Displaying tactics and championship skill never seen before in Medford, John Layton, world's champion three-cushion player, and Willie Hoppe, former world's champion billiard player, yesterday afternoon and evening entertained good sized groups at Brown's. The afternoon three-cushion match was won by Hoppe and the evening exhibition was taken by Layton with a lead of five points.

CORTLANDER, Oct. 19.—Injuries and indispositions continue to plague Oregon State college football team. The squad will have tonight for Pullman to do battle with Washington State college. Sunday marks the services of the team's tackle, Fred Schell, who was left behind in a training. Schell was overcome with a severe attack of tonsillitis.

With the most important inter-sectional game of the season before them in the Medford high school football team against the opening schedule of the game tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the Oregon high school with eyes fixed on the national state championship. The Medford squad of 22 men will arrive this afternoon by stage in charge of Coach Anderson.

BERKLEY, Calif., Oct. 19.—The University of California graduate prepared to leave Berkeley today after a final practice session. The Southern California Trojans, who will oppose them tomorrow in a conference game in the Memorial stadium here, prepared to practice today after their arrival from the south.

In a building game yesterday afternoon with Chris Gottlieb, local champion, Hoppe, after losing Gottlieb one inning in which he made two points, ran the points in 25 minutes. In the evening he made 22 runs in 25 minutes before Hoppe finished the game. Shots which local billiard fans never believed related were made with ease by the two experts, who even at that, named a number of comparatively easy shots by function of an inch. A trick shot exhibition by Hoppe displayed his skill in mass shots and breakers.

IDAHO VANDALS MEET CARDINALS
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—University of Idaho's varsity grid squad opened its coast conference season here today against one of the strongest teams in the west. The Cardinals of Stanford University, led by Francis Harber, captain and coach, are being Vandals are lined up yesterday with every man in good condition. The Idaho men, one of the heaviest outfits in the conference, outweighed the Stanford players approximately 40 pounds to the man, but the versatility of the Cardinal attack made the outcome the favored team.

Though Al Meyer, quarterback will be able to play a portion of the game, it is likely that Coach Callahan will use Cliff Gardner as quarterback, and George Herby as halfback, most of the game. The other combination will be to use Mattie as kicker, and Garret as half on account of his ability to catch and break up forward passes.
