REHEARSALS HELD FOR NORRIS PLAY

Rehearsals are now under way for the latest Helen Norris radio drama, "Ann Managosa," which was presented with such success three weeks ago by the KGO players. The plot centers around a girl who, in trying to mother her orphaned brothers and keep house for her father, discovers that the latter is unappreciative enough to turn her out.

How the foibles of a kindly Fate interfere just in time to protect the amateur bootleggers from the law, furnish an interesting climax which is brought to a final curtain by the capable cast of KAMED players, who will be heard through the courtesy of the California Oregon Power company next Tuesday from 9 to 10.

Oregon Weather

Fair east, cloudy west portion tonight and Saturday. Moderate temperature. Moderate northerly winds. 210*
