

Local and Personal

All business will be closed for the day tomorrow because of it being a national holiday, Armistice day, except the hotels, restaurants, cigar stores and the like. Besides the closing of the stores, banks, general offices, the city hall, courthouse and federal building offices will not be functioning. The postoffice will function only in the morning when the windows will be open from 8 to 11 a. m., and only one delivery will be made during the day, and that earlier than usual in the morning.

The woman's Auxiliary of the First Baptist church will meet in an important business session at the home of Mrs. Wm. Davis, corner of Eleventh and South Central on Tuesday, November 13th.

Your piano will be accepted at full value in exchange on a radio set at the Palmer Music House.

Mrs. Charles Sweeney, Miss Gertrude Weeks, Mrs. C. N. Culy, Mrs. Della Scheffel, Mrs. Charles Gilbert and Mrs. Gwen Woodcock were among the daughters of the Nile lodge who motored to Grants Pass yesterday to attend a session.

Extra good Spitzenberg apples, five per box at Pinnacle Packing Co.

Poems set to music. Mastercraft Song Publishers, Seattle.

T. Slater Johnson, Dave Wood, Raymond Heter are among the local ranch contingent now approaching New York City via Chicago. Mrs. Johnson will stop en route at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Kidnie dresses of character, snappy styles in wool jersey and wash prints; sizes 1 to 6 years; reasonably priced. Handicraft Shop.

John S. Orth, in the banking business at Medford, is in the city from Rogue River valley — The Oregonian.

Kidnie dresses of character, snappy styles in wool jersey and wash prints; sizes 1 to 6 years; reasonably priced. Handicraft Shop.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Bussard and children left the last of the week for their future home in Seattle, where it is understood that Mr. Bussard, who until recently was the pastor of the Lutheran church here, contemplated engaging in some business pursuit. The family lived on Rose avenue while residing in Medford.

Rev. Dr. G. C. Funk of Glendale, Calif., the new pastor of the Lutheran church, left vacant by the resignation of Rev. Mr. Bussard, will begin his new duties December 1. Until then, Dr. G. H. Hillerman, who has been holding the pastorate temporarily, will continue doing so.

Coal by the sack or ton. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Reduction sale now going on at the Band Box Hat Shop, 223 East 6th St., 29 extra green trading stamps during this sale.

John Conlon has sold his home on the Oak Grove road, consisting of one acre and 4-room house, to Andrew Water. Mr. Water will make it his home. Cash Wood has sold his home and four lots on Albany, Ore. Mr. Jordan is a new arrival and will make it his home.

The dolls were closed this week through the office of French & Atwood, 16 North Fir St.

Extra good Baldwin apples, 50c per box. Pinnacle Packing Co.

"Wonders of Wealth." Watch for their appearance at 123 W. Main St.

C. T. Baker, secretary of the chamber of commerce was expected home last night or today from Corvallis where he attended a meeting of the Oregon secretaries of commerce association.

Your piano will be accepted at full value in exchange on a radio set at the Palmer Music House.

W. A. Bond of Portland has accepted the position as night clerk at the Ashland hotel and is leaving for that city this week for him home in Dunsmuir.

To Curry and Jackson counties goes the honor of being first under the wire this year with the payment of the states' share of the last half of the 1927 taxes. Remittances were received from both of these counties last Monday morning by State Treasurer Kay at Salem. Curry county's check was for $10,237.22 and that from Jackson county for $73,789.04.

If you like good old-fashioned boiled dinner and southern cornbread, come to Christian church Monday, Nov. 12, from 12 to 2 p. m. Price 35c.

That good coal—low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239.

The United States army is now enlisting men in all branches of the army, according to Sergeant Greaver Owen of the Medford recruiting office.

"Apples." Golden Crest Apples. Mother Eve could be excused for her inquisitiveness. Visible wealth, and unfold riches under their skins, ready to be developed. Be one of the clever women to help this development, and win some of the gold; enter your names. Details over KAFED. Tune in.

C. B. Rogers representative of the Standard Oil company, spent a day or so last week in Roseburg, from Medford, looking after business matters there.

