

MORE WOMEN IN CONGRESS 71ST SESSION

Three Additions to Feminine Contingent — Mrs. Ruth McCormick, Mrs. Ruth Pratt, Mrs. Ruth Owen Successful Candidates.

(By the Associated Press.) When the arresting rap-rap of the gavel is heard in the house of representatives at the opening of the 71st congress, the higher pitched voices of women will sound more frequently than of old. There will be three additions to the feminine ranks of the house...

They are Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, daughter of Mark Hanna, herself a leader in Republican party affairs; Mrs. Ruth Pratt, first woman sent to congress from New York; and Mrs. Ruth Owen, daughter of William Jennings Bryan.

Mrs. McCormick, who will represent Illinois as a representative-at-large, is a stalwart Republican like her father. Mrs. Owen, who will have one of the Florida seats, as she might be expected, a Democrat by the teachings of the Commoner. Mrs. Pratt is a Republican who has had as her school of experience service on the board of aldermen in the Empire state's first city.

Mrs. Pratt's election was in a way the greatest achievement, because she ousted a Democrat to get her post, and she says of her election: "I did not run as a woman; I ran for the board of aldermen and for congress, not as a woman but as a citizen."

A member of this growing group is Mrs. Katherine Langley, who was re-elected in her district in Kentucky. She will take her place on the Republican side of the house of representatives.

Other Republican women who succeeded their husbands in the house, Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers of Massachusetts and Mrs. Florence P. Kahn of San Francisco, also were re-elected, as was Mrs. Mary T. Norton of New Jersey, a Democrat.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7. — (P) — Informed of the Republican landslide, while still clad in pajamas aboard the train which is carrying him to Washington, Vice-President-elect Charles Curtis exclaimed "that's great" as a smile beamed over his face.

"I am gratified with the returns," the senator said. "Mr. Hoover made a wonderful campaign. Personally I am grateful to the American people for the splendid endorsement given the Republican ticket."

Mr. Curtis was met at the station by his son, Harry Curtis, Chicago lawyer, and other friends with whom he chatted until time for his departure for Washington.

Statues Draped For Lost Cause By Virginia U

UNIVERSITY, Va., Nov. 7. — (P) — Three statues of Thomas Jefferson on the grounds of the University of Virginia were draped in mourning today. One of them bore a card reading: "To the memory of Jefferson Democracy and religious freedom—died November 6, 1924."

Students of the university, where the sentiment was overwhelmingly Democratic, shrouded the statues in black at an early hour today, when it was practically certain that Virginia had gone Republican for the first time since reconstruction days.

WALKS MEMORY LANE (Continued from Page One.) The school of aviation flew over him home, dropping 21 shell star bombs.

The president-elect was standing on the terrace of his home acknowledging the boisterous greetings of the Stanford students and the Palo Alto townspeople. The talk by the president-elect was made after a throng of college students, neighbors from Palo Alto and Sousa's band had staged a demonstration in front of his home.

HOOVER VICTORY IN NEW YORK IS INDICATED TODAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. — (P) — Herbert Hoover's margin of victory over Governor Alfred E. Smith in the contest for New York's 45 electoral votes was approximately 119,000.

With returns at hand from all except 182 of the election districts in the state, the actual Hoover plurality was 86,354. All the missing districts were in rural territory which is normally overwhelmingly Republican and it was expected that the Hoover majority would be increased by 25,000 when the unreported districts were heard from.

On the state ticket the Democrats fared better. Franklin D. Roosevelt had an actual plurality of 58,924 over Albert Ottinger, Republican, with all but 282 districts accounted for by Dr. Royal S. Copeland's plurality over Alanson B. Houghton, Republican, for the United States senate was 105,114.

HIGH RAIL POSTS GIVEN MEN ONCE IN LOWLY JOBS

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (P) — Three Algor-like heroes, who climbed different ladders to success, are involved in changes on the Union Pacific railroad system as the result of the retirement of E. E. Calvin, vice president of operations.

Calvin, a messenger boy on the Big Four at 14, is succeeded by W. M. Jeffers, who began on the Union Pacific as a call boy. Jeffers' place as general manager will be taken by N. A. Williams, who at 26 was a section hand on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy.

Williams has been general superintendent at Cheyenne. Calvin, 70 years old, is one of the western railroad pioneers. He served the Union Pacific as a telegraph operator at many frontier points, when herds of buffalo often interrupted traffic and the danger from excited Indians was to be reckoned with.

When Harriman, the railroad organizer, districted the Harriman lines in 1904, Calvin, who had been general superintendent at Salt Lake City, went to Portland as general manager of the road. Next he was at San Francisco as vice president of the Southern Pacific. Calvin directed railroad relief work after the earthquake and fire. When the Union Pacific was segregated in 1914 Calvin was assigned to the northern lines. In 1920 he became vice president of operations.

