

Local and Personal

Jackson county voters who wish sample ballots may obtain them at the county clerk's office...

An attendance of 14 was present yesterday at the meeting of the Central Point branch of the Jackson County Health Association...

A bounty warrant was issued at the county clerk's office today to Andrew Frakes of Jacksonville for the killing of a bobcat.

You'll be interested in Pitt View Acres. See Warnock & Shelley's ad on page 2.

Jack Fungate of Mt. Pitt and Mrs. Alice Cummings of Butte Falls were among the business visitors in Medford today.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

A delegation of eight women and possibly more is expected from Gold Hill at the meet Tuesday evening of the Business and Professional Women's club in Medford...

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

James A. Powers was in Medford today en route from Long Beach, Cal., to Cottage Grove, where he expects to begin duties Monday on the Cottage Grove Sentinel in the printing department.

Bryan's Radio Shop, 232 1/2 E. 6th St., Medford, Ore., is repairing and servicing all makes of radios.

Vacant dwellings in Ashland are very rare, according to L. A. Roberts, Ashland Justice of the Peace, who was in Medford today attending to business matters.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

Guests from a distance registered at Medford hotels include Max State and A. W. Sala of Chicago...

Hemstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making. Handicraft Shop, Phone 792, 1921 1/2 E. 6th St.

Drum maker and designer, Mrs. Violet Eaton, phone 1025-F; residence 1022-W, 219

R. W. Price of Portland, general manager of the Crater National Park company, who returned yesterday from a visit at the park since last Thursday, left for home today.

C. F. Goff writes all kinds of insurance. See him, Telephone 922, Office, 419 East Main, 1881 1/2

Dance, Gold Hill tonight, 218* Rex Lampman, who is a former local resident and at one time connected with the Gold Hill News, is now connected with the Woodville magazine in Long Beach, Cal., as a special writer...

Regular dance, Gold Hill tonight, 218* A building permit was issued yesterday by the city to G. W. Roberts for the construction of a house and store on Second street, at a cost of $700.

Beautiful Pitt View homesites. See Warnock & Shelley's ad on pg. 2.

When given a preliminary hearing in the Gold Hill justice court yesterday on a moonshine still possession charge, A. King, Fred and Ernest Adams and H. Good were each bound over to the grand jury at bail of $1000 each.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

Guests from California registered at Medford hotels include D. J. Couch of Redondo Beach, C. J. Sabine of Los Angeles, J. H. Dier...

Thomas Realty Co., real estate, insurance and small loans on anything of value. Palm House, corner Main and Front, upstairs, 17*

C. Woodruff, traveling freight agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas lines, left for San Francisco last night, expecting to return to his home in Seattle within a few days.

Regular dance, Gold Hill tonight, 218*

Mrs. W. H. McNair and Mrs. Andy McCallum of Ashland were Medford visitors today for several hours.

Blue Mission grapes now ripe. Three cents a pound, J. A. Manke, two miles east of Jacksonville, and adjoining Clancy orchard.

A 275-pound deer was bagged in the John Day country a week ago by T. S. Kenney of Murphy, Josephine county.

Hose mending, runners removed and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop, 1921 1/2 E. 6th St.

A minor auto collision which involved Newton C. Chaney, took place late last night at Ashland when Chaney's car was struck by that of James McDonald of Seattle, Wash. McDonald assumed all responsibility which occurred when McDonald attempted to avoid hitting another machine.

Cherry trees, 25c; finest ever grown in state, J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 910-Y, 2001*

Get a thrill out of dancing. Learn the Varsity Drag, Harold Teen, Frisco and other ballroom dances now being enjoyed down south. Eve Benson Dancing Academy, 218*

A back parlor of Hotel Holland was the scene of a brief marriage ceremony uniting Miss Laura Mason and Ernest Hitchcock, both of Medford, this noon. Judge Glenn O. Taylor performed the ceremony.

It is good news for dance lovers to know that the shuffle, waltz and pumphandle movement in ballroom dancing is rapidly becoming a thing of the past.

John Phipps of the Rogue River district spent this morning in the city on business.

J. J. Skinner was among the Medford business visitors in Grants Pass Monday, as was also Dr. F. P. Reilly, who is spending several days there.

