PHOENIX PACKING PLANT SHUT DOWN HAD GOOD SEASON

By Mary O. Carey
EDEN PRECINCT, Ore., Oct. 26.—(Special.) Dr. Malmgren of Phoenix has been having Noah Chandler reshingle and paint and otherwise repair a couple of his houses in Ashland, which the doctor has for rent.

The Phoenix packing house owned and operated by Newby and sons, has closed down for this season. They have had one of the best runs of packing houses in this locality. The pears especially were a heavy crop and many cars were shipped from Phoenix. The apple crop was not above the average.

J. Frank Wortman was in our precinct Wednesday announcing his candidacy for representative on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Wortman expects to get a good percentage of the votes in Phoenix and vicinity.

Those who spent last Saturday in Medford doing trading were Dr. Malmgren, Mrs. Reimer, John Mast, A. H. Fisher, C. Carey and Mrs. Irene Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Dopp of Medford were up to their little ranch near Phoenix last Sunday morning.

James Allen and Frank Evans were Medford business visitors last Friday.

Mrs. Guard, organizer for the Neighbors of Woodcraft, who is in Medford on official business, was out to make a call on your correspondent last Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Shearer brought the lady out in their car.

Earl Bradley of Wagner creek was down in North Talent one day last week trying to sell a radio.

Clint Hartley and family, accompanied by Mrs. Hartley's brother, Mr. Poley, spent the week-end at Crescent City. They report the weather most delightful.

Talent people were interested in a political address given by one of the Republican campaign speakers one night last week.

S. S. Stevens is the possessor of a fine new Colson radio which is the source of much pleasure to him.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Rease of Sacramento are visiting at the home of Mrs. Rease's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey and with Mrs. Rease's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Rease of Ashland. Mr. Rease, Sr., is in bad health.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Chandler and Irene were down to John Mast's to hear the Helen Norris radio play, "Ann Manages." It came in very clear, and was said to be her best production thus far.

The Phoenix ladies' aid will give their regular harvest home chicken supper this Friday evening, October 27.

It is estimated to be as fine a supper as the Phoenix ladies have the reputation of having in the past and that is saying much.

Mrs. J. W. Fish and daughter, Leona, returned the last of this week from a couple of weeks visit at Modesto with Mrs. Fish's mother and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butler of southern California have rented the place belonging to Mr. Pettus.

There was a large attendance at church in Phoenix last Sunday to hear Rev. Johnson, who was here as a candidate for the pastorate. Rev. Johnson delivered a very able sermon. In his compliments with regard to our valley and of the people he has met he said he was impressed with the hospitality of the people.

Ed Hamlin and Louie Colver spent the past week out at Lost Prairie in the Dead Indian country. Ed is gathering his cattle preparatory to driving in.

Mrs. E. A. Evans was up from Salem for a few days last week visiting her mother, Mrs. Will High.