Jeffers' entire railroad career has been linked with the Union Pacific. Call boy, telegrapher, clerk, timekeeper, extra gang foreman, train dispatcher, chief dispatcher at North Platte, Neb., trainmaster at Green River, Wyo., and Denver, back to Green River as assistant superintendent, superintendent there in 1909, at Cheyenne and Omaha and finally general manager in 1926—these were the rungs of his ladder to the present distinction.

Williams tired of swinging a pick on a section gang and became a brakeman on the "Q". He jumped to the Denver and Rio Grande, became a conductor, assistant superintendent and superintendent at Salt Lake. He quit to run a mercantile business, but abandoned that for railroad in 1916. That year he entered the Union Pacific as trainmaster at Grand Island, Neb. By 1922 he was a Cheyenne superintendent, then general superintendent at Los Angeles. He came back to Cheyenne as general superintendent in 1925.

NEGRO ELECTED IN CHICAGO DISTRICT TO CONGRESS SEAT

CHICAGO, Nov. 7. — (P) — Oscar DePriest, negro real estate man and former Chicago alderman, was elected to congress from the first Illinois district, according to unofficial returns received today.

He will be the first of the race sent to Washington from Illinois and the first to occupy a seat in the national house of representatives in more than a quarter of a century. DePriest, who will fill the vacancy caused by the death of Representative Martin W. Madden, chairman of the house appropriations committee, represents a district extending from Chicago's business district to the 43rd block south, and including a large section of the city's negro population.

With three precincts missing out of 126, the vote was, DePriest, 23,141; Harry Baker, Democrat, who had been announced as the winner, 20,251.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7. — (P) — This city, where ballot boxes floating in the river are not unknown, where homicide, assault and kidnapping are considered the inevitable complement of election of public officials, cast its record-breaking vote in tranquility.

Contrasted to the lawlessness that prevailed in some wards on primary day last April, not a single shooting, slugging, or attack on polling places was recorded. Even Morris Miller's twentieth ward which in the past worked for and carried the title, "Bloody Twentieth," voted smoothly as any staid suburb.

LARGEST PLURALITY INDIANA FOR HOOVER

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 7. — (P) — Herbert Hoover, Republican, by the Indiana electorate. He obtained 238,358 more votes than received the largest plurality ever accorded a presidential candidate Governor Smith, Democrat, from 2902 of the state's 3608 precincts. The vote was: Hoover, 716,079; Smith, 477,721.

CLUB GROUP TO ASK APPOINTMENT PORTLAND WOMAN

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7. — (P) A large group of club women and prominent social workers will petition Governor Patterson for the appointment of Mary Jane Spurlin as judge of the court of domestic relations in the event of the recall of Richard Delch, the incumbent.

When the recall of Judge Delch seemed assured by the count of votes completed at noon today, workers in behalf of Miss Spurlin at once gave out the announcement, declaring that they wished to be the first to reach Governor Patterson with petitions for Miss Spurlin's appointment.

Mrs. S. M. Blumauer is one of the leaders of the movement. Others are Mrs. Elliott Cornea, Mrs. George Gendler, Mrs. C. V. Ross, Miss Rose Baxter, Mrs. Frederick Strong, Miss Emma De Brulle, Mrs. Chas. Carver, Jr., Mrs. Rhoda B. Hayes, Miss Eleanor Thompson, Mrs. George Perkins, and Mrs. Williamette McElroy. For a short time Miss Spurlin served as a judge of one of the district courts by appointment of Governor Pierce.

Miss Spurlin's candidacy will be emphasized to Governor Patterson through letters, petitions and personal calls, said Mrs. Blumauer.

Shows Style

Now that so many girls are allowing their hair to grow again, this style of "bob" is to be seen in increasing numbers, on Fifth Avenue daily! The lovely New York girl, illustrating the new style, is Myrtle Miller, of 335 West 80th Street. She says, "I am certainly delighted that my hair has gotten so much fuller and more vigorous. And I am not troubled with dandruff any more. At the time I started letting my hair grow, I began caring for it, the way which is all the rage among New York girls, now; and I attribute its improvement to this method. All I do is put a little Dandrine on my brush each time I dress my hair. It makes my hair easy to arrange and holds it in place. It soothes my scalp and keeps it and my hair so clean. I don't need to shampoo more than twice a month, now. All my friends admire the way Dandrine makes my hair look so bright and sparkling." Dandrine does more than bring out the natural color, the gleam and lustre of your hair, than shampoos of brilliantine. It removes all that grimy and oily film from the hair-roots and refreshes the scalp, gets rid of dandruff. All drug stores have the big 3oz. bottles. A delicately fragrant necessity for the well-groomed.
