ATHLETICS MUFF ANOTHER CHANCE TO TOPPLE YANKS

By Herbert W. Barker,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Connie Mack has had many a bitter disappointment, but none to compare with what 1928 seems to have in store for him. To fail at the very edge of splendid triumph will cause him more grief than he knew when his Philadelphia Athletics were chronic tailenders.

And fail it seems the 1928 Athletics must. Connie built this year with the utmost diligence, carefully blending veteran experience with fiery youth so that the qualities of both were used with the best advantage. That product of his genius battered its way to the top of the league only to slip back after a tenure of only one day.

Since that late series with their dread rivals, the New York Yankees, when the Athletics lost three out of four and their hold on first place, Connie's charges have been presented with a number of opportunities to overhaul the leaders, only to fail at the most critical moments.

Take yesterday for example: Walter Miller, tricky left-hander of the Cleveland Indians, set the Yankees down with five hits and beat them, 4 to 3. Presented with a golden chance to snip the Yanks' two-game lead in two, the A's instead were bowled over by the St. Louis Browns, 6 to 2, leaving the relative standing of the two clubs unchanged. It was the second time in three days that the A's passed up an opportunity to gain. With only five games on Philadelphia's schedule and six for the Yankees, Connie's chances of winning his first pennant since 1914 seem slim indeed.

The Washington Senators took undisputed possession of fourth place by turning back the Chicago White Sox, 8 to 4. The Boston Red Sox found Sarg Gibson for only five hits and Detroit coasted to an 8 to 0 victory. Jack Rothrock, Red Sox outfielder, started in left field, then played shortstop and ended by pitching the final inning, giving the Tigers no hits.

Meanwhile the St. Louis Cardinals protected their one-game lead in the National league by trouncing Brooklyn, 9 to 2, while the New York Giants home-runned their way to a 7 to 4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Old Pete Alexander kept Brooklyn batsmen subdued all day while the Cards were ripping three Dodger pitchers for 14 hits, including Jim Bottomley's 31st homer of the year. That drive, with none on in the fifth, gave Bottomley the league lead, his nearest rival being Hack Wilson of the Chicago Cubs, who has hit 30.

All of the Giants' runs were scored on homers, Lefty O'Doul getting two, with one each for Mel Ott and Travis Jackson. Jackson's came with two on in the eighth and broke a 4-4 tie that existed at that moment. Outside of these homeruns, Ray Kolp pitched well, outpitched Larry Benton, in fact, but those long clouts enabled the Giants' red-head to record his 25th victory of the year.

The Cubs retained their mathematical chance to win the pennant by trimming the poor old Phillies, 7 to 6, although the tailenders gave Joe McCarthy some bad moments by scoring three runs in the ninth, within one of a tie.

The Pittsburgh Pirates took the first game of a double-header from the Braves, 3 to 1, in 10 innings, but were beaten in the nightcap, 4 to 2.

MISS ORCUTT MAKES FINE GOLF RECORD

CASCADE GOLF COURSE, HOT SPRINGS, Va., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Maureen Orcutt, Englewood, N. J., runner-up in last year's woman's golf championship, made a bid for medalist honors in the 1928 championship today when she played the 18-hole qualifying round in 80.

She reached the turn in 41, even women's par, and clipped two strokes from perfect figures for women players, when she came home in 39. She ended her round with a birdie three at the 18th when she sent her tee shot well on the green from the tee 200 yards away.

NEW BOXING HALL WILL BE OPENED HERE ON FRIDAY

The new boxing arena in the Childers building will be given its baptism of fire Friday evening when fists fly in one of the best cards presented here in many years. The bouts will be staged by the Medford boxing commission.

The main event will see Pat Padelford, Medford's sensational lightweight, pitted against Lakey Morrison, a speedy 133-pound Filipino. Morrison is not as scientific a boxer as Padelford, but is tough and a ready mixer and throws a barrage of leather which will require all of Pat's science to avoid. This bout should provide thrills from the first gong, as the difference in style, the Filipino a rough and ready battler, and Padelford a cool, scientific but hard hitter, will give each a chance to travel his favorite route.

