

Local and Personal

Last week was another record week for the local branch of the United States free employment bureau, which placed 220 men and women at work in orchards and packing houses, with apple picking the main means of employment.

Notice to S. & H. green trading stamp collectors: Until further notice Fluhrer's Bread wrappers will be redeemed at the stamp office in the M. M. Department Store at the following ratio: Large loaf wrappers, 2 stamps, and small loaf wrappers, 1 stamp.

Duck hunting in the Warner lake section of Lake county is good, according to a hunting party which returned yesterday from a three-day hunting trip. The party, which was composed of Harry Hinabarger, Sterling Richmond, Stanley Jones and Ed Mistry, bagged the limit and also killed several geese.

Open for business, Thomas Realty Co. Furniture and chattel loans, Palm Block, cor. Main and Front, upstairs.

Among the hotel guests in Medford from a distance are Mr. and Mrs. H. Larabee of Vancouver, B. C., Dorothy Carter and Dorothy Moll of Denver, Mr. and Mrs. William Dunford of Chicago and Wilfred Lewis of New York City.

Why throw that $2.00 pair of hose away because of a little runner. You can have it made like new at the Handicraft Shop. Call and we will be glad to explain. Phone 792.

The new rifle club, the organization of which was begun several weeks ago, is continuing to show satisfactory progress, according to Harry Hinabarger, who began the move for its reorganization. At the present time, 25 members have indicated their willingness to join.

Concerning your eyes, consult Dr. D. A. Chambers, Optometrist, 317 Medford Bldg. For appointment, Phone 188. Glasses fitted and furnished.

Among the Medford people who attended the Stanford and University of Oregon football game at Eugene last Saturday were P. O. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. H. Van Rosenburg, Leonard Carpenter, H. W. Ruhl, Robert Hammond, J. A. Carkin, C. L. Reynolds, Harry Rosenberg, W. W. Hartley, Earl Weaver and W. D. King. H. C. Galey of Ashland was also among those present.

C. L. Goff writes all kinds of insurance. See him, Telephone 822, Office, 419 East Main. 1881*

Among the out of town Oregonians registered at local hotels are C. H. Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Michels of Bend, A. King of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. William Oulton of Salem, Mrs. Frederick Watson of Dallas and W. Derr, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sanderson, F. S. Jones, Ethel Fuller, D. L. McNell, S. H. Hickey and Eddie Hogan of Portland.

Runners in your nose reopened like new. We will be glad to explain.—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hunt of Medford were in this city over Friday visiting with friends.—Rosenburg News-Review.

Fluhrer's Bread wrappers, until further notice, will be redeemed for S. & H. green trading stamps at the following ratio: Large loaf wrappers, 2 cents; small loaf wrappers, 1 stamp. Redeemable at stamp headquarters in M. M. Department Store.

Bert Hiesby, arrested by the sheriff's office Saturday night at Eagle Point on a moonshine possession charge, and O. B. Hammon, arrested at the same place on a similar charge by State Traffic Officer Herbert Moore, were scheduled to have hearings in the justice court here today.

Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville, Ore., C. L. Goff, agent, 419 East Main St., Tel. 922. 1881*

They must be good—1550 Majestic Radios sold in Oregon in 48 days. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunford arrived last evening from Chico, Cal., to spend several days here on route on a business trip to Portland.

Hear one, then decide.—Palmer Music House. 200*

Quality

has built the reputation of Fluhrer's milk bread. It costs you no more, but there's a world of difference. Compare it.

Following a 2,000-mile tour of eastern Oregon and Idaho, Earl W. Weaver and Mrs. Mary Wagner, his grandmother, returned last evening to their home in Central Point, accompanied by Ernest Roedel. They visited friends and relatives in Cove, Joseph, Vale and other eastern Oregon points and also left in Idaho. Mrs. Wagner left two months ago to visit at Cove, her old home, where she had resided continuously for 64 years before coming to Central Point two years ago to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Weaver, and joined her grandson when he arrived there the latter part of last month.

Notice to S. & H. green trading stamp collectors: Until further notice Fluhrer's Bread wrappers will be redeemed at the stamp office in the M. M. Department Store at the following ratio: Large loaf wrappers, 2 stamps, and small loaf wrappers, 1 stamp.

