Sounds familiar, doesn't it? Yet that is a question confronting the housewife every day—Feeding the family and varying the menu to please all is just about the toughest problem the housewife has to solve—one that requires a lot of study—and a thorough knowledge of foods.

The solution is very easy if you shop here where everything the world's markets afford is arranged on convenient tables for your leisurely inspection; look around as much as you like—no clerk will ask you to buy and you won't have the embarrassment of asking prices—Endless varieties of the best quality foods—all plainly marked.—Visit us often and you will agree that besides the big saving—much benefit is gained by a visit to the Market Place of Southern Oregon.
