The police department today warned Halloween revelers to use caution when celebrating tomorrow night in avoiding the destruction of property for the sake of mischief. Special police will be employed to make possible a quiet Halloween celebration. It will be permissible for youngsters to don white sheets and to use jack-o-lanterns if they do not stay away from home too late and refrain from molesting the property of others.

Price cuts little rice in buying fruit trees. It's quality. Austin, 23 Portland Ave. 223 Due to the fact that attendance was cut down during the past three months because of employment and warm weather, the total of the quarterly pay of the local unit of the Oregon National Guard is somewhat smaller than the average, according to Carl Y. Tengwald, who announced today that pay checks will be distributed at tomorrow night's drill at the Armory. The pay checks, he said, have a total of $488.65. There are still a number of vacancies in the local unit, but these are expected to be filled in a short time.

China pheasant hunting was reported to be poor yesterday by a hunting party composed of George Babs, Clarence Babs, Earl Jones and Harry Hansen. They hunted in various parts of the valley without any remarkable success and attributed the scarcity of birds to their inability to hide, after having become frightened by the large number of hunters in the field. Quail, said one of the members of the party, can still be found in fairly good quantities, but are also in hiding. Cherry trees, 25c; finest ever grown in state. J. C. Barnes Nursery. There's a Great Deal Said and many claims made as regards the merits of the various breads on the market but the proof of the bread (as well as the pudding) is in the eating. We urge you to make a comparison in your own home—buy a loaf of Fluhrer's bread and as many other kinds as you feel like testing and judge them for Flavor Taste Aroma These three qualities are closely allied together and are the factors that influence the all important item of eating. In the eating of Fluhrer's Milk Breads note the fullness of flavor, the richness of aroma not found in the ordinary bread. This is where the Fluhrer policy of extra quantities of vitamin bearing milk shows its results.

You owe it to yourself and family. Make this comparison, and once you've discovered the difference you will never again ask your grocer for "just a loaf of bread" but you will always insist on