California registered at local hotels include Mrs. E. C. Frazer of Gilroy, Maude Merritt of Van Nuys, J. H. Privett of San Pedro, W. G. Wood of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. George Quills of Los Angeles, Sam Stinbel and family of Berkeley and D. M. English of San Francisco.

Shops worked back.—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792.

Robbery warrants were issued at the county clerk's office to Roy G. Smith and L. M. Matheny, both of Medford, for the killing of a woman. Handicraft Shop, our specialty.

Following a visit with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsby of Klamath Junction, for the past five months, Miss Betty Ramsby will leave this week for New York City to resume her studies as a pianist.

Always ask for Fluhrer's Breads the finest on the market and baked in southern Oregon's finest and most modern equipped bakery. Wrappers redeemable for S. & H. green trading stamps.

Shops worked back.—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792.

Snedcor Shop, 493 Medford Bldg., exclusive draperies and special order work of all kinds.

Among the local football fans who motored to Eugene Saturday for the Oregon-Stanford game were Mrs. O. A. Burres and Miss Alice Stark.

Shingling, reshiming, roof repairing.—L. N. McCollum, 836 N. Central, Phone 1223-W.

Friends of Dr. Richard Mulholland, who accompanied him on a duck hunting trip last week in the Tule lake section, are still checking over the doctor's prowess as a hunter. The hunting party was composed of Clarence Eads, Dr. Mulholland, Charles Reames and Harry Hansen, and the latter related today that while other members of the party managed to bag the limit, the doctor killed only one duck, and it is believed by them to have been one that was unable to fly because of marsh sickness. However, the doctor claims that it was a healthy condition when he brought it to earth.

When in the market for a beautiful new silk dress, come and see what I have. They are remarkably cheap. Just from New York City. Call Mrs. Howard L. Barto, 964-L.

Two rings were reported stolen from the home of K. Yamashita on Ivy Street Saturday afternoon, according to the police, who were unable to find clues. The rings by boys prowling around the area believed to have been taken in neighborhood.

Shops worked back.—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792.

Major and Mrs. W. Mott of New York City stopped here Saturday. Mr. Mott is a United States deputy game warden.

Up-to-the-minute stylish sport dresses and suits, silk and wool jersey, made to measure. Patterns can be seen at the Fashion Shop, Medford Bldg., room 424. 1881*

Mr. and Mrs. S. Oka, accompanied by J. Tsunimi of Tokyo, Japan, spent Saturday and part of Sunday in this vicinity. Professor Oka is on a lecture tour which will include most of the larger universities in the United States.

The Thomas Realty and Small Loan Co.'s office in the Palm Bldg., corner Main and Front, will be closed until about October 7.

Arrangements are already under way for the taking of the annual school census, the latter part of this month and are expected to be completed by the first of November with the possible exception of Medford and Ashland, according to County School Superintendent Susanne Homes Carter. An increase is expected in this year's school enrollment in the city as well as in the rural districts.

Runners in your nose reopened like new. We will be glad to explain.—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792.

Word was received in this city this morning of the death of Mrs. Sapho Governor, aged 72 years, for 18 years a resident of this city at Toledo, Ohio. Mrs. Governor was well known in this city. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Benet White, who lives here, and two granddaughters, Leona and Francis White and other relatives. Mrs. Governor left this city last April for the east, where the funeral services will be held.

After the summer's run comes the cold mornings and hard starting. Now is the time to have the carbon removed, valves rechecked and carburetor adjusted for winter. Any make of car.—P. F. Close, 114 South Riverside. 1931*

The regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary will be held at the Armory tonight. There will be a short business session, after which there will be a social hour of sewing cards and conversation. Refreshments will be served. A large attendance is urged.

Let us write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tengwald, Hotel Holland, Phone 592.

Adel Steffen of San Angelo, Tex., was among the motorists from a distance who registered today at the local branch of the out of state auto registration bureau, where 24 out of state cars were registered last Saturday.

Temporary auto licenses are still being issued at the sheriff's office in surprisingly large numbers in view of the advanced stage of the season. The issuance of licenses is still going on, due to the fact that they are now issued for a three-months period at a cost of one-fourth of the regular yearly fee. Licenses were issued today and Saturday to James Brownie of Central Point, W. E. Ward of Keno, Charles Buffington, Clyde Stafford, R. B. Markland and W. D. Sanford of Medford, L. E. Armsted of Talent, Harold Patton of Hattie Falls and Roy Talbot of Ashland.