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Hemstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making. Handicraft Shop. Phone 792.

White the Medford and Ashland high teams are playing football here tomorrow. Grants Pass high will be playing Roseburg high at Grants Pass, and Klamath Falls Union high will be playing Bend high in Klamath Falls.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Good Baldwin apples for sale at Pinnacle Packing Co.

Heston Greaves thinking that his father, James E., and his valued, Dewey Hill, needed a brief vacation and change of scene, braced them down from Prospect to enjoy the boxing bouts at the armory last Friday evening.

Heston declared himself as generally pleased at the results of the election last Tuesday, and feels sure that the next congressional session will pass some farm relief.

We double fork our coal—no dust. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239.

Chicken dinner and supper at Amy's Place, Jacksonville.

The regularly scheduled meeting of the Kiwanis club will not be held tomorrow, because of that day being Armistice day.

Coal by the sack or ton. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. C. Chandler Egan who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rublee in Mexico City, are expected to return to Medford in two weeks.

How Chas. H. Howard for 19-passenger bus load for the football game, The Dalles and Medford, Phone Summit Ranch, Ashland.

A twenty years ago item of news interest to the fruitgrowers in the valley is the following, republished by the Ashland Tidings of last Friday: "P. H. Hopkins, the Central Point orchardist, has received returns from a carload of Wirtler Nellis pears which he shipped to New York City. There are 482 full boxes of the fruit and 66 half boxes. For the full boxes he received $2.35 per box and for the half boxes $2.37."

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Hose mending, runners removed and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop.

The vestrymen of St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal church held a meeting last Wednesday night to arrange the budget for the coming year.

The work on handmade gifts for holiday giving must begin in earnest now. Make your selections early from our complete stock of stamped novelties. Handicraft Shop.

Harry Hutton, manager of the Hotel Medford, will be away from the city until about Christmas, in charge of the Eugene hotel at Eugene, of which he is part owner, because of the absence of F. A. Clark, his partner, who is enjoying a cruise of several weeks to Honolulu.

"Wonders of Wealth." Watch for their appearance at 123 W. Main St.

Good Baldwin apples for sale at Pinnacle Packing Co.

The Grants Pass Irrigation District will hold its annual election next Tuesday, November 13, with only one candidate to be voted on. The polling place will be at the Josephine county fair grounds.

The work on handmade gifts for holiday giving must begin in earnest now. Make your selections early from our complete stock of stamped novelties. Handicraft Shop.

By means of motor buses, 600 children living in a territory of 245 square miles around Fallon, Nev., are brought daily from all parts of the largest consolidated school district in the United States to a modern well-equipped school of city standing located at Fallon.

Highest grade Utah coal, any size, anywhere, any amount. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239.

The Nash hotel barber shop was purchased last week from Ira Davis by Carl Bowman and Hugo Bailey, who after having the interior remodeled and refurnished will open for business next Tuesday morning. It will be the second time that Carl has been an owner of the shop, for years ago he and Clarence Noe owned and operated it. Carl has spent the past year or two in operating a barber shop at Prospect and in running down rattlesnakes, which he is very fond in the Rogue River territory between Rogue and Prospect.

Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville, Ore., C. L. Goff, Agt., 419 1/2 Main St. Tel. 922.

Sergeant G. C. Owen, U. S. army recruiting officer of Medford, was an overnight visitor in Roseburg last Wednesday.

Included among the recent petitions in voluntary bankruptcy filed in the United States court at Portland was one by Jay J. Arant, farmer, of Jacksonville, who gave his liabilities as $25,122.50, and assets as none.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Salade of Geneva, Ga., plan to leave by motor tomorrow for San Diego, California, where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Daw of Medford are now residents of Klamath Falls. They plan to make Klamath county their future home.—Klamath Falls Herald.

Hose mending, runners removed, and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop.

"Wonders of Wealth." Watch for their appearance at 123 W. Main St.

