Light and show as a soap bubble, and about as irresponsible, is "Show Girl," which will be shown in conjunction with the Fanchon and Marco stage presentation, "Sagebrush Politics" at Hunt's Christian theatre tomorrow.

This little girl with her blond hair, her dainty figure and her pep—surely she is destined for great things in the show world. She has proved in this picture that she has the talent to act a role. For J. P. McElroy's heroine was simply a character on paper until Alice invested her with life.

Two mid-week prayer services will be held this week, one on Wednesday night and the other on Friday night. These services are preparatory to the coming evangelistic meetings.

Next week is Loyalty Week and this church will observe local Sunday on October 28th—one week from Sunday.

When the Saints Come Marching Home. When some of us were children we were familiar with a song of the above refrain. The place they sang about was Heaven. But we have learned that it is not necessary to wait until we enter some distant realm to experience the joys of a homecoming.

At the First Methodist church Sunday morning, Mr. Ross will speak on the theme "The Fire on the Altar."

Mobilizing the man power of the church. As a feature of the Loyalty Weeks of the Medford churches that begin Sunday, a "Men's Night" is scheduled for the evening of October 21. In this loyalty campaign that is on Methodist men will have a test of their loyalty in the happy Sunday evening hour at 7:30. The men will sit together and participate as a group in the service. The pastor is speaking on the subject, "Brothers of Jesus."

Next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist church a six-reel film of the life of Christ will be shown. This is a gripping and satisfying photoplay of that wonderful life which has been the inspiration of the ages.

It is the intention of the producers to give an exact reproduction of the original Oberammergau play as possible. The public is earnestly urged to take advantage of this opportunity to enjoy an evening of great inspiration. Tickets are 50 cents, with a 25-cent admission for children under 14. Meeting of the year, so we have with us our district elder, the Rev. A. C. Archer, whose name alone inspires a keen desire to hear him. He is a man with a "Thorn in the Flesh" and the Spirit in his heart; and preaches the Word with power and conviction. Services Saturday evening at 7:30 on Sunday morning at 11, and Sunday evening at the usual hour.

Sunday evening will be special song and demonstration. You are cordially invited to every service.—J. E. McDonald, pastor.

News of the Screen

At Rialto Tomorrow, Irene Rich, popular screen star, plays the featured title role of "Craig's Wife," which comes to the Rialto theatre tomorrow.

The role is said to afford Miss Rich her finest acting opportunity. The character, Harriet Craig, is that of a managing woman—domestic tyrant and "perfect housekeeper"—who makes a virtue of egotism and has little call of love or sympathy.

Christy Hearns enacted Mrs. Craig in the New York stage production which ran for a year at the Broadway theatre there and created a sensation.

The production has a number of other strong acting parts including the husband, played by Warner Baxter, the neighbor's wife, interpreted by Lilyan Tashman, and a young couple—Virginia Bradford and Carroll Nye.

KILLING FROSTS STRIKE GARDENS IN SAMS VALLEY

SAMS VALLEY, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Contrary to the forecast of some of our weather prophets that no killing frost would appear before November 1, we were visited three successive nights by severe freezing weather which completely demolished all green flowers and growing plants.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cook had an guests at breakfast Sunday morning their sons, Leslie and Hardy, of Portland, who arrived during the late night and, to avoid disturbing their parents, retired to the barn and surprised them by making their appearance at the breakfast table. The two young men will spend a week's vacation in the valley and take a few days' rest.

Dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Shultz Wednesday were Mrs. Mary Stoner and son, Ray, and grandson, Deryl, of Los Angeles, who arrived in the valley Wednesday to visit friends and attend to matters concerning business interests. Mrs. Stoner formerly owned the Williams orchard property here.

Several California land buyers have been interviewing our land owners during the last few days. These buyers seem surprised to find our land producing such desirable pears and apples without irrigation and some acted as if they might find hidden wells on our property, so sure are they that we could not produce as fine fruit without water. These prospective buyers are depending on selling their home property before buying land here.

The high school freshmen class was entertained by the customary initiation party Friday night when the usual pranks by the elder classes were played. But what the freshmen who are all boys, enjoyed the worst part of the initiation was the washing of the party dishes which they believe were the dirtiest any class ever washed before.

Miss Joyce Fredericks of Ashland visited friends here Sunday evening.

T. Weston and family were Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Dodge and children of Medford and Walden Sage of Table Rock.

Turkey flocks are now fattening for the market. It is believed a larger percentage of the crop will be ready for the Thanksgiving market than this district had last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Woolridge and son, Donald, of Medford, visited Sunday with Mrs. Woolridge's brother, J. A. Cook, and wife.

Miss Naomi Macgruder, who is teaching school at Trail, came home Wednesday evening in order to attend the county institute, as did also Miss Frances Fitzgerald, who teaches the independence district.

Outside visitors at school Tuesday were Mrs. Elmer Beagle and Miss Joyce Fredericks of Ashland. Both were teachers in our school last year.

Two land deals of considerable importance in this district are pending. Both prospective buyers are residents of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Fisher, having completed the marketing of their year crop, have purchased a new Ford coupe and left for San Francisco to visit their son, Bill, who is employed there. It is reported that Mr. Fisher was given a hat by the C. & E. Fruit company which, although it had been ordered by ample measurements, proved much too small when he got ready to get into his new coupe.

Miss Frances Wilson is home after an absence of two months spent in Medford undergoing and recuperating from an appendicitis operation.

E. B. Day considers himself a heavy loser by the sudden dying of his fine Hereford bull Thursday, which dropped dead while being driven with the herd from the cattle range to the farm ranch.

In honor of their early departure to Hollenbeck of Ray Gold were entertained at dinner Thursday by Mrs. M. A. Shultz.

Albert Straus and E. B. Day, who have been in the Diamond Lake district for more than a week, returning up beef cattle, returned on Thursday.

Miss Letha Tresham, who has remained in this community since the beginning of the fruit harvest, returned to her home at Holland last week.

W. H. Ward called the veterinary on Wednesday night to attend a very sick horse.

John Holst, John Jones and Bert Edgington, who have spent the summer in the Pelican Bay logging camp, came in for a few days' visit with home folks.

Staples Fined, PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 20.—(AP) George Staples, son of State Senator Isaac Staples, pleaded guilty Friday to violating the national banking act, and was fined $750 by Federal Judge McNary. He was arrested a month ago. The violations occurred in operation of the First Bank of Reedport some time ago.

Don't Wait—Take Them in Time, When Chas. McAllister, Kearney, N. J., reached the point where he had to drag his foot, aching, weary body from a well-nigh sleepless bed, he did a little thing—bought a bottle of Foley's Kidney and Bladder Pills. He took one at a time. I became all right, and my kidney distress, pain and weakness are all gone. Cost little, satisfaction guaranteed. Try them. For sale by Jarmis & Bards Drug Store.

SCHOOL PATRONS OF LOST CREEK RE-SHINGLE BARN

LAKE CREEK, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Mrs. E. M. and Mr. M. J. who had been visiting her parents at Red Bluff, Calif., returned home Thursday.

A number of patrons of the Lost Creek school district met at the school house last Monday and put a new roof on the barn. The women went along with well-filled baskets and a picnic dinner was served at noon. Everyone enjoyed a very happy day. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fox and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoofft, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Tom and Mrs. L. J. Grimeson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farlow, Mr. and Mrs. C. E.
