

UNVEILING TREATY MARKER AT TABLE R. WEEK'S BIG EVENT

TABLE ROCK, Sept. 27.—The unveiling of the peace treaty marker here Tuesday afternoon was attended by a large crowd from many parts of the valley, who seemed to take a keen interest in the appropriate program arranged by the Oregon historical society, the children of the American Revolution and others.

The Table Rock school, who took part in the program, marched in a body to the grounds.

Miss Evelyn Hamilton left Sunday for Corvallis to begin her first year at O. A. C.

Mrs. M. D. Lydland, who is now living in Ashland, visited her farm here Tuesday.

Mrs. Lydland and Mrs. Lawrence are running a boarding house for students of the Ashland Normal.

The annual filling of silos was completed here the first of the week, and several of our farmers are engaged in putting up the fourth crop of alfalfa.

Donald Wilson left Wednesday to begin his second year at the University of Oregon.

Lester and Alvin Hamilton and Chas. Wilson returned Wednesday evening from Salem, where they attended the state fair for a couple of days.

Miss Alice Seubroeck left Sunday for Ashland to enroll as a Normal student for the ensuing year.

The picking of winter Neils pears will be practically finished here this week, which will complete the fruit harvest, with the exception of apples.

At a meeting of the Table Rock Community club Friday night, the following officers were elected for the next year: R. E. Nealon, president; Verne Pendleton, vice-president; and Miss Brown, secretary-treasurer.

A short program was carried out consisting of a reading by Mrs. Van Fleet, a short talk by Mrs. Carter, county school superintendent, and an interesting description of her trip to Europe by Miss Burr, county school supervisor. A vote of thanks was given to the returning officers.

Among the hunters returning from the hills and reporting good luck at finding deer are Ralph Wilson and John Nealon, who were almost surrounded in the Evans Creek district one day last week by big bucks, but for some reason could not locate the front sights on their rifles. Their friends say they had what is commonly called "luck ager."
