

CHURCH COMBINE SEEKS INCREASE OF ATTENDANCE

The following churches of the city have combined their forces for a six weeks' campaign in the interest of increased interest and attendance at all services and a deepening of the spiritual life of the membership and adherents:

No special evangelists will be used nor will there be any special meetings in connection with this campaign. Increased emphasis will, however, be placed on every regular service of the church, the Sunday school, young people's organizations and missionary and other societies of the church.

Six big special Sundays have been designated as follows: October 21—Roll call for every member Sunday, with men's night.

October 28—Family day and women's night. Every member of the family from juniors up should be present.

November 11—Visitors' day and young people's night. Every church member to bring as many visitors as possible.

November 18—Visitation evangelism and music night. Opportunities will be given for renewal of religious vows and pledges to a religious faith.

November 25—New members' Sunday and social night. Many will want to dig up their church letters and unite with the church of their choice or make a confession of their Christian faith after this series.

Slogans: "Loyalty Lifts the Lead." "People like to go to church with people like to go to church."

Make a new start Sunday. Do not miss a single day of the series.

ELKS DANCE BAND IN ANNUAL BALL COMING TUESDAY

The annual Elks band dance will be held next Tuesday night, October 22, on the floor of the beautiful Elks ballroom.

The Elks band is claimed to be one of the finest musical organizations in the state of Oregon, and with their new uniforms are creating a very favorable impression.

It is expected that during the coming year the band will be sent to numerous events which will be held on the Pacific coast, thus greatly advertising Medford and the Rogue River valley.

While the band is sponsored by the lodge of Elks, still the entire community is vitally interested in its success and it is believed that a splendid response will be accorded the band in its efforts to have a large attendance at the forth-coming dances.

The money received from the tickets sold is used for the band. The Elks temple will be thrown open to the public on next Tuesday night and an enjoyable affair is promised by the lodge to everyone who attends the dance.

COUNTY SCHOOL OFFICERS MEET NEXT SATURDAY

Preparations are complete for the Jackson County Officers' convention to be held in Medford next Saturday at the junior high school, with sessions scheduled to begin at 9:30 in the morning, with a roll call of the districts at a half-hour later.

The main address of the morning will be given by J. W. Crites of the state educational department, followed by a round-table discussion on hearing and transportation of students, school buses and costs.

A lunch will be served at noon by the P. T. A. council and the afternoon meeting will be opened with a speech by Miss Leona Mursters on "Opportunities Through Music," after which the main address of the afternoon will be given by Miss Helen Hefferman of the California state educational department.

The business session will begin at 2:30 and round-table discussions will be resumed 30 minutes later. The convention is open to the public.

M'FORD FAVORED IN FALL WEATHER REPORTS PROVE

Medford, which has been enjoying very fine autumn weather for several days past, seems to be a favored spot in Oregon today, as while continued mild temperature and warm sunshine were prevailing here during the day, the official weather reports this forenoon showed cloudy weather to be prevailing elsewhere throughout the state.

A remark often heard on the streets the past several days is in effect that it is a shame that a couple of frosts just before this nice weather started in killed so many flowers and growing vegetables.

Tomorrow will be another day of fine weather, as the official forecast is for fair weather and moderate temperature.

Yesterdays maximum was 72, and indications were that the temperature would be much higher today, as at noon there was a temperature of 68, with the warmest part of the day yet to come.

ALCOHOLIC TONIC GOES UNDER BAN SOFT DRINK BARS

Under orders from federal and state prohibition enforcement headquarters, soft drink bars of this city, this morning closed selling high-powered tonics by the glass. The order, according to local officials, will be statewide in effect, and comes as an aftermath of a declaration by United States District Attorney George Nuener of Portland, to halt the practice, following the trial of William McHardy, a Klamath county pioneer, in the federal court here, charged with selling the tonics at his Sprague Bros. Klamath county postoffice. McHardy was acquitted by a jury.

The order does not effect drug stores or grocery stores selling the tonics by the bottle.

The order came as a surprise locally, but caused no apparent distress. The "Butters" of Messrs. Lash and Abbott, were in high favor among local citizens in need of a stimulant, morning, noon and night, and in between, at two hits a shot.

"Renault's Wine Tonic" also has quite a vogue, but contained a smaller amount of quinine. The so-called California wine tonics, laced with alcoholic content of the above trio.

The "tonics" are sold under a government permit and have from 16 to 24 percent alcohol. They are supposed to be used as a medicine, and not to be used as a beverage. However, they were used more as a beverage than a medicine, which brought about the ban.

District Attorney Nuener, in his statement against the sale of tonics "over the bar, by the glass," said that he would use the full power of the enforcement agencies and that remedial legislation would probably be urged before the next session of congress, to close the hole in the Volstead Act.

ADDITIONAL STOCK IN FARM BUREAU IS DISPOSED OF

At a meeting of the Farm Bureau yesterday afternoon 87 additional shares of the stock in the organization were sold and approved by resolution for the sale of $17,500 in stock, which the eight Jackson county branches have agreed to sell. Resolutions were also adopted approving the plan to change the name of the organization to the "Farm Bureau Cooperative" and for the reorganization at $2000 when the present plans have been completed. All the resolutions were passed unanimously.

R. H. Kipp, marketing expert of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, talked to those present. The burden of his talk was that farmers should realize their crops and produce to meet the market demands.