Grange dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night. Everybody welcome. 218*

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

Guests from California registered at Medford hotels include D. J. Couch of Redondo Beach, C. J. Sabine of Los Angeles, J. H. Dier...

Thomas Realty Co., real estate, insurance and small loans on anything of value. Palm House, corner Main and Front, upstairs, 17*

C. Woodruff, traveling freight agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas lines, left for San Francisco last night, expecting to return to his home in Seattle within a few days.

Regular dance, Gold Hill tonight, 218*

Mrs. W. H. McNair and Mrs. Andy McCallum of Ashland were Medford visitors today for several hours.

Blue Mission grapes now ripe. Three cents a pound, J. A. Manke, two miles east of Jacksonville, and adjoining Clancy orchard.

A 275-pound deer was bagged in the John Day country a week ago by T. S. Kenney of Murphy, Josephine county.

Hose mending, runners removed and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop, 1921 1/2 E. 6th St.

A minor auto collision which involved Newton C. Chaney, took place late last night at Ashland when Chaney's car was struck by that of James McDonald of Seattle, Wash. McDonald assumed all responsibility which occurred when McDonald attempted to avoid hitting another machine.

Cherry trees, 25c; finest ever grown in state, J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 910-Y, 2001*

Get a thrill out of dancing. Learn the Varsity Drag, Harold Teen, Frisco and other ballroom dances now being enjoyed down south. Eve Benson Dancing Academy, 218*

A back parlor of Hotel Holland was the scene of a brief marriage ceremony uniting Miss Laura Mason and Ernest Hitchcock, both of Medford, this noon. Judge Glenn O. Taylor performed the ceremony.

It is good news for dance lovers to know that the shuffle, waltz and pumphandle movement in ballroom dancing is rapidly becoming a thing of the past.

John Phipps of the Rogue River district spent this morning in the city on business.

J. J. Skinner was among the Medford business visitors in Grants Pass Monday, as was also Dr. F. P. Reilly, who is spending several days there.

Grange dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night. Everybody welcome. 218*

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

WEATHER PERFECT MR. AND MRS. GOSS AT CRATER LAKE IN BEELE HOUSE PRICE DECLARES MT. PITT DISTRICT

R. W. Price of Portland, general manager and vice president of the Crater National Park company, returned to the city last evening from an inspection visit to the lodge at the park since last Thursday, and spent much of today in the city prior to departing for Portland.

The weather is simply beautiful at the park, with the nicest kind of weather possible during the season and a total absence of snow. Mr. Price stated today, which condition together with the fact that the Crater Lake highway is in excellent condition will induce many Medford and valley people to visit the lake tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stanley and mother Mrs. John Rader, were up on business this week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown of Eagle Point were Monday evening visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley.

Roy Stanley has been out to the valley this week delivering his beef.

Ben Fredenberg and son Theodore, also delivered their beef this week.

School Notes (By Beulah Horeford, pupil) Tuesday at noon we were surprised to have a number of visitors come to our school. They were Miss Besley, Miss Coolidge, Miss Glover and Robert Schrenk.

Miss Besley, from Portland came to talk to the teachers about child health. Miss Coolidge came from Ashland Normal to talk to the children on health and cleanliness and Miss Glover, our county nurse, from Medford came to weigh the children and get a sample of the well water.

Robert Schoengost from Medford high school came to get us interested in the harmonica band. He gave us a very good talk, then he played three pieces for us on his harmonica. We all enjoyed having them visit the school.

Notice. My wife, Gladys, having left my bed and board, I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her after this date, October 25th, 1928. M. H. Simons, 118

These Drug Stores are open nights this week: Jarmin & Woods, James McNair Pharmacy, West Side Pharmacy

Dine Tomorrow Hotel Medford. Your Inspection Invited. Dinner $1.00. KLEIN THE TAILOR UPSTAIRS. "The Food Is Better" At the Medford

ROOF LEAK? CALL Trowbridge Lumber Yard. Our roofing expert will call and give you suggestions and estimates on costs. No obligations. We sell the famous Johns-Manville Roofings ALSO CEDAR SHINGLES

Obituary. HAZELRIGG—Word was received this morning by H. E. Marsh, that Arthur Hazelrigg, a former well-known local resident, passed away today at Oakland, Cal. after a short illness. Heart failure was given as the cause of death.