Robert Cook, employee of the Mail Tribune printing company will leave tomorrow for Charles City, Iowa, for an extended visit and business trip, preparatory to entering a linotypist's school in the east. Bob's place at the Mail Tribune will be filled by Everett Egan of Medford.

Hemstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making. Handicraft Shop. Phone 792.

Mrs. Mary Cippade, Mrs. William Hurst and her daughter, Josephine Hurst were among the Eagle Point residents who shopped and visited in Medford yesterday morning.

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co.

Chicken dinner and supper at Amy's Place, Jacksonville.

Income of the Oregon state game commission during the past fiscal year, which ended September 30, was the largest in the history of the commission, according to a summary made public recently by Harold Clifford, state game warden. The total income was $407,285.11, an increase of nearly $50,000 over the last fiscal year, when the income totaled $357,119.12.

Good clean Jonathan apples, 50 and 75¢ a box. Woods Lumber Co. 711 E. Main St.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McCaskey of the Old Stage road, will spend the winter this year at the Coronado Beach hotel in Coronado, California.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631.

County Agent H. G. Fowler is expected home today or tomorrow from having spent the week at the Pacific International Livestock exposition at Portland. The boys' and girls' club members returned from the exposition last Thursday.

Today ONLY RIALTO CONTINUOUS 12:30 TO 11 P.M.

Now! THE MASTER OF ALL DOG STARS IN A THRILLING, GRIPPING TALE OF THE FROZEN NORTH LAND.

RIN-TIN-TIN IN "Land of the Silver Fox"

Always the Best in Comedies and Latest News Events

Admission Matinees 10 and 25 Evenings 10 and 35

TOMORROW THE BIG ARMISTICE DAY LAUGH SPECIAL

SAMMY COHEN IN "PLASTERED IN PARIS" Continuous Shows Monday NOTE: All service men are invited to attend the Matinee Monday as guests of this theatre.

PHONE 51 Gold Seal MILK BUTTER ICE CREAM PASTURIZED - SAFE - PURE PRODUCED - PACKED - THE SANITARY WAY

TOMORROW ONE DAY ONLY Richard DIX IN "MORAN of the MARINES" The Big Armistice Day Laugh Special With Vitaphone Acts and Movie-tone News

Today Continuous Shows From 1:30 to 11 P. M. FANCHON AND MARCO'S Beautiful Presentation "UP IN THE AIR" IDEA With WALTER NILSSON ROBT. STICKNEY DORIS WHITMORE THE BROOKS TRIO 18 STILT GIRLS Fanchon and Marco's Most Beautiful Chorus Also Feature Picture MARY ASTOR in "DRY MARTINI" A Tinging Sparkling Comedy Admission Children 25 Adults 50

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

YOU'LL FIND THE FINEST in quality jewelry—the best that may be found in large city stores—right here in Medford—and right here at Lawrence's. Such well known watches as—

Hamilton, Illinois, Elgin, Waltham as well as the best of Swiss makes are carried in our stock.

Elegant Fancy Rings, Dinner Rings, Necklaces, Bracelets and Brooches

GORHAM SILVER and other makes of high-grade silverware—a large selection of Hollow and Flatware in both Sterling and Plate, as well as beautiful new DIRIGOLD Tableware and Hollowware.

DIAMONDS OF QUALITY and Engagement and Wedding Rings.

LAWRENCE, The Jeweler Main and Fir Streets Established 1909 Watches, Jewelry and Silver of Quality

CROSLEY Elected by the Majority $69 Without Tubes

First time in Chicago! First time in radio history!

Dynamic Power DYNACONE $27

A genuine AC electric 6 tube radio receiver THE CROSLEY GEMBOX

Completely balanced and neutralized accumulator for weak and distant stations; illuminated dial; copper-shielded coils; loud for dancing through volume control.

Hear the College Football Games and Fights Have You Seen the New Symphonic Series Amrad Cabinet Model

The Music Box 402 East Main Phone 433

CROSLEY

Celebrate Armistice Day in Medford. Parade, program, stunts, football game, dance, etc.

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Fluher's HOME OF LONG LEAF