PRICES UNCHANGED COMMISSION ROW PORTLAND TODAY

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 13.—(AP) Healthy conditions prevailed today along commission row, with prices generally unchanged. The holiday following Sunday and Saturday's short session caused a good demand for most lines of fruit, vegetables, dairy and poultry.

Butter and eggs were selling at quotations ruling last Friday, as there were no sessions of the Dairy Exchange on Saturday or Monday.

There was an extreme shortage of poultry. Easier tone ruled in the turkey market today. It was still a little early for the annual Thanksgiving trade.

Country dressed meats were moving readily at prices steady with last week's level. Fruits and vegetables were quotably unchanged.

Rise in the price of sugar was reported on the local market this morning. Cane sugar had gone up from $5.55 to $5.65 a cwt. Beet sugar also rose from $5.45 to $5.55 a cwt.

DISCOVER BODY OF MISSING ENGINEER

REEDSPORT, Ore., Nov. 13.—(AP) The body of August C. Palmer, Southern Pacific engineer, of San Francisco, missing here since Sept. 13, was found on a hillside near the railroad tracks two and one-half miles north of here yesterday by a section foreman.

Officials believe Palmer, who was on a vacation here visiting his brother-in-law, George Richmond, went to the hillside to sun himself on the day he disappeared and that he was overcome by a heart attack.

Washington county farmers recently used five carloads of lime on land.

HOOVER'S VICTORY BOOSTS DRY HOPE IN GREAT BRITAIN

LONDON, Nov. 13.—(AP)—The Daily Express said today that the victory of Herbert Hoover had served as an incentive to prohibition advocates in England to prepare for an energetic campaign against alcohol in connection with the general election next year.

Prohibitionists were quoted as saying that Mr. Hoover's majority had given every temperance and prohibition organization in Great Britain new hope and that it would certainly stimulate the cause of temperance throughout the world.

The paper said temperance organizations would put forward prohibition candidates in forty constituencies and would pledge their votes to any candidate elsewhere supporting such measures as local option. The hope was not entertained of making England dry at once, but the proposal was to move toward that goal in such stages as the establishment of local option and the tightening of existing laws regarding limitation of saloon hours and the sale of intoxicants in clubs.

William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, American prohibition crusader, will be in England in the spring and will help in the temperance drive. The hope is entertained of obtaining money from the United States to aid the campaign.

Vaudeville

A feature bill with a generous portion of the many varieties of entertainment of vaudeville comes to Hunt's Craterian tomorrow.

The Ruby Girls, present an act that embodies a series of contrasts artistically blended into a novel offering of song and dance. One of the girls is a talented pianist and singer and renders several pretty vocal numbers.

Carl Armstrong and Charlotte Earle have a comedy offering in which they depict two characters who have embarked on the sea of matrimony and encounter some rough sailing. Carl portrays the play-boy type of husband and his comely partner enacts the unsophisticated, trusting wife.

The Spanish Trio, who hail from the sunny land suggested by their title, are accomplished musicians on various instruments. Angelo Gizanti is a dramatic tenor, Paolino a marvelous piano accordionist and Mlle. Mesa's talent adds materially to the class of the act.

Frank (Peg) Jones will surprise with his acrobatic dancing and the number of steps he executes for he has the handicap of one leg, hence his nickname. He also delivers a funny monologue that is richly filled with bright and snappy witticisms.

The Lush Brothers have one of the best trampoline acts in vaudeville. Perfectly amazing and breath taking aerial feats are performed, most of which have a strain of comedy.
