BAD RUM DEATHS MOUNT TO EIGHT IN LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Deaths from poison liquor had mounted to eight here today after three persons, a man and two women, had succumbed yesterday from drinking alcohol, police reported. Another woman, rendered blind from bad liquor, heard a jury return a verdict of guilty against a man charged with supplying the alcohol.

The latest dead were Floyd B. Smith, a carpenter, who died at the General hospital, Mrs. Clara Petiot, found in a hotel, and an unidentified Spanish woman discovered sitting at a table in a cafe. All of the eight deaths have occurred since September 15.

Miss Jane Buckmaster, a film extra, who lost her sight after "taking a few drinks" with a man she met on movie lots, heard Theodore Hay, 24, convicted in municipal court last night of a charge of selling the liquor to her. He will be sentenced tomorrow.

Goodyear Tire Dealer Is Home From the Factory

D. M. Anderson, a salesman for the Goodyear Tire & Rubber company, returned to Medford yesterday from Akron, Ohio, where he attended the 30th anniversary homecoming and sales conference at the company's headquarters. Members of the sales organization from all branches of the company in this country and from foreign countries were in attendance.

"Success of the Goodyear organization over the 30-year period of its history and qualities which have made the company the leader in the rubber industry was stressed by officials of the company," said Mr. Anderson.

Quality has always been paramount with Goodyear and the constant striving for this quality enabled the company to introduce to the rubber industry many improvements including the first practical cord tire and the first pneumatic truck tire. This policy was primarily responsible for the growth which enabled Goodyear to take the leadership as the world's largest automobile tire manufacturer in 1915 and to maintain it since that time.

During this time production has increased six times, reaching an all-time total of 125,000,000. Indications are that this year will see all production and sales records of the company broken."

Talking Picture At Craterian Thursday

Czar Paul the First of Russia—the world's most modest man! Judged by his orders when he appeared in the public streets, he might deserve this title, for every man, woman and child was driven from the thoroughfare by armed soldiers before the carriage or sleigh of the monarch made its appearance.

Death was the penalty to those who dared even to peep from windows when the Little Father went by. Many an innocent baby, straying beyond its mother's call, was shot or speared by the savage Cossack bodyguards of the czar.

The dreadful brutality of life under this tyrant is shown with dramatic realism in Emil Jannings' latest picture, "The Patriot," which comes to Hunt's Craterian tomorrow.

With Jannings himself playing the role of the czar, supported by such players as Florence Vidor, Lewis Stone, Tullio Carminati, Vera Voronina and many others, "The Patriot" brings to the screen a story of such power and dramatic sweep that critics have hailed it as a historic cameo of more than ordinary significance.

"The Patriot" also brings the voice of Jannings to the screen, with many dramatic sequences spoken.

Power Coming To Rialto Tomorrow

William Boyd and Alan Hale give two humorous characterizations one to another in "Power," which will be shown at the Rialto theater tomorrow.

As two rough-and-ready dam-worker sheiks, whose great mental problems usually center around "dames," these two clever players are said to give portrayals that top even their adroit work in "Skyscraper." With much of the action laid against the background of the Pacoima dam in southern California, the highest structure of its kind in the world, "Power" offers numerous thrills as well as laughs.

Wall Street Report

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—(AP) The stock market closed strong. The upward movement became more vigorous in many stocks in the final hour especially in the oil and copper groups. Sinclair Oil was bought in blocks of from 5000 to 25,000 shares and touched 34 7-8, the highest figure in five years. Greene Cananea Copper advanced ten points and Stewart Warner went up six points to 110, a new high mark.

Western Union had a strong rally and R. H. Macy and Gimbel Brothers added considerably to their early gains. Montgomery Ward fell 5 points. Sales approximated 4,750,000 shares.

Theatres

Two delightfully entertaining and clever misses are the McCune Sisters appearing in Fanchon and Marco's "Artists Idea" at Hunt's Craterian theater Sunday. In their act they introduce a new dance sensation, the Creole Stomp, which is taking Chicago by storm.
