

ASHLAND

ASHLAND, Sept. 22.—Orville Hall, who worked at Government Camp service station near Crater Lake the past summer, will leave soon to attend the University of Oregon.

John Churchman, son of Mrs. Elsie Churchman of Union street, will leave soon for Los Angeles on a business trip.

Warren Doremus will take Henry Humes' place temporarily on the Union Oil company truck while Humes is off on a vacation.

A Young People's Christian Endeavor rally was held at the Presbyterian church on Friday evening. A good-sized crowd from all of Crater Lake's vicinity attended. After the dinner and business session, the time was spent in games and stunts.

Mrs. and Mrs. Eric Wald of Medford were in Ashland Thursday to register their daughter Evelyn for attendance at the Southern Oregon Normal school.

D. D. Randall, local missionary for the American Sunday school union, spent several days in Ashland the past week. He has started an average of over one Sunday school per month during the past year and is now serving nearly fifty rural communities.

Dorothy Reid, society editor of the Ashland Tribune, who recently recovered from an operation for appendicitis, was confined to her home again Friday on account of illness.

Mrs. Hilma Maria Jalo, widow of the late Conrad Jalo, died Thursday night at her home at 257 Avery street. Mrs. Jalo was fifty years of age and death came as a result of paralysis. Several children survive. Funeral services will be held from the Stock Undertaking parlors on Sunday afternoon at 1:30. Burial will be in one of the Ashland cemeteries.

O. A. McGee, brother of J. A. McGee of Ashland, will be employed by A. C. Coates of the first state grocery. McGee was in the Economy Grocery at Medford for several years.

C. L. Mariner of Washington, D. C., was in Ashland several days the past week on business. He represents the United States chamber of commerce.

Paul Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Wagner on Granite street, returned to his home Thursday from employment during the summer under Col. Thomson, superintendent of Crater Lake national park. Paul will leave soon for his senior year at the University of Oregon.

Geo. Ingham returned to Ashland recently after two weeks in the Platt Pacific country.

H. D. Norton, Grants Pass attorney, was in Ashland Friday, and addressed the Kiwanis club on the subject of "The Constitution."

Victor Russell, county commissioner, was in Ashland Thursday and visited the Fred Ingham road construction work.

Dr. L. D. Inskip, county physician, was in Ashland Thursday afternoon.

C. P. Talbot, state traffic officer, and Mrs. Talbot, returned to Ashland after several days spent in Portland where Mrs. Talbot was called to testify in an investigation by the federal grand jury.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Stancury returned to their home in Medford after spending several days in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Davenport of the Valley View section visited in Medford on Thursday afternoon.

Wilfred Wagner, youngest son of Postmaster and Mrs. P. D. Wagner, has registered in the Southern California branch of the University of California where he will take work in architecture thru the winter.

Mrs. Grace Ambrose has returned to her home in Ashland after spending two days with her sister, Mrs. A. G. Adams near Central Point.

Ex-Mayor Chas. H. Pierce is reported as somewhat improved from his recent stroke of paralysis. While he is still partially bedridden his suffering is not so severe.

Carl Swinart, business manager of the Medford News, and Ted Baker, secretary of the Medford chamber of commerce, were in Ashland Thursday. Mr. Baker told the Rotarians about his recent visit to the Los Angeles Alhambra exhibition.

Mrs. P. D. Wagner was dinner hostess on Friday at her home on Granite street, entertaining the Variety Vagabonds, a group of University of Oregon students, given in number, who have spent the summer vacation in northwestern Oregon and southwestern Washington filling orchestras, engagements, with headquarters at La Grande, Oregon, and Walla Walla, Washington. The boys, whose homes are in different sections of Oregon, are now returning to the University of Oregon at Eugene for another year, after a pleasant and profitable vacation during which they traveled several thousands of miles in their highly decorated automobile, with a trailer which carried their instruments. Two southern Oregon students, Lawrence Wagner of Ashland, and George Moore of Medford, are in the group which expects to carry on its orchestral work on the college campus this winter.

Grange Meeting at Jacksonville

A good meeting was reported by the Jacksonville Grangers last Friday evening. The meeting was conducted by Mr. Gallagher, secretary of the Law Oake grange, who gave many helpful suggestions concerning grange organization.

Following a short business session, a social get-together was held, at which time plans were discussed concerning a big social evening to be held at the next meeting, September 28th. All members are urged to attend at invitation, is also extended to members of neighboring granges.

A good time and good eats at the program.
