

FORWARD PASSES ONLY HOPE FOR ASHLAND ELEVEN

Their only hope of victory lying in an upset through a forward pass game, the Ashland high school football team, traditional foes of Medford high school, are playing this afternoon at Van Scoyoc field in the annual Armistice day contest. The rivalry between the two elevens is as strong as ever.

The starting lineup of the Medford team will probably be: P. Hughes, center; J. Hughes and Sprague or Green, guards; Morgan and Stoehr, tackles; Howman and McDonald, ends; quarterback, Melvin; fullback, Harrell and Anderson; fullback, Cookie.

With the mythical state title game a week away, Coach Callison will play under wraps and use the second and third strings, when victory seems assured. The locals are picked to win, with Ashland hoping for a dry field. The prospects were for rain.

The Ashland lineup was not announced except that Sonny Leonard and Hitchcock would start at the halfback positions. It is Leonard's last year in high school. He is one of the flashiest high school players in the state.

Spike Leslie, freshman coach at the University of Oregon, will referee. The game will start at 2 o'clock. The high school bands of both the schools and the usual excitement between halves were features of the contest.

FOUR MEN TRYING FOR CHAMPIONSHIP LOCAL GOLF LINKS

Four men only are now left in the annual club championship tournament at the Medford golf club.—Syd Smith, Don Clark, C. G. Thomson and Lyle Wilcox. This week Clark will play Thomson, and Wilcox will play Smith, the winners to meet for the title probably next Saturday or Sunday. Smith is the favorite to win, as he is now playing steady par golf, and has had sufficient experience to be on his game in sharp competition.

If he does win, however, it will not be a walkaway. Clark, Wilcox and Thomson are all breaking 80, and anyone of them is apt to come home with the bacon. Jack Houston, Medford golf pro, and S. A. Rogers, caretaker at the local golf club, left yesterday for Portland, where the former will enter the professional open tournament as representative of Medford, and the latter will inspect Portland golf courses with a view to learning the latest methods of keeping courses in championship shape.

PORTLAND'S MARKETS CLOSED FOR HOLIDAY

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Portland's wholesale markets were closed today in observance of the Armistice day holiday. With the exception of a few commission houses handling live poultry, etc., which were open for an hour or so this morning, there was no activity along the street. No dairy exchange session was slated for this afternoon. Quotations established at Friday's meeting held until this afternoon.

Policeman Shoots Thug. PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 12.—(AP)—When Jefferson Ave. 65, retired policeman was held up late last night by a youth who ordered him to "stick 'em up," Ogg managed to draw his revolver and shot the man below the heart. At the hospital the wounded man gave his name as Harry Edwards, 18.

Armistice Day

By Major General Charles P. Sumnerall, Chief of Staff. As we look back to 1918 we find that time has dulled the memory of many details. Our concern for ammunition, for rations, for relief, or for support is less vivid. We recall less clearly the hardships, the discomforts and restrictions. What do stand out, however, are the patriotism, the valor, the fortitude, and the spirit of sacrifice which characterized our citizens and our soldiers. When we entered the war science and human ingenuity were engaged in the age-old race of producing weapons of offense and effective measures to neutralize them. Our countrymen, despite shortages in new weapons and lack of experience in new methods, rose to the emergency through a fever which counter-balanced handicaps. The characteristic of individual initiative again proved the measure of the strength of our nation. Today as we review our experiences we see that though weapons and methods had changed, the one thing which remained as it was in Joshua's day and in Hannibal's day was the human element—the element which in the final test of physical encounter spelled victory or defeat. So in our celebration of victory, let us pay respect to those all-important attributes which are the enduring qualities of our national strength:—loyalty, patriotism, courage, and unselfishness—the indispensable characteristics in our citizens which brought victory to our cause 10 years ago.

