

HEARTENING WORD SENT TO CALLISON AND FOOTBALLERS

A telegram of good cheer and encouragement, signed by over 30 local residents was sent early this afternoon to Prince Callison and the Medford football team at The Dalles, where they played this afternoon. The wire, based on the wording to Lincoln's Gettysburg speech, was written by Don Collier, manager of the local Western Union office. It was as follows: "November 19, 1928. Six years and seven days ago our school fathers brought forth to this country a new coach conceived in victory and dedicated to the proposition that all coaches are not created equal in ability. Now we are engaged in a great state championship war, testing whether our team of this year or any other year can endure the racking of hostile foot. We are now upon the final battlefield of the 1928 war. You have gone to The Dalles to dedicate a football field upon which your opponent has beaten all other teams they ever and last year, beat you on the sporting pages of the Oregonian. Your admirers will note and always remember what they squawked about last year and can never forgive them. It is for you and your team to finish in a physical way what the jawbone artists of the Rogue River valley have been doing since this Dalles game was signed up, and we therefore highly resolve that our team under Callison shall have another victory and that a football team of Jackson county, by Jackson county and for Jackson county, shall forever destroy the windy thoughts and theories of Murray, Kistland and the sporting editor of The Dalles paper who gave you, through the courtesy of last year's Oregonian, the only beating you ever took. The signers of the telegram were as follows: American Legion, Jack Wood, Ernest Rostel, A. D. Collier, A. Hagen, Herb Gray, B. T. DeLoach, P. J. Patton, Phil Lounsbury, Jim Murray, Ken Murray, R. W. Lee, M. Eden, J. R. Walker, Jack Thompson, Farmers and Fruitgrowers' bank, Hanson Coal company, Eads Transfer and Storage, V. H. Vawter, Dot Baker, Duke Wellington, C. N. Cully, William Bolger, Ralph Stewart, Elmer Knips, Jarmin & Woods Drug store, Jarmin & Woods tinsmith, Roy Elliott, Heath's Drug taster and Brophy's.

UNCLE SAM PAYS HALF DOLLAR PER CAPITA FOR ROADS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 18. Uncle Sam's share in building the federal-aid highway system has been approximately fifty cents per year for every man, woman and child in the country. This statement was issued by national headquarters of the American Automobile Association based on the government's expenditure of $613,992,977 for completed highways since the program started in 1918 and a population of 129,000,000. The national motoring body says that this forms one of the most convincing arguments yet advanced for a continuation of this program which has done more than anything else to bring national prosperity. "This means that since the program was started in 1918," the A. A. A. statement points out, "the government has aided highway building with an amount less than the car owners spend for tires in one year." Car owners spent $225,000,000 in 1927 for tires and replacements. There have been a total of 73,119 miles of federal-aid roads completed, as of September 30, 1928 and 10,515 miles are under construction, with 2,134 miles approved for the fiscal year under construction is estimated at $274,485,685, of which the federal government will pay $108,784,745. The national motoring body says the federal-aid policy is now firmly entrenched in the government's program, with members of Congress quick to ignore any attacks on this beneficial legislation. "It is a fact," says the statement, "with nearly 26,000,000 motor vehicles registered in the United States and automotive production at its highest peak, road building is not keeping pace with the increase in registration." The statement continues: "Since 1918, motorists as a class have paid the federal government in the form of excise taxes on automobiles and parts, the sum total of approximately $1,100,000,000. "This means that the government has spent just a little more than fifty per cent of the amount of motor vehicle revenue paid by the motorists as a class to the treasury department. At this rate the government still owes the motorists approximately $600,000,000. "In addition to the great need for continuing federal-aid on a permanent basis there is also a pressing demand for federal assistance in building roads thru the public land states of the west, in order to protect national resources and at the same time connect up important trans-continental routes."

