

Local and Personal

Only one ranger and the lodge caretaker are now at Crater National park for the winter season...

Good Spitz and Baldwin apples for sale at Pinnacle Packing Co.

Mrs. H. J. Hammond, Mrs. Helen Minkler and Mrs. Kate Young are expected to return today to Medford...

Eve Benson Dancing Academy. Modern Russian ballet, too, Oriental, Spanish with castanets, tap, musical comedy, novelty, acrobatic, business girls' classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Sowersby of Ridge, Oregon, who attended the funeral of Mrs. P. H. Harrison here yesterday returned last night to their home.

Hear Katie M. Grieve and O. C. Rogers over KMED, 8:30 Monday evening. Better Government League.

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Myers arrived home last Thursday night from visiting for a week at Salem and Portland.

The Oakland Poultry and Egg company of Oakland, Cal., are advertising for turkeys for the holidays. They will also buy chickens, ducks and geese.

Gold Hill high school is figuring on having a strong town basketball team. This team will play Grants Pass, Cave shop, Medford, Methodists, Jacksonville, Central Point and Knappton River, according to the Gold Hill News.

Coal by the sack or ton. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

County Agent R. G. Fowler and some of the 10 boys club members left yesterday to attend the International Livestock exposition at Portland, and the others will leave for the same destination today.

The club members will return home next Thursday, but Mr. Fowler will not return until the exposition is over.

You are invited to be the guests of the Democratic Headquarters, Bartlett Building, 119 North Central, Tuesday evening. Three rooms have been secured, and two radios installed, one for local election returns, and the other for national results.

Mrs. Naomi Montgomery left for her home in Portland last Wednesday after spending a few days in Ashland with Mrs. W. H. McNair.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

An exchange of property made last week through the Charles A. Wing agency involved the ranch of John A. Morton near Central Point and the Ray Bentley property at Coalinga, Calif.

Miss Florene Combs, who teaches the Butte Creek school near Lake Creek, spent the week-end visiting relatives here.

Housewife After Housewife

have voluntarily come into our retail store to tell us how much they appreciated the convenience of Fluhrer's New Long Loaf, and its all around excellence.

It contains all the traditional quality of Fluhrer's Bread.

If the sentiment of people attending the movies has anything to do with the general sentiment of the public people of Medford are almost one-hundred percent for Hoover last Sunday when news reels were shown at the Crater...

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

After November 16, Mrs. Florence Conkle, county home demonstration agent, will conduct military demonstrations in the rural districts.

Water line repair work, which had been in progress on South Central avenue, between Main and Eighth streets for a short time past, was completed this week with the repairing of a leak from a water main near the center of the street.

A leak was reached and the pipe was touched, the hole became suddenly larger, giving the repairmen a shower bath.

Halls Carteria will be closed on Sundays throughout the winter months.

Several motorists were tagged yesterday by City Traffic Officer C. J. Present for parking too long in one place and for doubleparking without a driver in the car.

They are scheduled to appear at the police station Monday, where they will probably be given small fines and a warning to refrain from violating the city traffic laws in the future.

Pear trees, 25c; French roots, budded; nothing better. J. C. Barnes Nursery, Tel. 910-Y. 2001*

Among the voluntary petitions in bankruptcy filed in the United States court at Portland last week was one by Fred Marwick, laborer, and Dorothy Marwick, husband and wife, Medford, liabilities $2667, assets, none.

Homesteading, host mending, pleating and button making. Handicraft Shop, Phone 702, 1931*

While no trace has been found of the two Lucas girls who ran away several weeks ago, police have been asked to search for another girl who is known to have run away about two days ago, says the Ashland Tidings.

Extra good Sultzenberg apples, 50c per box at Pinnacle Packing Co.

With the arrival of fall weather and early darkness, bicycle riders are given their annual warning by officers to equip their wheels with lights when traveling at night.

Several complaints have been received by officers and it is possible that a bicycle is found down town after dark without a light, it will be taken into custody by officers until they are equipped with lights.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

"I'm through fighting, I'm never going to put on another glove," said Neal (Kid) Wagner yesterday. "I've fought 18 fights and I won all of them but three and they were all lost right here in Medford. I lost the last one Friday at the armory when Frank Warnecky knocked me out in the first round by a chance blow on the face with his elbow. It was a trick blow and I've used it myself in the ring. Even if I should get into better condition and have more confidence in myself, I don't believe I'll even then try fighting."

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

"Jazz"—The best thing you can do for your boy (or girl) is to have him learn to play popular music. In this radio age it is only way to stimulate his interest in music and make a musician out of him. Try the Haight Supplemental System. Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano. Studio, 318 Liberty Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leever left Friday night for their home at San Francisco after a visit with relatives at Central Point and Ashland, following being called back by the death of Mrs. Leever's father, W. H. Swager.

Members of the Medford volunteer fire department are reminded by Fire Chief Elliott that regular monthly fire drill will be held tomorrow evening. He desires a 100 percent attendance, as he attaches more than ordinary importance to this season.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

Mr. and Mrs. William Williams left yesterday afternoon for their home in Salem, following several days spent in Medford with friends and relatives while en route by motor from a short trip to Sacramento.

