KISSLESS RITUAL USED BY JUDGE IN FIRST HOOKUP

County Judge Alex Sparrow is harsh with reporters. But when it comes to hitchhiking brides—well, that's a different story. It was just 15 1/2 minutes to 10 when a Mail-Tribune scribe entered the sanctum of the judge and asked how come he refused to perform marriage ceremonies.

"I'm busy—got a lot of work to do," he snapped. "But in some cases—you really ought to be prepared. There'll come a time."

DR. VAN SCOYOC PASSES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Dr. Charles C. Van Scoyoc, a well known resident of this city, died at his home on North Orange street this morning, October 5, 1928, after an illness of many years. The funeral services will be held from the First Episcopal Home next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Dr. Van Scoyoc has been in failing health for the last 10 years and throughout the days of suffering he bore with sweet patience and noble resignation his affliction. His passing brings a time of sadness to a wide circle of friends.

Dr. Van Scoyoc was born near Saybrook, Ill., March 14, 1874. At an early age he graduated from the Indiana Dental College, and began his practice in Indianapolis.

TRIBUNE COUPLE GET BUGGY RIDE FOR HONEYMOON

A truck ride through Medford was not what Mary Hess and Dave Griffiths, veteran members of the Mail Tribune family, had planned for the first lap of their honeymoon journey. But brides and grooms are not always consulted in such matters.

Through the streets of Medford the newlyweds were taken, and blushes and protestations on the part of Mary and Dave proved of no avail. In front of the Mail Tribune the couple were given a shower bath of rice, and the bride presented with an engraved postcard by Ken Murray.

Members of the business and editorial staff accompanied the couple on the remainder of their circuitous journey, finally leaving them with many words of appreciation for the "buggy ride" and well wishes for a happy honeymoon southward.
