

Local and Personal

As a result of the fruit season slowing down, packing house employees who have been having steady employment for the past two months, are continuing to find themselves out of jobs. One packing house closed down yesterday and others will probably close this week or next when the last apple and pear picking will be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Johnson and son, Robert, of Portland, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cooky, Mrs. Johnson's parents, for several days. They came here especially to see the football game here Saturday. Mr. Johnson formerly resided in Medford and is now connected with the Standard Oil in Portland.

Cherry trees, 2501 finest ever grown in state, J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 318-Y. 2001*

Willie Hoopie and John Layton, world's leading headline and three-column experts, were scheduled to arrive early this afternoon from Portland and will leave tomorrow for the south, following two exhibition billiard matches they will play at Brown's this afternoon and this evening. Plans were in the making last week for them to appear in Klamath Falls and it is possible that they may stop there before continuing their journey to San Francisco.

Converting your eyes consult Dr. A. Chambers, Optometrist 217 Medford Bldg. For appointment phone 188. Glasses fitted and furnished. 210*

J. J. Butcher and W. M. Shoberd returned from a deer hunt in the Klamath Falls district yesterday.

Peach, apricot, plum, walnut trees, any tree 25c; less in large numbers. J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 318-Y. 2001*

H. M. Branham recently purchased a new home at 197 King from F. H. Jenkins, the family to take possession in two weeks.

Beautiful line of pattern hats just in. Suitable for all costumes, afternoon or evening. Miss Taylor, 42 S. Central. 210*

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Glass, former Central Point and Beagle residents, are moving this week into the former Hermschlag property in Central Point, for which they traded property in Santa Rosa, Calif. recently. Mr. and Mrs. Glass have been residing in Santa Rosa, Calif. for the past year.

Blue Mission grapes now ripe. Three cents a pound. J. A. Mauke, two miles east of Jacksonville, adjoining Clancy orchard. 17

Frank Swanson returned yesterday from a short business trip to Salem and other Willamette points.

Dance at Riverside Community Club Sat. night. Same music. 210*

The Marshall Printing company is remodeling its quarters this week. New shelving is being installed in the main office for display, and the window space is being enlarged and enclosed with a decorative railing.

Hemstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792. 1201*

The condition of Mrs. N. H. Griffith, who sustained a fractured skull in an auto accident near Phoenix last Monday, is much improved and she regained consciousness for a short time this morning but relapsed into a coma a short time later. Despite the fact that she has not regained full control of her senses, hope for recovery is held out for the injured woman.

Extra good Baldwin apples, 25c per box at Pinnacle Packing Co.

Neil Gillens of the Hall Point company, who has been ill for the past two weeks, was reported today to be showing continued improvement.

Peach, apricot, plum, walnut trees, any tree 25c; less in large numbers. J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 318-Y. 2001*

H. D. Nocton of Grants Pass spent this morning here on business.

The Street and Light Committee of the Medford City Council are desirous of selecting a standard post to be used for all future business fighting districts and would like the expression of all interested property owners and business men.

Radio Owners of Medford and Vicinity: Percy J. Neff, who organized the Honorable O. M. Thomas in 1922, will explain over KMDZ Thursday evening at 8:15, why he is for Mr. Thomas today. 209*

Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Greaves drove down from the Willamette valley yesterday and remained here for the night.

Dance at Riverside Community Club Sat. night. Same music. 210*

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson arrived in Medford yesterday from the city and were accompanied by little Miss Lou Macy, who had spent the summer months with the Wilsons.

Hemstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792. 1201*

Mrs. George Gates left today for Yonah, Ore., where she will visit friends and relatives for a week.

No hunting on our place. M. L. Greaves. 208*

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician writes: "Constipation is responsible for more nervousness than any other cause."

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Reall's Orange at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Reall's Drug Store—West Side Pharmacy. 211*

Among the local deer hunters who are making the most of the good weather are Roy Seaman and Isaac Shelby, who will leave here tomorrow for Lakeview Woods.

Thomas Reilly, real estate, insurance and small loans in anything of value, Palm Block, corner Main and Front, upstairs. 17

Guests from a distance registered at Medford hotels include W. A. Cramer and S. D. Bahnhowitz of Kansas City, Mrs. Ralph H. McClannan of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Leon P. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. A. Abraham, of New York City, J. L. Sewell, of Boise, Idaho, Harry Ramsey of St. Paul, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vassenaar, of Nelson, B. C.