Football Races At a Glance

By the Associated Press

East.—Carnegie, victor over Georgetown, leads the unbeaten list closely followed by Boston college, the only other eastern team neither beaten nor tied. Boston college plays Fordham today in an effort to remain in the running. Army was defeated for the first time by Notre Dame, while Yale bowed to Maryland in Saturday's big upset. Missouri Valley "Big Six"—Nebraska, scoring her fourth straight conference victory over Oklahoma, dominates this group. Southern Conference.—Georgia Tech, Florida and Tennessee, each with four victories in as many conference games and spottier states altogether, head the parade as a result of conquests over Vanderbilt, Georgia and Sewanee, respectively. Virginia Poly and Louisiana State also have been unbeaten in the conference race. Southwestern Conference.—The Southern Methodist, despite a tie with Texas A&M, clings to the lead in a close race, followed by Arkansas and University of Texas. S. M. U. plays Baylor and Texas meets Christian in main tilts this week. Rocky Mountain Conference.—University of Utah, tied by Creighton in conference games, holds an undisputed lead, with Colorado university and Colorado college, opponents in major events this week, next in the standing. Pacific Coast Conference.—California, by beating Washington, continues to share the lead with Southern California.

MRS. WILLEBRANDT WAS JOAN OF ARC IN THE CAMPAIGN

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—(AP)—The Rev. Dr. John Roush Stanton, who waged a nationwide campaign against the presidential candidacy of Governor Smith, in judicial services at the Calvary Baptist church yesterday, called Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt the "Joan of Arc" of the campaign. "Victory was won by the preacher and the God-honoring women of America," he said. "I pay tribute to one of these Joan of Arcs of the campaign—Mabel Walker Willebrandt. I declare the feeling in my own heart when I say there has not been a finer piece of public service performed by anyone in modern times than that put across by Mrs. Willebrandt." He said the next duty of the people was to destroy the Tammany Tiger and oust the "flapper mayor" from city hall. He lauded Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., as a worthy candidate, to succeed Mayor Walker. Stinson Satisfied. WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Governor General Henry H. Stimson of the Philippines has telegraphed secretary Davis of the war department that he is "well satisfied" with the work of the Philippine legislature which adjourned November 8.

SPEAKER SIGNED AS MANAGER FOR NEWARK TEAM

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Walter Johnson's post as manager of the Newark Internationals is to be filled by another famous American leaguer—Tris Speaker. He has signed a two-year contract.

TRIS SPEAKER

Tris piloted the Cleveland Americans to the world championship in 1926. He first rose to fame with the Boston Red Sox, playing in the outfield with Harry Hooper and Duffy Lewis. Later he was in Cleveland 11 years as player and manager. He spent the 1927 campaign with the Washington Senators and last year with the Philadelphia Athletics. Independents Lose. MARSHFIELD, Ore., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Columbia university of Portland withdrew the Coos Bay independent football team here Sunday, 12 to 0. The independents failed to make a first down. Peta Murphy, Columbia left half, galloped through the line for 168 yards, carrying the ball 28 times. Malheur. "Enterprise," local newspaper, published huge deelopment edition recently boosting the entire county.

GUNMEN CRIPPLE FOOTBALL PLAYER AFTER CAR CRASH

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Gunmen's bullets, hot-headed answer to a minor automobile accident, had left John Acher, Northwestern university football player, paralyzed and near death today. In gangland police sought an explanation of the quick trigger tactics which ended a private celebration of Northwestern's 7-6 victory over Purdue. From a hospital bed, where he lay crippled for life—if he lives—young Acher told his story. He had played fullback in the final quarter of the Purdue game, and had gone to a hotel party to celebrate. With his 16-year-old brother, Chester, a student in the Missouri military academy, he had borrowed a car. They visited several night clubs and were returning home when their car scraped fenders with a passing sedan. A moment later the larger car overtook them. One of its occupants, waving a revolver, stood on the running board and ordered Acher to leave his car. Acher alumped to the ground as two bullets struck him, one severing his spinal cord. The sedan sped away through the loop and eluded police who gave chase. Commissioner of Police Steg and the shooting was "undoubtedly the work of gangsters."
