WOMEN CAN USE VOTING BALANCE CLUB HEAD SAYS

Women have the power to elect the next president of the United States, according to Miss Emily H. Kneubuhl, executive secretary of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, who is to speak before that group in this city Tuesday, October 30th.

Miss Kneubuhl, who is making a tour of the United States, visiting the various chapters of the federation, will speak in Klamath Falls Monday, October 29, where she will be met by a delegation of local women and escorted to Medford.

MISS EMILY KNEUBUHL, Executive secretary, National Federation, Business and Professional Women's Clubs, New York City.

she will be given a banquet at Hotel Medford, where members of the organization and their friends are invited to attend.

That she has an interesting message to impart to the independent voter is gathered from extracts from the various talks she has given recently in the east. Miss Kneubuhl's talks are said to be refreshingly non-partisan, and are intended to stimulate a desire on the part of the women audience to study the candidates and issues of the campaign intelligently before casting their votes.

She will leave Medford Wednesday for Grants Pass, escorted there by members of the business and professional club of that city. And from there she will proceed to Portland and through the north-west.