The funeral services will be held in this city Monday at 2 p. m., the body arriving tomorrow morning.

Mr. Hazelrigg was 45 years of age at the time of his death. He lived in this city for ten years, moving to Oakland, Calif., about five years ago. He was a member of the Elks lodge and was well known. He is survived by two brothers living in Oakland, two sisters, Mrs. E. E. McElhose and Mrs. H. E. Marsh, his mother, Mrs. Mary Hazelrigg of this city, Mrs. Arthur Hazelrigg of Portland, Oregon, and a wife and a wide circle of friends.

A. C. Chapel. A lecture will be given in the A. C. chapel on Jackson street, Sunday, October 28, 11 o'clock, which every church member in Medford should hear. J. A. Orchard of Los Angeles, internationally known speaker, will speak on the subject, "Character Building by An Empire, Four Horses and Their Riders of the Apocalypse."

Ministers of other churches are invited. According to announcement this afternoon a petition has been filed carrying the candidacy of P. M. Kershaw as a director of the Medford Irrigation district. Two of the present directors, Messrs. Rosenberg and Sanders, hold over the coming election and the Kershaw candidacy is for the place now held by E. P. Bennett.

LEGIONNAIRES URGE CITIZENS TO VOTE

Local members of the American Legion are urging all their friends and acquaintances to get out and vote on November 6th. This is a duty that every loyal citizen of America should not neglect as elections come but once in four years and it would seem that every real American should be willing to give the few minutes time required to cast his ballot.

Intelligent study of the ballot before voting is also urged by the American Legion post of this city. The above effort is a part of the nation-wide program of community service sponsored by this patriotic organization.

STATE THEATRE Any Seat 15c Anytime Children under 12, 10c Show Changes Daily

TODAY "RANSOM" Featuring LOIS WILSON Also Eighth Episode of "Mark of the Frog"

Are You an Artist? We know that it takes more than sincerity to make clothes that fit and wear honestly.

It takes ARTISTIC skill, experience, fine material, and extra care of details. All this with an instinct for Smart Styles and very reasonable prices has given us our reputation.

Suits Made for You $35 to $55

Dine Tomorrow Hotel Medford. Your Inspection Invited. Dinner $1.00. KLEIN THE TAILOR UPSTAIRS. "The Food Is Better" At the Medford

ROOF LEAK? CALL Trowbridge Lumber Yard. Our roofing expert will call and give you suggestions and estimates on costs. No obligations. We sell the famous Johns-Manville Roofings ALSO CEDAR SHINGLES

You Ain't Heard Nothin' Yet SEE AND HEAR

Al Jolson SINGING FOOL

SIX BIG DAYS Starts MONDAY October 29

HUNT'S CRATERIAN

Wonderful Floor

You will get more pleasure out of dancing when you patronize this wonderful ballroom. The music, surroundings and floor are all that you could desire. "Dance for Youth"

Walker's Dance Pavilion

DANCING

Guests from California registered at Medford hotels include D. J. Couch of Redondo Beach, C. J. Sabine of Los Angeles, J. H. Dier...

Thomas Realty Co., real estate, insurance and small loans on anything of value. Palm House, corner Main and Front, upstairs, 17*

C. Woodruff, traveling freight agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas lines, left for San Francisco last night, expecting to return to his home in Seattle within a few days.

Regular dance, Gold Hill tonight, 218*

Mrs. W. H. McNair and Mrs. Andy McCallum of Ashland were Medford visitors today for several hours.

Blue Mission grapes now ripe. Three cents a pound, J. A. Manke, two miles east of Jacksonville, and adjoining Clancy orchard.

A 275-pound deer was bagged in the John Day country a week ago by T. S. Kenney of Murphy, Josephine county.

Hose mending, runners removed and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop, 1921 1/2 E. 6th St.

A minor auto collision which involved Newton C. Chaney, took place late last night at Ashland when Chaney's car was struck by that of James McDonald of Seattle, Wash. McDonald assumed all responsibility which occurred when McDonald attempted to avoid hitting another machine.