Vote 63 X Yes. W. D. Welch of 115 McIntosh st. for City Recorder. A resident of Medford 18 years.

The first wild goose of the season were heard flying over Medford Friday night shortly before 8 o'clock and Elder Conner, who was one of the local citizens upon the repair work, reported yesterday that they were flying fairly low and reminded him of barking dogs in the distance.

The reason as a rule fly over the valley earlier, but mild weather in the northern climes is given as the reason for their late arrival. Ducks are also said to be coming over in larger numbers and are becoming thick in the Klamath section.

A few more Hoover thimbles for the ladies and Hoover pins for the men at this office.

Steel shears, ground, plowshares, sharpened, general blacksmithing. Nick Young, 109 South Holly St.

Miss Bertie Stinson had her tonsils removed Friday at the Federal hospital. While she is recovering her sister, Mrs. Harold Warren is taking her place in Dr. Holt's office.

Thomas Realty Co., real estate, insurance and small loans on anything of value. Palm Block, corner Main and Front, upstairs.

Final preparations at the county clerk's office were made yesterday and will be completed tomorrow for the election next Tuesday. Ballot boxes were being distributed yesterday and the remaining ones will be taken to their respective precincts tomorrow by deputies of the sheriff's office. Election boards have received instructions and nothing else remains but for the voters to be cast.

Hemstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making. Handicraft Shop, Phone 702, 1931*

A building permit was issued by the city yesterday afternoon to Ed Albert to remodel a dwelling at a cost of $100.

Jersey suits and dresses made to measure at the Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

"I'm through fighting, I'm never going to put on another glove," said Neal (Kid) Wagner yesterday. "I've fought 18 fights and I won all of them but three and they were all lost right here in Medford. I lost the last one Friday at the armory when Frank Warnecky knocked me out in the first round by a chance blow on the face with his elbow. It was a trick blow and I've used it myself in the ring. Even if I should get into better condition and have more confidence in myself, I don't believe I'll even then try fighting."

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

"Jazz"—The best thing you can do for your boy (or girl) is to have him learn to play popular music. In this radio age it is only way to stimulate his interest in music and make a musician out of him. Try the Haight Supplemental System. Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano. Studio, 318 Liberty Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leever left Friday night for their home at San Francisco after a visit with relatives at Central Point and Ashland, following being called back by the death of Mrs. Leever's father, W. H. Swager.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Four auto licenses were issued at the sheriff's office yesterday to Charles Makela of Ashland, James Ray of Toledo, Ed. Robinson of Grants Pass and O. A. Tolleson of Medford.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

Last week upon the completion of the repair work upon the bridge along the Pacific high way between Central Point and Gold Hill, says the Gold Hill News.

Work under planning was placed under the overhead crowding near Tofo. Concrete was placed where the old wood supports had been formerly. There has been a crew of some six or eight men employed for several days upon the repair work.

Cherry trees, 25c; finest ever grown in state. J. C. Barnes Nursery, Phone 910-Y. 2001*

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Among the out of town visitors who were in Medford yesterday were Paul Martin of Elk Creek, Mrs. Mary Meyers of Table Rock, Ira Tilley of Siskiyou, Mayme Tucker of Willow Springs, Mrs. Viola Kerstow of Poots Creek, Mrs. Charlotte Hrdell of Dorby, W. M. Pott of Talent and Mrs. J. H. Trench of Ank Grove.

Extra good Sultzenberg apples, 50c per box at Pinnacle Packing Co.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

"I'm through fighting, I'm never going to put on another glove," said Neal (Kid) Wagner yesterday. "I've fought 18 fights and I won all of them but three and they were all lost right here in Medford. I lost the last one Friday at the armory when Frank Warnecky knocked me out in the first round by a chance blow on the face with his elbow. It was a trick blow and I've used it myself in the ring. Even if I should get into better condition and have more confidence in myself, I don't believe I'll even then try fighting."

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

"Jazz"—The best thing you can do for your boy (or girl) is to have him learn to play popular music. In this radio age it is only way to stimulate his interest in music and make a musician out of him. Try the Haight Supplemental System. Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano. Studio, 318 Liberty Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leever left Friday night for their home at San Francisco after a visit with relatives at Central Point and Ashland, following being called back by the death of Mrs. Leever's father, W. H. Swager.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

"I'm through fighting, I'm never going to put on another glove," said Neal (Kid) Wagner yesterday. "I've fought 18 fights and I won all of them but three and they were all lost right here in Medford. I lost the last one Friday at the armory when Frank Warnecky knocked me out in the first round by a chance blow on the face with his elbow. It was a trick blow and I've used it myself in the ring. Even if I should get into better condition and have more confidence in myself, I don't believe I'll even then try fighting."

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

"I'm through fighting, I'm never going to put on another glove," said Neal (Kid) Wagner yesterday. "I've fought 18 fights and I won all of them but three and they were all lost right here in Medford. I lost the last one Friday at the armory when Frank Warnecky knocked me out in the first round by a chance blow on the face with his elbow. It was a trick blow and I've used it myself in the ring. Even if I should get into better condition and have more confidence in myself, I don't believe I'll even then try fighting."