Fluhrer's Bread wrappers, until further notice, will be redeemed at the stamp office in the M. M. Department Store at the following ratio: Large loaf wrappers, 2 stamps, and small loaf wrappers, 1 stamp. Redeemable at stamp headquarters in M. M. Department Store.

Miss Thelma Ellen of Everett, Wash., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. B. Cunningham, for a few days. After leaving here Miss Ellen will go to Los Angeles for the winter months.

Always ask for Fluhrer's Breads the finest on the market and baked in southern Oregon's finest and most modern equipped bakery. Wrappers redeemable for S. & H. green trading stamps.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Reinton of Honolulu were registered at the Hotel Medford Sunday. Today they visited Crater Lake.

Why throw that $2.00 pair of hose away because of a little runner. You can have it made like new at the Handicraft Shop. Call and we will be glad to explain. Phone 792.

Richard E. Stanton of Eugene visited Medford friends Saturday night and Sunday.

Henstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making.—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792.

The Redwood highway south of Crescent City, Cal., and the Pacific highway south of Dunsmuir, Cal., are both in good condition and do not require the use of tire chains at points where highway construction has been in progress, according to the local out of state auto registration bureau today. Up until a short time ago, motor travel through the sections under construction was badly handicapped by mud and water.

Dr. Alfred Burkland, chiropractor, 314 Liberty Bldg.

Miss Goldie Wilson left last night for an extended visit in San Francisco and other southern points.

Henstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making.—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792.

The High Inn, which for the past year or more has been conducted by Mrs. Ruby Quakenbush, changed hands. Mrs. Bertha Wyatt, formerly of Sams Valley and more recently of Medford, is the new owner. The building is enjoying a thorough renovation including new wall paper for the rooms and a new quota of paint for the woodwork.

The roof, too, has been repaired. The new owner took possession Saturday.—Gold Hill News.

They must be good—1484 Majestic Radios sold in Oregon in 40 days. Hear one, then decide.—Palmer Music House.

There have been no forest fires reported at forest service headquarters since the electric storm a week ago. With the rain which fell last week the danger of fires has been greatly decreased.

Hear the Dixie Jubilee Quartet at the Presbyterian church, Wednesday, Oct. 19 at 8:15. Adults 50c, children 25c.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elliott returned to Medford Saturday night from Sacramento, Cal., where Chief Elliott attended the annual convention of Pacific coast fire chiefs, which included approximately 1000 men. Vancouver, B. C., was selected as the next meeting place for the firemen.

Blue Mission grapes now ripe. Three cents a pound. J. A. Manke, two miles east of Jacksonville, adjoining Clancy orchard.

Miss Jean Steel is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Steel, at Eugene for a few days this week, after which she expects to return to Medford for the winter.

Henstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making.—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792.

R. A. Koppes, city editor of the Mail Tribune, who has been ill at his home on Ross avenue since the latter part of last week, was today reported to be improving but was still rather weak. He is not seriously ill, however.

Hose mending reasonable. Prices 25c to 50c.—Handicraft Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tully were among the Medford people who attended the University of Oregon-Stanford football game at Eugene last Saturday.

Dressmaker and Designer.—Mrs. Violet Eaton, Res. 1022 W. 9th, Phone 1025-R.

Harry Rosenberg returned last night from Eugene, where he spent the week end visiting friends at the university.

Hose mending reasonable. Prices 25c to 50c.—Handicraft Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Baker of Portland, former residents of Medford, are visiting friends in the city for a few days. Mr. Baker was connected with the firm of Baker Hutchison when a resident here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Brown are moving this week from their ranch in Sams Valley to the Walker Lovell ranch three miles south of town.

Mrs. Frank Isaacs, who has been ill at her home for the past week, is reported by friends to be improved in health today.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hogan and Dr. and Mrs. Thayer spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ulrich at their cabin on the Rogue river.

Thomas Swen and Orbie Natwick spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Klocber at their Rogue river cabin.

Frank T. Laddard, representative of Waite & Moore Dry Goods company of San Francisco, is in the city today on business.

