Junior high banked 82.9 percent last week. Rooms banking 100 percent were: Mrs. Keenan's, Mrs. Clark's, Miss Whitson and the study hall under Mr. Pritch and Mrs. Church. The first two have had one hundred percent since school began and the others have only missed once.

Spelling

The III and I tried for the highest spelling percentage. The III had 92.2 percent and the I, 98.4 percent. The rest of the classes had good percentages.

Friday Assembly

The regular Friday assembly was in charge of the student body. After the banking announcement for the week made by Ruby Stone, Alva Edwards, president of the student body was in charge of the program. Essays on "My Idea of a Good Assembly" were read by Glorie Lou Ivanhoe, Betty Stennett and June Houghton. The essays were well written and well judged. The next number was a charming solo dance done by LaMuel Beck who was accompanied by Mrs. Anderson. Betty Stennett delighted us with a reading.

The Little Boy Dancing School. She very graciously responded to an encore. Next came Noble Hight in a series of acrobatic stunts that were loudly applauded. Dick Straight delivered an address on "The Horse" in a very humorous and entertaining manner. We were very much entertained and delighted by two numbers from the high school quartet, followed by two lovely tenor solos by Melvin Taylor. These numbers were greatly appreciated. The boys all did well and deserve much praise for their good work and self-criticism on the music. The last number on the program was a whimsical solo by Dorothy Reynolds. This was a great treat to everyone.

We were certainly all very glad...

The command of Columbus (Cool) (Holland) sailed to the American shore where a band of Indians greeted them. Queen Isabella (John Aronson) and King Isabella (John Aronson) were brightly and wisely monarchs. They were well served by their proud courtiers.

Miss Cramer impressed by the room were considerably slow the lunch hour, which is the guilty party in the trouble. The play has been treated to a new piece of music. Little it is packed down by many small feet it looks like an ocean beach with its many sand toys and shells.

Miss Maxwell has a bulletin board in her room on which she places all the announcements for the day. The children generally read it with interest. It is a great incentive for the III and II children to keep it.

Rogue River Academy
How time seems to fly! We are now at the beginning of our second month of school. If each month would go as fast as we would seem to ourselves enjoying summer vacation. But the first month is more or less confusion, and the students are just now getting settled into real work.

Pennant Presented
Athletic Director Henderson entered the building last Friday with a small paste board box containing the token of "History Made" in the baseball battles of last spring. The yellow and green pennant was a very beautiful one and it is always the wish of any school that it be preserved.