BEAR CHANCE FOR VICTORY AT BERKELEY

Big Game Seen As Major Factor in Sharing Conference Honors — Oregon Touted to Down Montana, Saturday. (Associated Press Sports Writer.) SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—(AP) The big game, that renewal of ancient football hostilities between California and Stanford which forms an excuse for 80,000 frenzied fans to group together this season, has taken on the added importance of determining whether California is to be at least a co-sharer of the 1928 coast conference championship. In a tie with Southern California's Trojan team they held on even terms five weeks ago, the Bears face their Stanford rivals next Saturday at Berkeley with the best chances of scoring a victory since 1923. A California eleven vanquished Stanford, 9-0, five years ago. In 1924 the teams played to a tie and California has been on the losing end since. This year, the Bears have not had a touchdown scored against them by a college eleven, and only one field goal, while Stanford has been beaten by Southern California. The Trojan victory over Stanford, however, in no way means that California will have a gallop next week end. Potentially, Stanford has one of the strongest teams in the country and loose handling of the ball, necessarily throwing its intricate "B" formation out of gear, has caused the big red squad to look bad. While the Bears are struggling with their old-time enemy, Southern California will be winding up its conference program in a game with Idaho. With only an ordinary season behind them, the Vandals' chances of defeating Southern California are so slight that the possibility has not even been considered. All four of the above mentioned teams won their contests last Saturday. Southern California pushed Washington State out of the running by a 27-13 score; Stanford downed Washington, 12-0, and Idaho sent Montana down the line, 21-6. California won its non-conference affair with Nevada, 69-9. Oregon downed Oregon State, 12-0, last week end, and next Saturday takes on Montana in what should be a walkway, as the Grizzlies have lost four and won only this year. Conference Standings. W. L. T. CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 18.—(AP)—With its conference season completed ahead of all other members of the circuit, Oregon State grid squad began today a final four-day preparation for a trip to the east coast, where the Beavers meet the powerful New York University in a Thanksgiving day battle. Coach Schelller led the regulars today, but put all reserves through a scrimmage session. Twinnell, halfback, injured in the Oregon game Saturday, had a bad knee thrown out again and will be unable to make the trip east, as planned. The only other injuries were Charlie Huxford, for Metten and Maple and are not expected to handicap them for the coming intersessional game. Maple, flashy quarter, left today for Peoria, Ill., ahead of his team mates, to attend the funeral of his father who was killed in an accident a few days prior to the Oregon game.

Hassan Demonstrates Wrestling Hold

Hassan Muhammed, the Terrible Turk, who is shown above demonstrating a face lock and an arm bar, will find his hands full next Friday night at the armory when he meets Bob Kruse, 210-pound Portland grappler, who wrestled Stanislaus Zylisko, former world's heavyweight champion, a short time ago and made a good showing. Kruse is regarded as timber for a world's championship match with Ed (Strangler) Lewis, the present world's champion, and is the instructor at the Multnomah Athletic club in Portland. Kruse appeared in Grants Pass two years ago and impressed spectators with his style and strength. Since then he has shown wonderful improvement and has added considerable weight, making him one of the toughest men on the coast in his weight. Muhammed's prowess in the ring is well known to Medford fans and especially for his fits of temper which, however, are expected to be held down by Kruse, who plans to keep the Turk so busy that he will have not time to lose his temper.

ASHLAND CITIZENS BOOST FOR GAME WITH MONMOUTH

Distinguished citizens of Ashland, including Irving Vinn, J. H. Fuller and A. C. Joy, were in Medford today boosting interest in Ashland's big football game in Ashland Saturday when the Normal team tangles with Monmouth for the state Normal title. Medford fans are particularly interested in this game, for Fullback, Benn, star of last year's high school team, is playing with Monmouth, while Nehf, Moore and Roberts also local football stars of 1927, are the mainstays of the Ashland eleven. The game will be called at 2:30 and quite a delegation of Medford fans are expected to attend. The Ashland Normal has a good team this year, defeated Humboldt, Cal., 21 to 12, and is being pointed out now to take Monmouth's measure. In addition to the sporting feature, the people of southern Oregon are urged to see this game, for a large attendance will give the Ashland Normal assistance in its effort to take a permanent place in the scholastic athletic standing of the state.

PUPILS AGOG OVER GRID GAME TODAY

The pupils of the public schools were today all agog with suppressed excitement, as well as the general run of the public, over the state championship game at The Dalles this afternoon, and quietly speculating as to the outcome, and while the pupils occasionally studied or took part in classes, their keen interest, perhaps, more so than the older folks, in spite of their efforts to conceal it, was with the Medford high team up north, and in quietly rooting for its success. However, in the senior high school, Principal Conkle, recognizing it as almost futile to hold the regular daily study and classes schedule, shortened the class periods this forenoon, so that the student body could give up this afternoon to receiving the returns by radio in the high school auditorium. Hence it was that an informal assembly was held this afternoon from the time of the beginning of the game until its finish, while the eager students listened to reports from the game broadcast by KMEM, the Mail Tribune-Virgin station, from a radio set kindly furnished the high school by the People's Electric Store. The students could enter and leave the informal assembly in the high school auditorium just as they pleased during the game. However, the junior high school and the grade schools continued their usual daily routine, although at the junior high several bulletins of the progress of the game were announced to the pupils. The same course was probably pursued in several of the grade buildings, although the grade pupils might not be sufficiently interested in the game for any special arrangements to be made as to informing them of its progress.

