Coming Attractions

"The Terror," Monday
The second all-talking motion picture will be seen at Hunt's Craterian tomorrow, when "The Terror," a Vitaphone special, begins a run of six days.

Even the title of the picture is announced by Vitaphone. Every line in "The Terror" is spoken. Through the picture the audience hears all sounds which naturally occur during the progress of this ghostly industry drama—wailing winds, spots in the dark, weird playing of an organ, blood-curdling cries for help, and moaning laughter.

The all-star cast includes May McAvoy, Louise Fazenda, Edward Everett Horton, Alex. B. Francis, Holmes Hooten, John Miljan, Matthew Betz, Joseph Girard, Otto Hoffman and Frank Austin.

At Rialto
"The Strange Case of Captain Hargrave" will be at the Rialto theatre tomorrow. It shows one of the most unusual themes ever portrayed on the screen—the revelation of a man to a primitive head.

The principal role is assumed by Paul Wegener, who will be remembered for his remarkable portrayal in "The Golden." The only feminine part is played by Mary Johnson. Max Reichmann directs the picture.

Announcement.
Resurrection Beauty Shoppes, 12 So. Central, has been enlarged and remodelled, giving better ventilation and greatly increased space in all departments. Experienced operators will give expert work in all lines of beauty culture, including Neutro's Cleve-line permanent waves. Mr. Schermerhorn, former proprietor, will assist Mr. Leffover in ladies' and children's hair cutting. Phone 562.

POWER CONCERN LABORATORY FOR B. P. O. E. MEMBERS

POWER CONCERN LABORATORY FOR B. P. O. E. MEMBERS LONG FOR TURKEYS GROUP TO APPEAR IN 'DOVER ROAD'

H. O. Purucker, has opened a Radio Service Laboratory at 22 South Grape street. Mr. Purucker (formerly lived in Medford and was employed by the California Oregon Power Co.

After the Armistice was signed Mr. Purucker engaged in the radio and electrical business in Tulsa, Oklahoma, where he has been until a few months ago when he returned to Medford and has been with the radio department of the Medford Electric Co.

Believing there is an opening for a radio service laboratory, Mr. Purucker has engaged in the business for himself and is prepared to handle all the bills that radio and their accessories are subjected to.

Mr. Purucker says: "Since accurate repairs to radio require a large and varied assortment of the precise kind of delicate measuring and indicating instruments, few dealers feel warranted in investing the necessary capital. Many of the larger cities have a scientific laboratory whose repairs can be made according to factory standards.

Any make of radio tube will be tested free of charge. Day and night service will be rendered by Mr. Purucker.

FANCHON AND MARCO AT HUNT'S CRATERIAN

Three headliners, and seven specialty acts mark the Fanchon and Marco stage production at Hunt's Craterian today.

This beautiful and elaborate stage show is called "The River" and is based upon the various songs of the rivers.

Topping the show are Rick and Snyder, "Harmony Kings" with a program of popular music.

Helen Warner, the big girl with the deep voice, offers a number of southern melodies. Alexander Akimof, celebrated Russian baritone is another of the headliners who is well known for his work in the Russian opera.

Of the seven specialty acts, six are dance teams. "Jollyhearts" Johnson does the alligator crawl. Al and Louise are soft show dancers. Blair and Thornton, do the Varsity Drag. Reva Howell and Johnny Jones do clever footwork. Daniels and Daniels offer the newest in adagio work while Phillips and McBeth do tap and comedy dancing. Cherie O'Day with stammy Cantor do eccentric dancing. This galaxy of exceptional performers offer all that is new in the dance line.

LARRY SCHADE OPENS CONTEST

Larry Schade, well known Medford jeweler, is initiating a Christmas contest which promises to stimulate considerable interest in Medford and the Rogue river valley.

According to the rules of the contest, 100 votes will be given with each dollar purchase or fraction thereof, and votes must be deposited in the ballot at Larry Schade's store before the evening of December 15th. Repair work will also merit votes in the Christmas contest, according to Mr. Schade.

Contestants who file their names in Larry Schade's contest will be entitled to 10,000 votes and prominent Medford citizens will act as judges when the final count is made on December 15th.

FREEDOM OF PRESS AT RIALTO TODAY

"Freedom of the Press" comes to the Rialto theater today.

Lewis Stone is the star. He gives a powerful picture of an underworld leader who is a respected member of society, giving parties for his ward and donating large sums to charity, while at the same time being the boss of the crooked political world, intent on a land grab of a big city park.

Marceline Day is appealing as his ward and the other half of the love interest is supplied with feeling by Malcolm McGregor, son of the newspaper editor who has set himself against the boss. The editor is played by Henry B. Walthall a role reminiscent of that played in real life by Donnell, the slain editor of Canton, Ohio.

COPCO FILMS PRAISED BY BYLLESBY ORGAN

The latest issue of "Byllesby Management," official monthly magazine of the H. M. Byllesby company, contains an item of interest about H. L. Bromley, local camera man and his now celebrated "Copeco movies."

"H. L. Bromley, advertising manager of the California Oregon Power company, has been taking aerial movies of Medford, Ore., and the Rogue River valley. His last trip was with Martin Jensen, the famous trans-Pacific flyer, in his plane, the "Aloha." Mr. Bromley has a most interesting moving picture record of the Medford airport from the time the first air mail survey plane arrived there many months ago up to and including the National Air Tour on July 16. In this film are included pictures of all the famous pilots who have visited the local port including Colonel Lindbergh, Lieutenant Novelle, Eddie Stinson, George Haldeman and others."

Mail Tribune ads are read by 20,000 people every day.

LITTLE THEATRE GROUP TO APPEAR IN 'DOVER ROAD'

LITTLE THEATRE GROUP TO APPEAR IN 'DOVER ROAD'

"The Dover Road" clever English comedy by Alexander Mills, is the vehicle through which the Studio Players, little theater group composed of a list of well known actors, most of whom have had professional experience, will make its bow to Medford audiences, December 19 and 21 at the Playhouse theater.

It is the plan of the Studio players to produce a play every month or six weeks, providing the first production meets success, and to work up a repertory company that will bring Medford a series of good plays and stimulate interest in drama locally.
