doing practical Christian work

The outlook is splendid, and the outlook is inspiring. Come help. There will be services at the Sams Valley school house at 2:30 in the afternoon. We are hoping that many of our own people will go out to assist the men in the work.

There will be a social half hour with light refreshments at 6:30 p. m. Newcomers are cordially invited to meet with us.

We will unite with the Methodist church, North 8 p. m. in a crowded to Rev. T. H. Temple, their retiring pastor.

Tomorrow we are to review the life of the great missionary, Paul. What a life his was. The secret of it is found in the golden text, Gal. 2:20, "Our school meets at 9:45. The Bible is the book we use. We will be glad to have you join a class. Get into the study of the Holy Scriptures.

We welcome you, too, to our church services. At eleven o'clock in the morning the subject to be discussed will be: What the older people of the church owe the younger people. This will be a plain gospel sermon, with no extra trimmings. In the evening, the other side of the subject will be the theme, What the Young People Can Do to Help the Church Work. Good music will be a part of the services. The young ladies quartet will sing in the evening service.

The young people's services at 6:30 will be of the high order of the season. Here you will find a splendid group of young people