August Fairbank, a transient lumber worker, whose home is believed to be in Colorado, was killed Saturday afternoon in a hill, Cal. lumber yard as the result of being crushed by a log skidding tractor used for transporting timber. The log is being held at the Ashland quarry with the hope that relatives may be reached in his home state. Fairbank is 28 years of age and had been working in Hill only since September 28. There were no witnesses when the accident took place and details of the tragedy are lacking.

Miss Lorraine Wheatley of Los Angeles, formerly a resident of Medford, left here this morning for Klamath Falls after visiting local friends.

Miss Anne Nanniga of Chicago, Ill., stopped here during the week end for a visit at the home of her cousin, J. R. Bierma and Mrs. Bierma. She left here this morning for Los Angeles to continue her vacation trip.

Mrs. H. D. Reed of Gold Hill was in the city this morning to meet Judge Reed, who returned from a several days' business trip to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Davison visited Crater Lake Sunday and reported that the drive is especially wonderful at this time of year. The frosts in the higher regions having turned the foliage beautiful reds and yellows.

Dr. D. A. Chambers and family motored to Brookings yesterday. There was no fog along the coast and the weather was warm.

A contract for all of the electrical equipment for the mill under construction at Glendale by the Glendale Lumber company has been awarded to the People's Electric company. Al Snider is manager and one of the owners of the new mill. Further contracts have not been announced.

The P. T. A. of the Junior high school will hold a reception next Wednesday evening at the Junior high school, to the teachers of that school. All parents and teachers of the city are invited to attend. An address will be delivered by Prof. Irving G. Vining of Ashland. A social hour will be held.

Obituary

RAYN—Lolena Rayn passed away at her home, 608 North 7th Street, Saturday evening, aged 76 years, five months, 28 days. She was born near Bloomfield, Canada, April 19, 1852. She came to Klamath Falls, with her mother in 1868. She was first married to Dr. Edwin Anderson at Council Bluffs, Iowa, in November 28, 1878, and to this union were born two daughters and two sons. One son passed away in infancy. The children surviving her are Mrs. E. N. Anderson of Medford, Mrs. Gertrude Kennard of Billings, Mont., and Mrs. Edith Jackson of Port Klamath, Ore., and 11 grandchildren. Her husband died in July, 1888.

On October 24, 1890, Lolena Anderson was married to William Hays at Cranston, Wis., and for the past 14 years they have made their home in Medford, being survived today by her husband and the above named children. She was a woman of fine character and leaves a host of devoted friends besides her relatives. She was a member of the Eastern Star of Valparaiso, Neb., and the Woman's Relief Corps of Medford, also a member of the Presbyterian church.

Funeral services will be held from the First Funeral home Tuesday, October 9, at 2 o'clock p. m. Rev. E. P. Lawrence officiating. Interment in the Jacksonville cemetery.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—Bargain! Used electric washers, special low. Quick sale; late Easy Dryer, used about eight times, price $125. Address 414 So. 5th, Grants Pass. 205

WANTED—Late model sedan. Please state cash price. Box 29, Mail Tribune. 206

FOR TRADE FOR PHOENIX HOME

6 rooms, modern, well located, trade for small house in Phoenix. 5-room strictly modern home, 3 1/2 acres, in a good town in Illinois, valued at $5000; will give same for a 6-room home in Medford. Call Mrs. C. E. Moore, 814 N. Riverside. 200*

FOR SALE—Bullosa pea, winter bluegrass seed. Phone 697-R. 205*

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE

10th and Oakdale. Semi-Business District. $3000. Phone 1094. Roddy & Moore. 205*

FOR SALE—HOMES

New 6-room Modern Home. Garage. Close in. $38 down, bal. $45 per mo. Phone 1094. 205*

FOR SALE—Star touring, '25, new tires, trunk, good condition. 814 N. Riverside. 201

FOR SALE—180-acre level farm, all in cultivation, 60 acres, alfalfa with 40-acre fully paid water right; house, barn and outbuildings, well located on highway, only four miles from Medford. Priced for quick sale at less than half its value. Selling price only $75 per acre; $2000 cash will handle balance easy. Earl Tully, 310 Liberty Bldg. 202*

FOR SALE—20-acre full-bearing orchard near Medford. Priced only $4000. See owner, income producer. Terms $2000 cash or will accept property in trade. Earl Tully, 310 Liberty Bldg. 202*

FOR SALE—Checkbook. Finder please return to Tribune office. 201

STATE THEATRE South Central Near Eighth

TONIGHT "FLAMES" Featuring an All-Star Cast Also Comedy and Scenic

Any Seat 15c Anytime Children under 12, 10c Continuous Show Daily Matinee 1 to 5 P. M. Evening 6:30 to 11 P. M. Saturday and Sunday; continuous 1 to 11 P. M. Picture change daily except Thursday.