Morrison is working out in Portland with Ritchie King and other fast boys and, according to word received by Matchmaker Sailor Jack Wood, the Filipino will be in great form and able to go the 10-round route Friday night with ease, if necessary.

A six-round semi-winding affair between Morrie Harris of Portland, who tips the beam at 155 pounds, and Kid Wagner, 158-pound Medford boy, is another bout which will be viewed with interest by the fans. Harris is a rugged product who believes the best way to keep in trim is to fight often and Wagner is of much the same type.

Preliminary events include a pair of four-round goes between Eddie Green, Crescent City 158-pounder, and Kenneth Powell of Medford, who will weigh in at 154, and Bud Riley, Medford, 128 pounds, and Kid Marshall, Aberdeen, Wash., 122 pounds.

The recently completed arena is the best of its kind ever installed in Medford, with 800 seats, dressing rooms for the boxers, a weighing-in room and other facilities which will make it possible to stage the card in rapid-fire order and without the confusion which is frequently found where seconds, pugilists, spectators and ring officials are crowded into aisles and seats during and between the bouts.

One hundred and fifty of the ringside seats are in the reserve class, the remainder being open to general admission ticket holders.

The Business Men's Athletic club, located in the same quarters, will open about the 15th with plenty of gymnasium equipment, hot and cold showers and a Turkish bath in connection. Sailor Jack Wood and Tribby Ryan, the latter a former Oregon State Agricultural college athlete and protege of Robin Reed, will act as instructors.

Boxing bouts will be carded every two weeks during the fall if the boxing commission finds sufficient worth-while material and sufficient interest among the fans.

GET SALEM FOOTBALL TEAM HERE OCT. 13TH

The Salem high school football team will play the Medford high school in this city Saturday, October 13, in the first gridiron contest between the two teams in five years. Negotiations for the game were completed last night by Coach Pelnk Callison. The resumption of athletic relations with the colorful Willamette valley team will be welcomed by Medford fans.

Les Collins, Portland, fighting at 142 pounds, scored a first-round knockout over Sig Salvatore, Astoria, in their scheduled four-round go.

NO. CALIFORNIA ROD AND GUN CLUB IS BOOSTED HERE

C. T. Baker of Los Angeles, Cal., is in the valley for a few days in the interest of organizing a rod and gun club which will have exclusive rights over a 3000-acre hunting ground situated in Siskiyou county, California, on the Weed-Klamath Falls highway and the Southern Pacific highway in full view of Mt. Shasta.

According to present plans, the lakes, mountain, meadow and marsh land will be fenced with a minimum game fence and stocked with mule deer and elk. The lake is said to be teeming with fish including rainbow, bass, eastern brook trout and others.

Approximately 1000 acres of the marsh land will be seeded to wild rice, wild celery, pond lilies and wapato. A modern club house will be built for the convenience of the members, the number being limited to 25, Mr. Baker estimated.

Each member will have a deed to a summer home on the lake shore and have free access to the entire 3000 acres at all times.

PROHIBITION IS CHIEF ISSUE IN PASTOR'S OPINION

LA GRANDE, Ore., Sept. 25.—(AP)—With the opening statement, "this is no longer a political campaign—it is rather a moral revolution," the Rev. William Burgoyne, South Methodist church, addressed the W. C. T. U. here this afternoon, attacking Gov. Alfred E. Smith's position on prohibition.

"The election of Smith would be the greatest blow enforcement of the prohibition law could receive," he said. "He will seek to do in the nation what he has done in New York, nullify the eighteenth amendment."

Charging that under Governor Smith the New York police have become allies of lawlessness, Rev. Burgoyne said: "Smith knows nothing of American ideals. His training has been from foreign parents and the Roman Catholic church."

Rev. Burgoyne declared the "main issue of the campaign is prohibition, and pledged his vote to Hoover and Curtis. "We have no more sons to be enslaved by drink, no more daughters to marry drunken men," he said.