Cherry trees, 25c; finest ever grown in state, J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 910-Y, 2001*

Get a thrill out of dancing. Learn the Varsity Drag, Harold Teen, Frisco and other ballroom dances now being enjoyed down south. Eve Benson Dancing Academy, 218*

A back parlor of Hotel Holland was the scene of a brief marriage ceremony uniting Miss Laura Mason and Ernest Hitchcock, both of Medford, this noon. Judge Glenn O. Taylor performed the ceremony.

It is good news for dance lovers to know that the shuffle, waltz and pumphandle movement in ballroom dancing is rapidly becoming a thing of the past.

John Phipps of the Rogue River district spent this morning in the city on business.

J. J. Skinner was among the Medford business visitors in Grants Pass Monday, as was also Dr. F. P. Reilly, who is spending several days there.

Grange dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night. Everybody welcome. 218*

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

Guests from California registered at Medford hotels include D. J. Couch of Redondo Beach, C. J. Sabine of Los Angeles, J. H. Dier...

Thomas Realty Co., real estate, insurance and small loans on anything of value. Palm House, corner Main and Front, upstairs, 17*

C. Woodruff, traveling freight agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas lines, left for San Francisco last night, expecting to return to his home in Seattle within a few days.

Regular dance, Gold Hill tonight, 218*

Mrs. W. H. McNair and Mrs. Andy McCallum of Ashland were Medford visitors today for several hours.

Blue Mission grapes now ripe. Three cents a pound, J. A. Manke, two miles east of Jacksonville, and adjoining Clancy orchard.

A 275-pound deer was bagged in the John Day country a week ago by T. S. Kenney of Murphy, Josephine county.

Hose mending, runners removed and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop, 1921 1/2 E. 6th St.

A minor auto collision which involved Newton C. Chaney, took place late last night at Ashland when Chaney's car was struck by that of James McDonald of Seattle, Wash. McDonald assumed all responsibility which occurred when McDonald attempted to avoid hitting another machine.

Cherry trees, 25c; finest ever grown in state, J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 910-Y, 2001*

Get a thrill out of dancing. Learn the Varsity Drag, Harold Teen, Frisco and other ballroom dances now being enjoyed down south. Eve Benson Dancing Academy, 218*

A back parlor of Hotel Holland was the scene of a brief marriage ceremony uniting Miss Laura Mason and Ernest Hitchcock, both of Medford, this noon. Judge Glenn O. Taylor performed the ceremony.

It is good news for dance lovers to know that the shuffle, waltz and pumphandle movement in ballroom dancing is rapidly becoming a thing of the past.

John Phipps of the Rogue River district spent this morning in the city on business.

J. J. Skinner was among the Medford business visitors in Grants Pass Monday, as was also Dr. F. P. Reilly, who is spending several days there.

Grange dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night. Everybody welcome. 218*

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

Guests from California registered at Medford hotels include D. J. Couch of Redondo Beach, C. J. Sabine of Los Angeles, J. H. Dier...

Thomas Realty Co., real estate, insurance and small loans on anything of value. Palm House, corner Main and Front, upstairs, 17*

C. Woodruff, traveling freight agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas lines, left for San Francisco last night, expecting to return to his home in Seattle within a few days.

Regular dance, Gold Hill tonight, 218*

Mrs. W. H. McNair and Mrs. Andy McCallum of Ashland were Medford visitors today for several hours.

Blue Mission grapes now ripe. Three cents a pound, J. A. Manke, two miles east of Jacksonville, and adjoining Clancy orchard.

A 275-pound deer was bagged in the John Day country a week ago by T. S. Kenney of Murphy, Josephine county.

Hose mending, runners removed and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop, 1921 1/2 E. 6th St.

A minor auto collision which involved Newton C. Chaney, took place late last night at Ashland when Chaney's car was struck by that of James McDonald of Seattle, Wash. McDonald assumed all responsibility which occurred when McDonald attempted to avoid hitting another machine.

Cherry trees, 25c; finest ever grown in state, J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 910-Y, 2001*

Get a thrill out of dancing. Learn the Varsity Drag, Harold Teen, Frisco and other ballroom dances now being enjoyed down south. Eve Benson Dancing Academy, 218*

A back parlor of Hotel Holland was the scene of a brief marriage ceremony uniting Miss Laura Mason and Ernest Hitchcock, both of Medford, this noon. Judge Glenn O. Taylor performed the ceremony.