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

"Jazz"—The best thing you can do for your boy (or girl) is to have him learn to play popular music. In this radio age it is only way to stimulate his interest in music and make a musician out of him. Try the Haight Supplemental System. Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano. Studio, 318 Liberty Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leever left Friday night for their home at San Francisco after a visit with relatives at Central Point and Ashland, following being called back by the death of Mrs. Leever's father, W. H. Swager.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

"I'm through fighting, I'm never going to put on another glove," said Neal (Kid) Wagner yesterday. "I've fought 18 fights and I won all of them but three and they were all lost right here in Medford. I lost the last one Friday at the armory when Frank Warnecky knocked me out in the first round by a chance blow on the face with his elbow. It was a trick blow and I've used it myself in the ring. Even if I should get into better condition and have more confidence in myself, I don't believe I'll even then try fighting."

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

"Jazz"—The best thing you can do for your boy (or girl) is to have him learn to play popular music. In this radio age it is only way to stimulate his interest in music and make a musician out of him. Try the Haight Supplemental System. Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano. Studio, 318 Liberty Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leever left Friday night for their home at San Francisco after a visit with relatives at Central Point and Ashland, following being called back by the death of Mrs. Leever's father, W. H. Swager.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

"I'm through fighting, I'm never going to put on another glove," said Neal (Kid) Wagner yesterday. "I've fought 18 fights and I won all of them but three and they were all lost right here in Medford. I lost the last one Friday at the armory when Frank Warnecky knocked me out in the first round by a chance blow on the face with his elbow. It was a trick blow and I've used it myself in the ring. Even if I should get into better condition and have more confidence in myself, I don't believe I'll even then try fighting."

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

"Jazz"—The best thing you can do for your boy (or girl) is to have him learn to play popular music. In this radio age it is only way to stimulate his interest in music and make a musician out of him. Try the Haight Supplemental System. Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano. Studio, 318 Liberty Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leever left Friday night for their home at San Francisco after a visit with relatives at Central Point and Ashland, following being called back by the death of Mrs. Leever's father, W. H. Swager.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

"I'm through fighting, I'm never going to put on another glove," said Neal (Kid) Wagner yesterday. "I've fought 18 fights and I won all of them but three and they were all lost right here in Medford. I lost the last one Friday at the armory when Frank Warnecky knocked me out in the first round by a chance blow on the face with his elbow. It was a trick blow and I've used it myself in the ring. Even if I should get into better condition and have more confidence in myself, I don't believe I'll even then try fighting."

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

"Jazz"—The best thing you can do for your boy (or girl) is to have him learn to play popular music. In this radio age it is only way to stimulate his interest in music and make a musician out of him. Try the Haight Supplemental System. Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano. Studio, 318 Liberty Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leever left Friday night for their home at San Francisco after a visit with relatives at Central Point and Ashland, following being called back by the death of Mrs. Leever's father, W. H. Swager.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

"I'm through fighting, I'm never going to put on another glove," said Neal (Kid) Wagner yesterday. "I've fought 18 fights and I won all of them but three and they were all lost right here in Medford. I lost the last one Friday at the armory when Frank Warnecky knocked me out in the first round by a chance blow on the face with his elbow. It was a trick blow and I've used it myself in the ring. Even if I should get into better condition and have more confidence in myself, I don't believe I'll even then try fighting."

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

"Jazz"—The best thing you can do for your boy (or girl) is to have him learn to play popular music. In this radio age it is only way to stimulate his interest in music and make a musician out of him. Try the Haight Supplemental System. Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano. Studio, 318 Liberty Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leever left Friday night for their home at San Francisco after a visit with relatives at Central Point and Ashland, following being called back by the death of Mrs. Leever's father, W. H. Swager.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

"I'm through fighting, I'm never going to put on another glove," said Neal (Kid) Wagner yesterday. "I've fought 18 fights and I won all of them but three and they were all lost right here in Medford. I lost the last one Friday at the armory when Frank Warnecky knocked me out in the first round by a chance blow on the face with his elbow. It was a trick blow and I've used it myself in the ring. Even if I should get into better condition and have more confidence in myself, I don't believe I'll even then try fighting."

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

"Jazz"—The best thing you can do for your boy (or girl) is to have him learn to play popular music. In this radio age it is only way to stimulate his interest in music and make a musician out of him. Try the Haight Supplemental System. Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano. Studio, 318 Liberty Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leever left Friday night for their home at San Francisco after a visit with relatives at Central Point and Ashland, following being called back by the death of Mrs. Leever's father, W. H. Swager.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The war department at Washington last week announced that a commission as reserve officer had been accepted by Weldon Harold McBee of Medford, as secretary in the infantry.

Shall the people elect the Circuit Court Judge, or shall we listen to a few disgruntled lawyers?

J. R. Bristow of Lakeview, where he was engaged in business and former resident of this city, following a visit of several days to Ashland will go to Eagle Point to reside there this winter.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

The