MARTINS HONORED DANCE PLANNED BY EVANS CREEK FAREWELL PARTY

By Myrtle E. Whipple.
FOURTH DIVISION, Ore., Oct. 5.—(Special)—A number of friends and neighbors gathered Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Martin on Evans creek and gave them a farewell party. Mr. and Mrs. Martin have sold their ranch home and are going away on account of the falling of Mr. Martin's health.

Mrs. Oscar Shepherd, Mrs. Wm. Trotter, Mrs. Wm. Eads and Mr. and Mrs. Botkin motored to Ashland one day last week. From that city Mr. and Mrs. Botkin took the train for their old home at St. Louis, Mo., where they will spend several weeks visiting their daughter and other relatives.

Mrs. L. J. Evans of Medford spent Sunday afternoon visiting with Mrs. James Whipple. F. H. Adams and son Francis, of Enclitas, Cal., are spending a few weeks here visiting old friends and attending to business. Elmer Chamberlain and John Way were business visitors at Klamath Falls last Wednesday. Alva LaSks, who is teaching at Jacksonville spent the week end with home folks.

Born September 29 to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gaudreath a ten pound son. The young man has been named Bruce Lee. It is hard to say which grandfather is the proudest as this is the first grandson for both Mr. Buckhart and Mr. Gaudreath.

Mr. Dusenbury returned to his home in Medford Sunday. Mr. Dusenbury has been driving a logging truck for Mr. Kirkland. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Wiley and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wiley and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wiley, Jr. and daughter, P. J. McCloud, Cal., visited over Sunday at the Wiley-Carter ranch. Mrs. M. B. Bliss of Rogue River was also a dinner guest there Sunday.

Miss Lora Haldeman, Miss Loretta Mason and Miss Willie, all teachers in the Rogue River schools, were Medford shoppers on Saturday. Mr. Priest, chief of police, fell while dragging up some timbers Saturday and hit his side, breaking two of his ribs. At this writing he is resting very easy but will be confined to the house for some time.

George Scott, who has been camped all summer at the forks of Evans Creek has moved back to town. His duty as fire warden ended October 1. Mr. and Mrs. George Wright of Table Rock and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bowman and children of Central Point, were callers on Mr. and Mrs. James Whipple Sunday.

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 5.—(Special)—Elton Hemmaway, 18, Salem high school girl, has taken an outstanding position among women bowlers on the Pacific coast by running up a score of 255 on the Winter Garden alleys here. The score is said to be among the highest in 10 years for women bowlers in the west.

Klamath Falls—Oregon and Portland avenues newly paved and opened to traffic.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 5.—(Special)—Twelve prisoners, three of whom were held on federal charges, escaped from the Franklin county jail here at 4:29 a. m., forcing open an iron barred door, burrowing through a brick wall and sliding down a line of blankets which had been tied together.

The jail delivery, carefully timed and executed, occurred during the brief interval in which the warden, Steven Tompax, had left his office to go to his home, less than fifty yards away, to awake his son.

Vale—Molton alfalfa hay yield is highest in state, survey shows. Gold Beach—Section of Roosevelt highway south of Bando being oiled.

TO OPEN SCHOOL FOR BIBLE STUDY ASHLAND MONDAY

ASHLAND, Ore., Oct. 5.—(Special)—Ashland's week-day Bible school will open on next Monday under the supervision of Mrs. Grace E. Andrews who has conducted the school since it was organized. Mrs. Andrews has plans all laid for the winter course and has secured considerable new equipment to be used in the classes.

W. W. Wells, science teacher at the Southern Oregon Normal school, and William Tucker, a normal student from Medford, made a successful ascent of Mt. Skasta on Sunday. They went to the timber line on Saturday afternoon and made the climb on the following morning. They report excellent weather at the top after they had journeyed above the clouds.

Sylvan Provost has returned home after spending several days in Portland attending to business affairs. F. L. Nutter and H. L. Claycomb are Ashland residents who were serving on the jury at Medford Tuesday.

Miss Thelma Hervey is ill at her home at the Park hotel. W. W. Fordney of Klamath Falls was in Ashland on Monday. Mrs. Nate Otterbein and Mrs. Robert Sloan of Klamath Falls, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Otterbein's mother, Mrs. A. L. Harvey.

The ladies of the Bellevue Community club will hold a dance on Thursday evening and at the close will award the hope chest to the lucky winner. They have been quite successful in the sale of chances for the chest and will realize a neat sum from the venture.

Ashland friends of Rev. Nelson of Phoenix motored to Phoenix on Sunday to hear the pastor deliver his farewell sermon before leaving for McMinnville where he will have charge of the Presbyterian pastorate.

The recent rains are damaging the fall flowers that have been blooming in such profusion. Many Ashland yards have had fine displays of zinnias, asters, gladioli and dahlias.

Mr. and Mrs. John Enders and Mrs. Elsie Crow left on Monday on a trip to San Francisco which will combine business and pleasure. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gass have moved their household goods from Beach avenue to their ranch near Medford. Their son Durward will assist his father at the ranch and will attend school at Medford. Mrs. Gass and her daughter, Beverly, will remain in Ashland for a time. Mrs. Gass is employed at the Earl H. Isaac store.

H. S. Atkins, wire chief for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, has turned from Portland where he attended a convention for employees of the company. Frank Hornbush, Ed. Coombing and Bill Johnson left Tuesday to hunt for deer near Roseburg.

Freshman students at the Southern Oregon Normal school were given a written test on English Tuesday morning. The test is the one used by the various colleges and universities.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Homes have returned from their honeymoon trip to California cities. They will make their home in Ashland where Mr. Homes is in the employ of the Union Oil company. There was a full attendance of members of the Ashland Study club at the first meeting of the year held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. G. E. on Wimer Heights. Mrs. J. D. Wagner gave a very thoughtful review of Galsworthy's novel, "The Swan Song." Mrs. Fred Engle gave as the minor topic for the afternoon a review of conditions in Africa. At the close of the program the hostess served a variety of delicious grapes to her guests. Mrs. Grace Hasty of Los Angeles and Mrs. Marie Malmgren Jackson of Corvallis were guests of the club.

Three women who are well known in Ashland were injured about 12:20 Tuesday in an automobile accident when their car, a Buick sedan, skidded on the highway a short distance this side of Klamath Junction. Mrs. T. T. Ahlstrom of Klamath Falls, a daughter of Attorney and Mrs. W. J. Moore of Ashland, was probably the most seriously injured. She was severely lacerated and may be suffering from internal injuries. Mrs. Sam Kelly of Dunsmuir, who was driving the car, was cut above the legs and severely bruised. Mrs. Kelly is the daughter of Mrs. M. R. Carter of Ashland. Mrs. M. R. Carter, who resides on Second street in Ashland, is suffering from bruises and shock. The three women and Mr. Ahlstrom were on their way to Ashland to bring Mrs. Carter to her home after a visit of several days in her daughter's home in Dunsmuir. Mr. Ahlstrom received no injuries but was unable to tell just how the accident happened. The car had skidded and turned on the wet pavement and had landed on its side. The injured women were picked up by passing motorists and rushed to the Community hospital in Ashland.