It is good news for dance lovers to know that the shuffle, waltz and pumphandle movement in ballroom dancing is rapidly becoming a thing of the past.

John Phipps of the Rogue River district spent this morning in the city on business.

J. J. Skinner was among the Medford business visitors in Grants Pass Monday, as was also Dr. F. P. Reilly, who is spending several days there.

Grange dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night. Everybody welcome. 218*

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

Guests from California registered at Medford hotels include D. J. Couch of Redondo Beach, C. J. Sabine of Los Angeles, J. H. Dier...

Thomas Realty Co., real estate, insurance and small loans on anything of value. Palm House, corner Main and Front, upstairs, 17*

C. Woodruff, traveling freight agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas lines, left for San Francisco last night, expecting to return to his home in Seattle within a few days.

Regular dance, Gold Hill tonight, 218*

Mrs. W. H. McNair and Mrs. Andy McCallum of Ashland were Medford visitors today for several hours.

Blue Mission grapes now ripe. Three cents a pound, J. A. Manke, two miles east of Jacksonville, and adjoining Clancy orchard.

A 275-pound deer was bagged in the John Day country a week ago by T. S. Kenney of Murphy, Josephine county.

Hose mending, runners removed and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop, 1921 1/2 E. 6th St.

A minor auto collision which involved Newton C. Chaney, took place late last night at Ashland when Chaney's car was struck by that of James McDonald of Seattle, Wash. McDonald assumed all responsibility which occurred when McDonald attempted to avoid hitting another machine.

Cherry trees, 25c; finest ever grown in state, J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 910-Y, 2001*

Get a thrill out of dancing. Learn the Varsity Drag, Harold Teen, Frisco and other ballroom dances now being enjoyed down south. Eve Benson Dancing Academy, 218*

A back parlor of Hotel Holland was the scene of a brief marriage ceremony uniting Miss Laura Mason and Ernest Hitchcock, both of Medford, this noon. Judge Glenn O. Taylor performed the ceremony.

It is good news for dance lovers to know that the shuffle, waltz and pumphandle movement in ballroom dancing is rapidly becoming a thing of the past.

John Phipps of the Rogue River district spent this morning in the city on business.

J. J. Skinner was among the Medford business visitors in Grants Pass Monday, as was also Dr. F. P. Reilly, who is spending several days there.

Grange dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night. Everybody welcome. 218*

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

See Warnock & Shelley's ad on this page.

Guests from California registered at Medford hotels include D. J. Couch of Redondo Beach, C. J. Sabine of Los Angeles, J. H. Dier...

Thomas Realty Co., real estate, insurance and small loans on anything of value. Palm House, corner Main and Front, upstairs, 17*

C. Woodruff, traveling freight agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas lines, left for San Francisco last night, expecting to return to his home in Seattle within a few days.

Regular dance, Gold Hill tonight, 218*

Mrs. W. H. McNair and Mrs. Andy McCallum of Ashland were Medford visitors today for several hours.

Blue Mission grapes now ripe. Three cents a pound, J. A. Manke, two miles east of Jacksonville, and adjoining Clancy orchard.

A 275-pound deer was bagged in the John Day country a week ago by T. S. Kenney of Murphy, Josephine county.

Hose mending, runners removed and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop, 1921 1/2 E. 6th St.

A minor auto collision which involved Newton C. Chaney, took place late last night at Ashland when Chaney's car was struck by that of James McDonald of Seattle, Wash. McDonald assumed all responsibility which occurred when McDonald attempted to avoid hitting another machine.

Cherry trees, 25c; finest ever grown in state, J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 910-Y, 2001*

Get a thrill out of dancing. Learn the Varsity Drag, Harold Teen, Frisco and other ballroom dances now being enjoyed down south. Eve Benson Dancing Academy, 218*

A back parlor of Hotel Holland was the scene of a brief marriage ceremony uniting Miss Laura Mason and Ernest Hitchcock, both of Medford, this noon. Judge Glenn O. Taylor performed the ceremony.

It is good news for dance lovers to know that the shuffle