directors of the Medford Cham- wind, continued to prevail at Craher of Commerce late yesterday ter national purk late yesterday afternoon encouraging efforts to afternoon, induced Robert Bock, prevent an increase in freight only ranger on duty at the park, rates by the Southern Pacific and his wife to leave the park for shipping of freight from this city to out-of-state points, and also incoming relight.

One resolution was adopted to instruct Secretary C. T. Baker to obtain information from the Ovegon Public Service commission, the Interstate Commerce commission and the railroad Itself in arder to determine the benefits. If any, which would be derived locally from the proposed long hauf decrease. The decrease is proposed by the railroad to compete with steamships in the halfing of freight from port to port. However, while the long hauf rates may be lower, the railroad has been granted a temporary order, expiring November 30, giving the company permission to charge double rates above the port to port rates on short haus, which would cause an increase in local freight rates.

A hearing on the proposed long hauf decrease, while the local commission to charge double rates above the port to port rates on short haus, which would cause an increase in local freight rates.

A hearing on the proposed long hauf decrease will be held November 30 in San Francisco, and it is possible that the local chamber may be represented. A committee of five was appointed by President John C. Main to determine whether a representative will be sent.