Extra good Baldwin apples, 25c per box at Pinnacle Packing Co.

Temporary auto licenses were issued at the sheriff's office yesterday to G. W. Black, Roger McAllister, Ralph Swartz, C. L. Carpenter, C. C. Hoover, Ralph Parker and R. C. Williams of Medford and G. E. Overman of Central Point.

Hemstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792. 1201*

Mrs. Lada King, county nurse, returned last evening from a short business trip to Portland and Salem.

Pear trees, 25c; French roots, budless, nothing better, J. C. Barnes Nursery, Tel. 318-Y. 2001*

R. M. C. Neill and H. H. Wilson were among the visitors from Grants Pass attending yesterday in Medford. Mr. Neill, with wife and family of Kirby and H. Lehman of Holland were also Josephine county visitors here yesterday.

Dance at Riverside Community Club Sat. night. Same music. 210*

Miss W. W. Howard returned to Medford yesterday, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. G. Howard of Jefferson, Iowa, who will visit at the Howard home here until November 1.

Dr. Alfred Burkland, chiropodist, 214 Liberty Bldg. 217*

Californians registered at Medford hotels include A. A. Johnson of Napa, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson of Hollywood, and Paul H. Smith, O. H. Siler, E. H. Cowles, L. K. Markey and J. O. Goldthwaite, all of San Francisco.

Dance at Kitty Kat Friday night in Ashland. 210*

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Duxcell drove in from their home in the Valley View district yesterday and spent several hours transacting business.

Concerning your eyes consult Dr. D. A. Chambers, Optometrist 217 Medford Bldg. For appointment phone 188. Glasses fitted and furnished. 210*

J. R. McCracken of Ashland was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Radio Owners of Medford and Vicinity: Percy J. Neff, who organized the Honorable O. M. Thomas in 1922, will explain over KMDZ Thursday evening at 8:15, why he is for Mr. Thomas today. 209*

Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Greaves drove down from the Willamette valley yesterday and remained here for the night.

Dance at Riverside Community Club Sat. night. Same music. 210*

The Marshall Printing company is remodeling its quarters this week. New shelving is being installed in the main office for display, and the window space is being enlarged and enclosed with a decorative railing.

Hemstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792. 1201*

The condition of Mrs. N. H. Griffith, who sustained a fractured skull in an auto accident near Phoenix last Monday, is much improved and she regained consciousness for a short time this morning but relapsed into a coma a short time later. Despite the fact that she has not regained full control of her senses, hope for recovery is held out for the injured woman.

Extra good Baldwin apples, 25c per box at Pinnacle Packing Co.

Neil Gillens of the Hall Point company, who has been ill for the past two weeks, was reported today to be showing continued improvement.

Peach, apricot, plum, walnut trees, any tree 25c; less in large numbers. J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 318-Y. 2001*

H. D. Nocton of Grants Pass spent this morning here on business.

The Street and Light Committee of the Medford City Council are desirous of selecting a standard post to be used for all future business fighting districts and would like the expression of all interested property owners and business men.

Radio Owners of Medford and Vicinity: Percy J. Neff, who organized the Honorable O. M. Thomas in 1922, will explain over KMDZ Thursday evening at 8:15, why he is for Mr. Thomas today. 209*

Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Greaves drove down from the Willamette valley yesterday and remained here for the night.

Dance at Riverside Community Club Sat. night. Same music. 210*

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson arrived in Medford yesterday from the city and were accompanied by little Miss Lou Macy, who had spent the summer months with the Wilsons.

Hemstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making—Handicraft Shop, Phone 792. 1201*

Mrs. George Gates left today for Yonah, Ore., where she will visit friends and relatives for a week.

No hunting on our place. M. L. Greaves. 208*

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Robertson of the United States Fisheries station at Trill have just returned from the Yellowstone park, where the former has been assisting in the collection of cutthroat trout eggs, the result of which was 22,500,000 eggs for the season.

Pear trees, 25c; French roots, budless, nothing better, J. C. Barnes Nursery, Tel. 318-Y. 2001*

G. Q. D'Almeida arrived here yesterday afternoon from Klamath Falls, where he spent the past week transacting business.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tengstrand, Hotel Holland, Phone 593. 17

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gates and Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Storm motored to Klamath Falls yesterday over the Ana spurs route and report that the roads are in good condition and the drive particularly beautiful this fall.

