Early this fall a slender, reserved young man left this city and went to Chico, Cal., where he enrolled at the Teacher's college. It seems that this fellow was very shy where the ladies were concerned. For over a year Dwight was employed by the local weather bureau and it was necessary for him to touch over the edge of his bed each morning and shut off the alarm clock at some early hour in order that he might report at the office for balloon observations at exactly 2:15 o'clock. "I am getting so fat that my brother calls me 'Beef Trust,' since I have fixed the alarm clock so it doesn't function as it did in Medford," he said in the letter.

Much interest is being shown in the Copco radio program for next Tuesday night which will feature Helen Norris' latest radio play. Local people who heard this new drama over KGO last Thursday night were well pleased with the production which is rated as one of Miss Norris' best efforts. A unique window display in the window of the Copco general office building is attracting a great deal of interest from passersby. The exhibit denotes the progress in Medford's street lighting during the past twenty years and shows a new overhead lighting fixture in comparison with the old modern equipment of 1908. A colored picture of the latest modern lighting standards similar to those now under consideration for Sixth street, is also shown in the windows as well as a large map which portrays the electrical development in America in recent years. Last but not least is a card which carries the popular Medford slogan "This is a Great Country."

Hose mending reasonable. Prices 25c to 50c.—Handicraft Shop, 702.

Promising to be good boys in the future, Walter Jones, 14 and his brother George Jones, 11, of Rogue River, who confessed responsibility for a fire which burned over a half acre of ground in that vicinity last week, let county Judge Alex Sparrow's office yesterday with a suspended sentence and a good behavior ticket in their ears. The boys were brought into the city by their father and explained their part in the damage. They had started out to destroy a rat's nest near their home, they said, when the fire began to spread and finally got beyond their control. Frightened, they ran and let it take its course, instead of reporting it. No serious damage was done to the surrounding property, however. A fine in the Economy Grocery last evening, which did trifling damage was extinguished with chemicals.

Obituary

Mrs. Katie Grieco, returned to Medford yesterday from Los Angeles, where she was called by the death of her father, C. M. Fries, well known and beloved resident of Jackson county for many years.

Mr. Fries, who was 84 years of age at the time of his death, leaves five children to mourn his passing. They are: Major General Fries, who graduated from the local high school, later from West Point and is now head of the chemical warfare department at Washington, D. C.; A. C. Fries of Portland; Mrs. O. C. Purkey of Central Point; Mrs. Wm. T. Grieco and C. V. Fries, of Los Angeles, youngest son, with whom the deceased made his home for the past eight years.

Funeral services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Stearns of Medford whose death occurred in this city, Friday, October 5th will be conducted from the Congregational parsonage, West Main, at Newtown street, Monday, October 8th, at 2 p. m. Rev. C. E. Melf will have charge of the service and interment will be made in the Jacksonville cemetery.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Conditional authorization of the unification of the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific railways and the Northern Railway after consultation with the Interstate Commerce Commission that certain objections voiced to the proposal, if deemed valid by the commission, could be met by conditional approval of the merger.

The Weather Forecast—Sunday cloudy; probably rain; not much change in temperature. Maximum yesterday 65. Minimum 52.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Although ill and fevered by a bad cold, Commander Richard H. Best today stood on the threshold of his next great adventure, eager to be off on his Antarctic mission of filling in the blank map.