CONVICTED BROKER SENTENCED TODAY SEVEN-YEAR TERM

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 19.—(AP)—James P. Cooke, president of Overbeck & Cooke, stock broker whose house which failed last January, was sentenced today to seven years in prison following his conviction last week for larceny by embezzlement. He was convicted in connection with disappearance of bonds derived from the sale of bonds for a customer. A county grand jury indicted Cooke, Charles Goodwin, vice-president, and Howard S. Philpott, secretary. Goodwin pleaded guilty and will be sentenced next week. Philpott pleaded not guilty and his case is yet to be disposed of. The indictment resulted from charges that customers of the firm had suffered losses aggregating $1,500,000. Cooke's attorneys filed a motion for a new trial after his sentence was pronounced today.

SON OF KAISER WEDS WEALTHY U. S. WIDOW

LONDON, Nov. 19.—(AP)—An Exchange telegraph dispatch from Berlin quotes the newspaper Die Welt Am Montag, as saying that a wealthy American widow named Schwartz has married Prince Eitel Friedrich, second son of the former Kaiser. A month ago there were rumors that Mrs. Siecken-Schwartz of New York, was to marry Prince Eitel Friedrich and she issued a denial saying: "You may deny all stories of my engagement, marriage, or intention to marry Prince Eitel." Mail Tribune ads are read by an 000 people every day.

Constipated for Years Thought Bowels to Blame

"I was terribly constipated for years," writes Mrs. Anna Faubian of Oregon. "I tried all kinds of medicines but nothing did me any good until I tried Dioxol. I was completely relieved, and have told two of my neighbors who have gotten the same wonderful results." It was no cathartic or laxative that relieved Mrs. Faubian of her long-standing case of constipation. So many sufferers of constipation attribute the trouble to the bowels and so on doctoring the bowels when the real cause lies in the liver. The function of the liver is to secrete bile which is a natural purgative for the bowels. The bile also acts as a digestant of fats and oils and as an antiseptic in the intestinal canal to combat the germs which tend to breed there. The liver should secrete a full quart of bile a day, but the liver of the average person secretes less than half a pint. There is your real cause for most constipation, for intestinal indigestion and putrefaction, all of which means self-poisoning—biliousness, headaches, tired feeling, lack of appetite, blotched skin and coated tongue. Stimulate the liver naturally, increase the bile supply and you instantly solve most cases of constipation, back pains and headaches. This you can prove by taking Dioxol each for a day or two. Dioxol supplies the liver with the natural elements from which it makes bile. Restoring the bile flow to normal purifies the intestinal canal and promotes regular bowel action. Physicians regularly prescribe Dioxol as the solution to much of our ill health. Let a test in your own case show its results. Your druggist supplies Dioxol. MATERNITY BONUS URGED BY NOTED BRITISH LEADER

WASHINGTON.—(AP) If maternity is the all important thing in a woman's life, as many men contend, Mrs. Helen Archdale of Great Britain wants to know why they aren't willing to pay for it. Mrs. Archdale, in Washington on a world tour in the interests of feminism, believes in divorcing sentimentality from sex. She wants equality for men and women in everything. "Women should be compensated for bearing children, if it's such an important thing in the world's affairs," she says. "A mother who has a child her living should be paid by the state for the time she has to remain away from her work or the firm for which she works should be compelled by law to compensate her for the enforced vacation. As to equality in sharing the burdens of war, she is equally firm. "Certainly women should shoulder arms along with men," she asserts. "Why should men be selected for cannon fodder any more than women?" Mrs. Archdale came to Washington as a guest of the National Women's Party. She attended the Republican convention at Kansas City and her comment was: "Most amazing."

Scoring Stars of the Gridiron

(By the Associated Press) Ken Strong, New York university halfback, apparently has clinched national football scoring honors for this season. THANKSGIVING GAME PROSPECT UNCERTAIN, BEND IS CHALLENGER

Medford's prospects of a Thanksgiving game are as far off as ever and nothing today could be learned of a possible opponent for the local football eleven, which played The Dalles this afternoon. The Bend team has issued a challenge to Medford if The Dalles is beaten today. However, due to the fact that The Dalles is scheduled to play Bend the latter part of this week, little action will be taken on the present challenge. If Medford is victorious today, according to B. H. Conkle, high school principal, and Bend defeats The Dalles, a game here Thanksgiving with Bend will be considered. The whole matter is unsettled and will be until the scores are made at The Dalles games. Due to the fact that California teams expect a large guarantee, much larger than Medford can furnish, a game with an eleven from that state is impractical, and nothing more has been heard from the Everett, Wash., team.