Parlor grand piano for sale. Excellent condition. Bargain. Mrs. Fred Hopkins, phone 1249. 208*

G. E. McAllister, former well-known local resident, is in Medford from Eugene and will here be closing the sale of his ranch property on the Old Stage road to George S. Hutchins, who took possession of the property today.

The sale was made through the Charles A. Wing Realty agency.

Dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night. 211*

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Duxcell returned yesterday after a short business trip to Portland.

Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville, Ore., C. L. Goff, agent, 419 East Main St., Tel. 322. 1882*

Concerning your eyes consult Dr. D. A. Chambers, Optometrist 217 Medford Bldg. For appointment phone 188. Glasses fitted and furnished. 210*

Wesscott Mode Modelled silk hosiery, $1.00 per pair. Steward's 81 to 825 Store. Pointed or square heel. A real value and sold here exclusively. See our windows, 102 North Central Ave. 210*

A marriage license was issued at the county clerk's office yesterday to Lewis Lindbom of Turlock, Calif., and Sophie Strand of Seattle, Wash.

W. F. F. writes all kinds of insurance. See him. Telephone 922. Office, 418 East Main. 1745*

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Sanford, Frank Hartley and Herbert Winslow were among the Klamath Falls visitors who were in Medford yesterday.

Radio Fans: Don't forget to tune in on KMDZ at 8 p. m. Thursday, October 18, to hear Porter J. Neff discuss the issues in the judicial campaign. 209*

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Robertson of the United States Fisheries station at Trill have just returned from the Yellowstone park, where the former has been assisting in the collection of cutthroat trout eggs, the result of which was 22,500,000 eggs for the season.

Pear trees, 25c; French roots, budless, nothing better, J. C. Barnes Nursery, Tel. 318-Y. 2001*

G. Q. D'Almeida arrived here yesterday afternoon from Klamath Falls, where he spent the past week transacting business.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tengstrand, Hotel Holland, Phone 593. 17

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gates and Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Storm motored to Klamath Falls yesterday over the Ana spurs route and report that the roads are in good condition and the drive particularly beautiful this fall.

Parlor grand piano for sale. Excellent condition. Bargain. Mrs. Fred Hopkins, phone 1249. 208*

G. E. McAllister, former well-known local resident, is in Medford from Eugene and will here be closing the sale of his ranch property on the Old Stage road to George S. Hutchins, who took possession of the property today.

The sale was made through the Charles A. Wing Realty agency.

Dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night. 211*

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Duxcell returned yesterday after a short business trip to Portland.

Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville, Ore., C. L. Goff, agent, 419 East Main St., Tel. 322. 1882*

Concerning your eyes consult Dr. D. A. Chambers, Optometrist 217 Medford Bldg. For appointment phone 188. Glasses fitted and furnished. 210*

Wesscott Mode Modelled silk hosiery, $1.00 per pair. Steward's 81 to 825 Store. Pointed or square heel. A real value and sold here exclusively. See our windows, 102 North Central Ave. 210*

A marriage license was issued at the county clerk's office yesterday to Lewis Lindbom of Turlock, Calif., and Sophie Strand of Seattle, Wash.

W. F. F. writes all kinds of insurance. See him. Telephone 922. Office, 418 East Main. 1745*

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Sanford, Frank Hartley and Herbert Winslow were among the Klamath Falls visitors who were in Medford yesterday.

Radio Fans: Don't forget to tune in on KMDZ at 8 p. m. Thursday, October 18, to hear Porter J. Neff discuss the issues in the judicial campaign. 209*

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lester will leave in the morning for Albany for a brief visit with Mr. Lester's father, after which they will go on to Portland for a few days on business.

Wesscott Mode Modelled silk hosiery, $1.00 per pair. Steward's 81 to 825 Store. Pointed or square heel. A real value and sold here exclusively. See our windows, 102 North Central Ave. 210*

Alma Lawrence, piano instructor and accompanying. Phone 330. 212*

Included among the Oregonians registered at Medford hotels are A. M. McAlpine of Corvallis, Rev. P. C. Andrews and H. L. Ferguson of Salem, C. W. Owen of Albany, E. G. Young and G. C. Sparks of Oregon City, and the following from Portland: Ruth M. Reyburn, R. A. Gerard, Kenneth Griffin, L. M. Bach, E. M. Knout, Cyd Gaskell, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Lintner, E. H. Keller, J. Vidoff, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ziecke, M. F. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mitchell, C. H. Martin, C. A. Anderson, A. P. Conley, C. H. Sipe, R. O. Dudley, C. M. Rogers.

