

EVANGELIST TO HOLD MEETINGS IN EAGLE POINT REV. JOHN STILLE PREACHES SUNDAY IN BROWNSBORO FEEDING TURKEYS IN EDEN VALLEY HOLIDAY MARKET

EAGLE POINT, Ore., Oct. 12.—(Special)—Rev. J. A. Smith, who is now conducting special meetings in Butte Falls this week, will begin evangelistic meetings here next Sunday evening. He spoke here last Sunday afternoon and those who heard him give a good report of the sermon. Eagle Point is certainly fortunate in getting the services of such a man, even for a short time.

There will be services every evening next week, except Monday. Mr. Smith is an evangelist, who is different from the usual order, and it is hoped that this community will give him a large hearing.

The Coleman creek club of Phoenix had an all-day meeting with Mrs. Morgan last Friday. Among the ladies making the trip were Mesdames Gammill, Wilcox, Bomer, Kalarum, Littlefield, Parsons, Most, Malmgren, Webster and Denzer. This visit seems to have become an annual event with this club.

Mrs. C. F. Davies and Mrs. O. T. Morgan were our representatives at the meeting of the Health association at Butte Falls on Tuesday. The delegates all seemed to be amazed and delighted at the riot of color seen in the decorations at the church there.

The children of the Presbyterian Sunday school gave a harvest home program last Sunday. The church was beautifully decorated with grape vines, flowers and vegetables and the program given by the children was enjoyed by a good audience. The Sunday school seems to be doing excellent work under the direction of Mrs. Weidman.

Dr. G. T. Morgan spent several days last week attending the meeting of the Presbytery of southern Oregon at North Bend. When he returned Rev. J. A. Smith of Portland accompanied him. They are conducting a meeting at Butte Falls this week.

A quiet home wedding was celebrated at the home of T. T. Taylor on the Crater lake highway at the edge of town on Monday evening, when a sister of Mrs. Taylor, Miss May Adamson was joined in marriage to Wilford Glen Curles of Tacoma. Rev. Morgan performed the ceremony.

BROWNSBORO, Ore., Oct. 12.—(Special)—The meeting held in the schoolhouse by the Central Point gospel team last Sunday afternoon, was greatly enjoyed by all who attended. We appreciate all the team has done for us and extend an invitation to them to come again. Rev. John Stille of Beese Creek will preach for us next Sunday afternoon, and it is hoped there will be a good attendance.

Joe Henry, who has been quite sick in Medford for some time, returned home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Heckner were business visitors in Eagle Point Wednesday.

Ralph Tucker, Lloyd Tucker and Bill Head spent the week end hunting on Mt. Hood. They brought home a five-point buck. On Wednesday morning they left for Lakeview for another trip.

Mr. Campbell of the Daily News staff of Medford was a guest of the H. W. Wright family a few days this week.

The Ludwick family of Medford and Mrs. Margaret Marshall, who is attending high school in Eagle Point, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marshall.

Dane and Arthur Rialto Tomorrow

A "hick" house detective and a Sherlock Holmes are the central characters in the latest adventure of Karl Dane and George K. Arthur, heroes of "Bookies." Basically, it's not a comedy, but a regular mystery thriller, with a master crook, his mysterious henchmen, secret trapdoors, a weird zootie and other thrilling details. But Dane, as the lumbering house detective, and Arthur as his hell-boy satellite, blunder into trouble. This is "Detectives," the new Karl Dane-George K. Arthur co-starring vehicle, which comes tomorrow to the Rialto.

which was a ring service. The young couple will make their home in Tacoma.

EDEN PRECINCT, Ore., Oct. 12.—(Special)—Many are beginning to get their big turkeys up and begin feeding for the Thanksgiving trade. Several fine droves in Eden Valley are in prime condition now.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams, former Talent residents, returned last week from New York, where they have spent the past year. They bought a new car and drove thru Noah Chandler purchased a new Delavel cream separator on Monday of this week.

Mr. Young is dicing his potatoes, which he raised on the Carey place. Owing to the dry summer and not having the time to cultivate the crop, they were not very many in the hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Phoenix were Medford business visitors last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Hest of Phoenix were doing trading in Medford last Saturday. Mr. Hest is making arrangements to leave Phoenix for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lem Hughes have left on their trip to the east. They expect to spend about two months among relatives and old friends.

Mrs. Donna Graffes is staying at the leader home, keeping house for the girls during Mrs. Hader's absence.

A near serious accident happened last Sunday evening at the junction of the roads, near Talent. The car was going so fast it failed to make the turn, so it turned over. One sustained a broken leg, while the woman had some cuts and bruises. The man was not injured. Same old story.

Mr. C. Carey sold his little Ford sedan. The ad in The Tribune brought a man who wanted a car more than they did young pupils.

The ladies of the Missionary society of Phoenix held a very enjoyable social at the church parlors last Thursday.

Will Rathe of West Phoenix left last week for California, to be absent for a couple of years or more. Mr. Rathe was about to sell his orchard place and had sold off all his household goods.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dupp were delighted to know how fortunate Mr. Dupp was in not being hit, when his automobile was smashed to kindling wood one day last week, at a crossing in Medford. Had his wife and little Florence been with him they would undoubtedly all have been killed, as he would have tried to save them and not have jumped.

Will Chandler and his daughter, visited with Noah Chandler, his brother, near Phoenix last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Chandler and Miss Irene were down to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mast last Tuesday to listen in on the play by Helen Norris. They say Mr. Mast's new radio gave fine reception.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey, Mrs. Irene Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Terrell were among those from North Talent who did trading in Medford last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Colver and Mrs. Sila Deeth were at Mr. and Mrs. George Parker's home last Tuesday to hear Helen Norris' play over the radio.

Lloyd Colver and Bob Flory went out to Dead Indian to take a hunt, the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will High of Talent was in Medford Monday of this week. Mrs. High likes to be taken for a ride these fine days.

 HILLS BROS' Arab identifies the coffee of matchless flavor

Just what makes this matchless flavor? Controlled Roasting is the answer. For this continuous process, originated and patented by Hills Bros., roasts every berry evenly.

No other coffee can taste as good as Hills Bros. Coffee because none is roasted the same way. And every bit of its enticing aroma and glorious flavor comes to you intact because Hills Bros. Coffee is packed in vacuum. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arab—that well-known trade-mark—on the can.

Hills Bros. Coffee is the only coffee roasted by a continuous process—a few pounds at a time.

Fresh from the original vacuum pack. Easily opened with the key.
