SIXTH GAME GIVES SEALS COAST FLAG

San Francisco Wins Penant For Seventh Time In Coast League—Defeat Salons Yesterday 9-5—Hard Hitting Feature.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—(AP) For the seventh time in the 25 years existence of the circuit, the San Francisco Seals are champions of the Pacific Coast League.

While 7000 persons looked on yesterday, they clinched the penant in a smashing 9-5 victory over Sacramento, played on the Senators' home grounds at Morningside park.

Yesterday's game was decided in the seventh inning when a Seal raly produced five runs on four hits and an error. It gave the San Francisco team a bulge in the scoring column while the Senators could do nothing in the last three frames.

Roy Johnson, fleet Seal left-fielder started the fireworks with a home run that sent Dick Moody, pitcher, home ahead. Al Gould, starting on the mound for Sacramento and "Doc" Crandall who relieved him in the seventh were both knocked out in that frame.

The sixth contest of the championship play-off of the winners of the two halves of the split season decided the issue. San Francisco took a lead in the series three to two with a 15-3 win over the second half champions last Sunday. The game was played at San Francisco before a crowd of 13,500 persons.

Coast Conference In Full Swing Saturday

EUGENE, Oct. 17. (AP)—The University of Oregon team plays its second conference football game next Saturday against Washington at Portland. For the first time in several seasons the Webfooters believe they have more than an even chance to defeat the Huskies.

Oregon's young sophomore team learned much in the Stanford defeat, and there is a growing confidence among coaches and players. Oregon, in its 48-to-6 victory over Willamette university of Salem last Saturday, revealed a powerful running attack developed since the Cardinal tilt.

The loss of Dave Mason, halfback who was injured in scrimmage last week, weakened the backfield temporarily, but John J. McEwan, head coach, believes he will be able to fit together a combination of backs equally as strong as the first. The backfield is still in an experimental stage and George Barnell, John Kitzmiller, Ira Woodie, Cotter Gould, Charles Williams and Bob Robinson all have nearly an equal chance to break into the first string.

This week's practice is being devoted to the perfection of an offensive for the Washington game. On the defensive program, the super variety will be given a set of Washington plays to work against the varsity.

CORVALLIS, Oct. 17. (AP)—The Oregon State college football team will travel to Pullman, Wash., where they take on Washington State Saturday in the Cougars' home-coming contest. The Cougars and Beavers both have dropped one conference tilt apiece so far this season so a loss to either team Saturday will mean elimination from conference rankings.

Coach Paul J. Solisier of the Oregonians says he expects the hardest battle of the season on Saturday.

Although the Oregonians had a double-header in Portland Saturday with Astoria and Pacific, the Orange coach has been working his men against Cougar plays for the past two weeks. Louie Stiner, Orange line coach, who scouted the Washington State-California mix at Berkeley, remarked on his return home that the Oregonians were in for a tough time Saturday and that the battle should be a real close one. Stiner and plenty of praise for the Cougar backfield.

Tremendous hitting on the part of the Seals nearly using up the Sacramento pitching staff featured the series. The Seals pounded out 92 baseruns for the six games while the Senators posted a total of 75. Despite counter sporting attractions the games drew a total of approximately 51,500 persons. The three games played in San Francisco totaled an attendance of about 29,000.

The Seals won their first penant in 1909, and others in 1915, 1917, 1922, 1923 and 1925.

The Judgeship Thrown Into Politics By Political Lawyers

C. M. THOMAS

Charles M. Thomas and family came to Jackson County from Iowa fifteen years ago. For two years he engaged in the orchard business in the Talent district. Later he resumed the practice of his profession, that of law, in Medford, taking the office and practice of W. L. Vawter.

He was once elected to the Lower House of the Oregon Legislature and one term as senator.

Political Rule or Ruin Lawyers Disastrously Defeated

In 1922 he was elected Circuit Judge of this judicial district, consisting of Jackson and Josephine Counties. In the primary of that year he defeated Gus Newbury for the nomination by a decisive majority. In the following fall election he defeated E. E. Kelly, his democratic opponent, by an overwhelming majority. He was confronted in that election by a vindictive bolt from his own party. He was opposed by a majority of lawyers of Jackson County and harassed by a vicious and slanderous whispering campaign directed at his personal character and reputation.

Birds of a Feather Flock Together

This committee wishes to point out to the people of this county that the same Medford lawyers who were so bitterly opposed to Judge Thomas in 1922 are, with a few exceptions, the same lawyers who are now joined along with Earl Fehl of the Pacific Record Herald in an endeavor to discredit Judge Thomas and to poison the minds of the voters.

Hiding Behind the Skirts of Better Government-League

In 1922 this clique of lawyers organized what they called that "Independent Voters League," as a cover from which to shoot. This year they have brought out the "Better Government League" as a vehicle to carry them, the engine however being the same junk used in 1922. These political lawyers have burned their bridges behind them, it is do or die and discretion has been cast to the winds. Facts have been distorted to the point where the situation cannot be recognized. They are filling the newspapers with long rambling, wordy advertisements, with the purpose of concealing their real intention which is to elect an easy, pliant judge who will run their kind of a court. They are constantly holding secret caucuses, planning and programming to elect as Circuit Judge an Al Smith banker from Grants Pass.