Be sure to get your free gold fish at Jarmin & Woods Drug Store. A bowl and two fish given with a 50c purchase of Comin's Laxative tablets. 209*

Unable to find his way home because of darkness and fog, Clark H. Hunter of Ashland, 74-year-old hunter reported lost yesterday forenoon near Perist, found his way back to the open country and the home of W. W. Mills, from which place he left Tuesday morning yesterday with comparative ease.

Building permits were issued by the city today to J. W. Clark to construct a dwelling at a cost of $2750 on Elm street, and to J. O. Carrel to reshingle a house on South Holly street at a cost of $28.

The Catholic ladies will hold a Bake Sale at the Medford Electric store Saturday.

Dance at Kitty Kat Friday night in Ashland. 210*

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Noland left last evening for their home in San Diego, Calif., following a short visit here with friends while en route home from a business trip to Portland.

Dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night. 211*

Dr. W. W. Howard will not be in his office until about November 1. 212*

The fruit traffic association called off their weekly luncheon at Hotel Medford this noon on account of its conflicting with the arrival and reception of the Portland Chamber of Commerce road will surmount this afternoon.

Cards—St. Mack's Guild, October 19th, 2 p. m. Prices and refreshments; 25c. Public invited. 209*

Dance at Kitty Kat Friday night in Ashland. 210*

Unexcited and calm over the fact that he, as drum major, led the American Legion drum corps of Medford to second place in the recent national drum corps contest at San Antonio, Texas, Lloyd Williamson returned yesterday from Salem where an elaborate reception had been prepared for the victorious corps. He reported that thousands of people were on the Salem streets cheering as the corps marched through the business section from the depot.

Wesscott Mode Modelled silk hosiery, $1.00 per pair. Steward's 81 to 825 Store. Pointed or square heel. A real value and sold here exclusively. See our windows, 102 North Central Ave. 210*

Cherry trees, 25c; finest ever grown in state. J. C. Barnes Nursery. Phone 318-Y. 2001*

Mrs. O. M. Roberts left for Portland last night on business.

Be sure to get your free gold fish at Jarmin & Woods Drug Store. A bowl and two fish given with a 50c purchase of Comin's Laxative tablets. 209*

An ideal Christmas gift for your neighbors could be selected from our complete line of Father Brushes. For immediate service telephone 124-Y. 214*

Giving grounds of cranid and human treatment, Gageon Parkwood has filed suit for divorce in circuit court against Elizabeth Fernald. The couple were married in Texas and are now residing in Ashland.

Dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night. 211*

Alma Lawrence, piano instructor and accompanying. Phone 330. 212*

A minor auto collision took place early this week at the intersection of 14th street and Riverside avenue between cars driven by A. J. Voller and Clara Scott, according to a report on file at the police station today, indicating that little damage resulted to either machine.

Cherry trees, 25c; finest ever grown in state. J. C. Barnes Nursery. Phone 318-Y. 2001*

Prices 25c and 50c

Curtain 8:05

Coming Thursday, Oct. 25th

"WHITE COLLARS"

3 Years in Los Angeles

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week

Medford Pharmacy Heath's Drug Store Strang's Drug Store

Included among the Klamath Falls, Oregon, mail subscribers are: J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 318-Y. 2001*

TONIGHT FRANK'S COMEDIANS

OPEN

New Playhouse Theatre

Childers Building Tonight Main at Bear Creek

and Friday, Saturday, Sunday

The Wonderful Comedy Drama

"Sainly Hypocrites"

And "Honest Sinners"

Doors Open at 7:00 Electrola concert 7:15 Orchestra Vaudeville 7:30-7:45

Prices 25c and 50c

Curtain 8:05

Coming Thursday, Oct. 25th

"WHITE COLLARS"

3 Years in Los Angeles

Advertisement for Fluhrer's Long Loaf bread. Includes an image of a loaf of bread and the text: "We Invite This Comparison". The ad describes the quality of the bread, its texture, and its keeping quality. It also includes a coupon for a free loaf and a list of grocers where it is available.

Advertisement for George Bancroft's play "The Docks of New York". Includes an image of a man's face and the text: "NOW! All New Today". The ad describes the play as a dramatic hit and an anniversary month production. It lists the cast members and the venue, the Craterian.