These Drug Stores are open nights this week: Jarnin & Woods, House McNair Pharmacy, West Side Pharmacy

SLICES OR HOOKS MADE TO ORDER BY JOE KIRKWOOD

Joe Kirkwood, master golfer, will demonstrate the simplicity of golf on the links of the Rogue Valley Golf club, Thursday, October 11, at 1:30 p. m.

Slices, hook, straight ball—they all look alike to Joe, and are produced on request without fail. Trick shots of every description tumble out of his bag until the gallery wonders why this wizard of the links fails to do the impossible.

As an afterthought, Kirkwood, at an intermission, is glad to let you know just how you look when you are playing your usual game, and the gallery never fails to laugh at the performance.

Joe Kirkwood and Sydney Smith will also endeavor to tick H. C. Egan and J. R. Hueston in an 18-hole exhibition match, a feature in itself that promises many a thrilling shot.

Started assembly Table Book Council No. 15, R. & S. M. 7:30 p. m., October 9th. Work in R. & S. M. degrees. Refreshments. Official visit of the illustrious Grand Master of Oregon, F. E. NICHOLS, 199*

Card of Thanks

We want to express our sincere appreciation to our many friends for the kindness and sympathy extended in the death of our beloved son and brother, Oren Haskins, and also our deepest thanks for the beautiful floral tributes.

N. O. Haskins, W. R. Haskins, 198

Scottish Rite

Stated meeting Shiloh Lodge of Perfection, 7:30 p. m., Oct. 8th. L. E. WILLIAMS, Secy. 199*

Oregon Weather

Oregon—Unsettled with rain north and west portions bright and Tuesday, continued mild, strong southerly winds, at times gales on the coast.

Fire and Flames at State Theatre

"Flames" is a thrilling outdoor picture of the northwest, abounding in romance, color and excitement. The best being largely furnished by a creations Forest Fire, one of the greatest ever filmed, being shown at the State theatre to night.

It concerns the efforts of a Swedish foreman to help his friend win the "big girl." He is really successful in the end, after a series of odd mishaps which complicate his little intrigues.

Jean Hersholt does some of the best work of her career as the first man who claims to know all about women, while Virginia Vall and Eugene O'Brien make an attractively leading pair. Bryant Washburn and Loris Karoly are villainous in their different ways.

Make Money This Winter With MADRONA [BRAND] FEEDS

MR. FEED BUYER: It's time you were thinking about how and what you will feed your poultry and livestock this winter.

The performance of Madrona brand feeds in the past should command the consideration of every feeder in southern Oregon.

Who, in the valley, is better equipped to manufacture high-class feeds for your livestock and poultry?

Modern milling equipment, competent millmen and strict adherence to quality, always means that you are feeding right if you feed Madrona (Brand) Feeds.

Monarch Seed & Feed Co.

The oldest feed and poultry supply house in Southern Oregon. Conducted successfully under the same management since 1910.

Don't miss the Greater Medford Club's Rummage Sale October 12 and 13 opposite Rio Theatre. Club house benefit!

IT'S COMING THURSDAY "WINGS" SMASHING, CRASHING Its Way to Your Very Soul HUNT'S CRATERIAN YOU'LL SEE AND HEAR IT

NOW! TODAY AND TUESDAY A BIG ANNIVERSARY TREAT Today! HUNT'S CRATERIAN 4 Big DeLuxe Shows at 1:30, 3:15, 7:9 Look Who's Here! That Prima Donna of Pep COLLEEN MOORE In her latest big joy special.—You'll like it better than either "Irene" or "Sally" "OH, KAY" ALSO Two Big Acts of "TALKIES" Leo Carrillo Famous Italian Comic and "THE INGENUES" Matinee 10 and 35 Evenings 25 and 50