrs. Maude Rosewell last Monday.

Noel Briske of Medford was in town Monday, organizing his piano class for the winter. He has several pupils and expects to be in town every Monday during the coming winter. The Christian Endeavor society gave Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hezmadlich and family and their guests, Mr. Philby Coon a farewell party in the Christian Endeavor room last Thursday evening, at which about 40 were present. It was given in the form of an old country school and appropriate costumes were worn and lunch of sandwiches, bananas and cookies were served in pairs. The main entertainment of the evening was the old-fashioned school of which Miss Edith Inman was school marum. The Ladies Aid gave Mrs. Wesley Duncan a surprise Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fret Duncan. About a dozen ladies were present and a pleasant afternoon was spent in sewing and social talk. Mrs. Grimes and Mrs. Webster furnished refreshments of Angel food, chocolate cake and tea.
