PROF. KNOX PLANS BUSINESS CONTACT FOR HI STUDENTS

An apprenticeship system is being developed in the commercial department of the high school by L. J. Knox, instructor, in which students may work part time and attend classes part time.

Seniors, who will soon be out in the business world, are given the first opportunity for placement. Stenography, bookkeeping, clerical work and salesmanship, are included in the training of these students.

Mr. Knox stated this morning that he is desirous of talking the plan over with local business men interested, and that their interviews would incur no obligations whatsoever.

GERMANI APPEARS IN CONCERT HERE SATURDAY EVENING

Previous to his American debut in 1928, Fernando Germani, the young Italian organist, 21 years old, had already won an enviable reputation in his native land.

The Messaggio of Roma reported that "he gave a truly wonderful performance; he exhibited the possession of an exceptional technique, an interpretative gift of most exquisite taste, revealing the style and beauty of each phrase."

In recognition of Germani's growing fame as an organ virtuoso, the great Italian composer Respighi, wrote a special suite for organ and orchestra for him which Germani will play on his forthcoming American tour.