Loved for the Enemies He Has Made

Judge Thomas conducts an independent court. He can neither be bulldozed or wheedled. He is fair and impartial, and above all he is human, therefore, is not narrow nor technical. Go out into any precinct in this county; into any ward in the cities, and you will find men and women who are proud to call Judge Thomas their friend. They hold him in deep affection and esteem. They believe in him as a man and as a judge, and many of them enthusiastically love him for the enemies he has made.

Political Attorneys vs. the People

This Committee is going to put it squarely up to the people of Jackson County—do you want a court run in behalf of certain well known Medford lawyers, or do you want a judge who will expedite court procedure and transact the business of his court in the interest of the people.

Paid adv. by Jackson County Republican Committee.

TOUGHEST GAME COMES SATURDAY ON LOCAL GRID

The Medford high school football team faces one of the toughest battles of the season in the game with the Salem high school at Van Scoyoc field next Saturday. Considerable intersectional interest attaches to the contest, as a victory for the local team by a decisive score would hush all up-state talk that they are not equal to the hard-plunging, ever-watchful, aggressive teams that have represented this city on the gridiron the last five years.

The Salem team is coming with blood in the eyes, and they have a team with speed in the backfield and a heavy line. There has been rivalry between the two schools, and a large delegation of Salem students will accompany the squad to this city. The Salem team will arrive Friday evening.

The Medford team is practicing strenuously from the time school is dismissed until dark every night, with the second string, under the direction of Rags Moore, putting up a stiff battle. The line is being drilled in defensive tactics, and the backfield in getting away fast.

The students of the high school will hold a rally Friday evening, with the band in action.

Aside from the high school, local interest in football centers in the University of Oregon-Washington game at Portland Saturday, and the University of Idaho-Stanford game at Palo Alto Friday afternoon.

HEUSTON MAY PLAY IN NORTHWEST OPEN TO INVITE PROS HERE

Jack Heuston, Medford golf pro, is planning to enter the Northwest open tournament in Portland in November, and while he hardly hopes to bring home first money, if he plays the game he has been playing recently, local experts are confident he will rank among the leaders.

Heuston will make an effort to secure the next open tournament for Medford. If he succeeds this will be a great feather in the local golf club's hat. If Medford's invitation is accepted, the local Chamber of Commerce will undoubtedly assist in financing the proposition.

The regular fall club championship tournament will start next week, the qualifying rounds to be played this week end. Leonard Carpenter is the present club champion and he will defend his title.

OMAHA PUGILIST GIVES BLOOD TO ILL MOTHER AND WINS RING BOUT

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 17.—(AP)—After submitting to blood transfusion early yesterday which may be the means of saving his mother's life, Freddy Penn, 18, Omaha fighter, stepped into a Council Bluffs, Ia., ring last night and in the last round of his bout knocked his opponent down four times.

winning the fight. Penn gave more than a half pint of blood to his mother, who has been near death since Saturday, ger. his opponent, Freddy's mother. The transfusion cost Freddy process poundage in his boxing match and he entered the ring 13 1/2 pounds lighter than Clarence Herbert was reported improved today.

To the 5000 who daily become owners of the new Ford car

THE service obligation of the Ford Motor Company and its dealer organization is now growing at the rate of 5000 cars a day. It is to these new car owners that this message is addressed.

The new Ford is a remarkably fine car for one that costs so little. It is simple in design, constructed of the finest materials, and built to unusually close measurements.

These are the reasons it performs so wonderfully. These are also the reasons its service requirements are so few and the up-keep cost so low.

When you receive your new car, the dealer will explain the simple little things that should be attended to at regular intervals to insure the best performance. He will also tell you something of his own facilities for doing this work promptly and at small cost.

With the purchase of your car, you are entitled to Free Inspection Service by your dealer at 500, 1000 and 1500 miles. This service is due you and we urge you to take full advantage of it. Proper care during this breaking-in period means a great deal to the life of your car.

Included in the Free Inspection Service is a check-up of the battery, the generator charging rate, the distributor, the carburetor adjustment, lights, brakes, shock absorbers, tire inflation and steering gear. The engine oil is also changed and chassis lubricated.

No charge whatever is made for labor or materials incidental to this inspection service, except where repairs are necessary because of accident, neglect, or misuse.

The labor of changing the engine oil and lubricating the chassis is also free, although a charge is made for the new oil.

We believe that when you see the good effects of this inspection you will continue to have it done regularly throughout the life of your car.

You will find the Ford dealer very helpful in keeping your car in good running order for many thousands of miles at a minimum of trouble and expense.

He operates under close factory supervision and has been specially trained and equipped to do this work promptly, thoroughly and economically.
