Ye Smudge Pot... By Arthur Perry

Winter has come, and it is colder than the inside of a butcher's shop... In a revival of impudence in the upholy Ku Klux Klan...

H. Flewker, the demon baker, is fighting a bad cold, and not having much luck, with his hat and coat both off... The press of the state, and well they may, have commenced to vlev with alarm...

Many of the Older Girls have dropped everything, and gone to combing wrinkles in their swan-like necks... Autos with seven light, and four horns, are far too frequent.

SOME NOBLE HYPOCRISY (Ohio State Journal)... The Dry Voters' League of the Franklin Avenue Protective association...

G. Washington Maddox, the ex-Methodist and eminent shingologist, was attacked by a phrenologist yesterday... A delegation of farmers were in town today, and well they should be...

Christmas is coming, and it always is, and the poverty of the poor is being noticed... There is some talk of a contest to see who can get their 1925 auto license first...

A trip over the highway system of the state demonstrates to all able to use the Hubbard squash on their shoulders for mental functioning...

A story about two Englishmen, has unhorsed the bumper crop of Scotch stovies... The use of rouges is forbidden in Jugo-Slavia...

A local girl finally got back from Los Angeles, without meeting Adolphe Menjou, or any other good-looking movie male... Not much time is wasted these mornings between the bed and the window...

Sedan defeated the Caney town team in a game of football yesterday afternoon after the parade... Moving into a new location, a Canton, Ohio, butcher failed to remove an old sign bearing the words "Leather Shop"...

AN AUSPICIOUS BEGINNING

SOUTH AMERICA is essentially a Latin country, just as the United States is essentially an Anglo-Saxon country. While both divisions of the western hemisphere have adopted republican forms of government...

South America is extremely sensitive and proud. Manners and diplomatic forms are of outstanding importance south of the Panama canal. The average American—which includes the American diplomat—prides himself upon his scorn of and indifference to these things...

As a result relations between Latin-America and North America have not been satisfactory for some time. South America, long accustomed to look to Paris socially, has been looking more and more to London commercially...

President-elect Hoover, no doubt, has many reasons for taking this epoch-making trip to South America—reasons of trade, reasons of international friendship and understanding...

And the chief benefit from this trip, in our opinion, lies in this direction. As has frequently been remarked, Mr. Hoover is, before all else, an engineer, and the first principle of good engineering is know your facts...

The benefits of this trip, therefore, promise to be far reaching and of true historical importance. And one of the greatest will be a complete change in our diplomatic attitude toward our South American neighbors.

President Hoover's policy will undoubtedly be based upon a recognition of the fact that South Americans are "different." Their culture is not our culture. To the conventional Yankee mind these differences may appear trivial...

It is no exaggeration to say that, in making this trip, President-elect Hoover has justified the enthusiastic expectations of his supporters. He has not only made a good start, he has made the best start of any President-elect in recent history.

You are definitely middle aged if you read back to page 86, discover the story to be continued, and neither swear nor kick the cat... Hoekle: To interrupt the speaker with questions. First practiced by Eve when Adam came in at 2 a. m.

Queer civilization! It pities ordinary cripples and seems those deformed above the ears... All drafts cause shivering, and this is particularly true of overdrafts.

No matter how poor you are, if you neither hate nor revere the rich, you are undoubtedly upper-class... Why weep, because the buffalo were killed? Think how much good golf ground they would occupy.

Those who are really sincere about farm relief, are mourning because they don't have to pay higher prices for their Thanksgiving turkey... Pity the poor fish off the coast of Mexico! How little they realize that what they would like to avoid is what at least half a million office seekers are praying for.

Governor Smith is scheduled to manage a bank when he returns to New York City, which indicates Mr. Raskob's financial resources are practically inexhaustible... Colonel Stewart, Standard Oil magnate, kissed the two lady members of the jury that acquitted him. We wonder what the men on the jury got out of it.

If you want to know what happened to Mr. Hollywood of Los Angeles in 1927, whisper "subdivision" and watch him jump.

Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Letters should be brief and written in ink.

YES, WE HAVE NO NERVE ENERGY TODAY

Every tired person is for the time being neuroathetic, so says wrote Dr. John Harvey Kellogg, of Battle Creek, 15 years ago. A lot of wisdom in those nine words, even though we all know now that "neuroathetic" was an error of medical philosophy...

It has been rumored that if one swallows grape seeds one is susceptible to appendicitis. I would appreciate it very much if you will advise about this in your column. (Mrs. L. D. S.) Answer—One is, if anything, less likely to have appendicitis if one swallows grape seeds...

Therefore, no physician, no health teacher, has a right to assume that a tired person's nerve energy is exhausted, that is, any more than the person's muscular or heat energy is exhausted. Anyone can understand that when a person feels or is tired his energy is reduced for the time being...

When I say there is absolutely no ground for the idea of "nerve energy," I mean to include the mysterious "brain energy" or "brain power." I don't want any expert work dodger to run away with the smug fancy that thinking or the use of the brain requires or uses any kind of energy...

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS Welcome Reading Versus Morbid Personalism—but more in the second person. I receive and answer more personal health questions than any other physician in this country. I do not refer to the distribution of pamphlets, leaflets or circulars, but only to personal health problems...

My family wish to thank you for the suggestion as to the use of Good Seed. Colonel Knight thinks the recent political doings of Florida may persuade Congress to change the inheritance tax law...

Illinois decides to use the electric chair, and the first occupant will be David Shanker, a colored man, who confessed to killing and robbing a young woman school teacher. Illinois would have done as well to stick to the old-fashioned rope while waiting to get rid of capital punishment...

Between $7,000,000 and $20,000,000. Little Green Capsules Stop Rheumatic Agony. Prove It in 5 Days. There's nothing in the world that brings such quick and complete relief from the pain and misery that makes life almost unbearable as those tiny green capsules known from coast to coast as Allenru Number 2.

Remember it's "The little green capsule" that is turning the trick and bringing joy to thousands of Rheumatic sufferers, so insist on Allenru No. 2. Health's says these little wonder-working capsules must banish all pain and torture in 5 days or money cheerfully refunded.

Colonel Peter O. Knight, of Tampa, Fla., Democrat from birth, an able lawyer, shows that Florida's break from the Democratic column, deplored by Democrats, may be a good thing for Florida. Health's says he "Democrats have paid no attention to Florida, because they thought it would vote the Democratic ticket anyhow. Republicans paid no attention to Florida, because they felt that Florida would vote the Democratic ticket, no matter what the Republican party did. Now Florida is definitely a debatable state and will continue so in the future."

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason.

For many years on adult males long whiskers fluttered in the gales, and beardless men seemed freaks; the barbers' trade became so slack they slacked "Alas," and eke "Alack," and uttered piercing shrieks. Then for some reason unexplained the flowing beards were much disdained, and every man was shaved; the barbers saw their folk had turned, and while they wrought, and kopecks earned, they joyously behaved. The safety razor then was sprung, and countless voters, old and young, hewed off their beards at home; they only sought the barber's chair when they would have him cut their hair, and smooth it with a comb. Now superficial people said, "The barbers' trade will soon be dead, it's doomed beyond repair; it can't exist when people fail to spend a modicum of kale for aught but cutting hair. Men have to shave three times a week—some every day, their whiskers leak so fast it is a crime— but nearly all are satisfied to let their glossy tresses slide six fortnights at a time. And then the women everywhere, grown tired of their abundant hair, decided they would bob; and to the barber shops they flew, an eager, palpitating crew, a dense, but cultured mob. And how the weary barbers wrought! When they had bobbed one dome of thought, a dozen were in line; the more they bobbed, the more the girls came up to sacrifice their curls, with herzen fire. Now beards are coming in again, and soon the maps of grown-up men will look like fields of hay; but that won't hurt the barber's trade, which always seems to make the grade, whatever prophets say.

Quill Points. Sins are much like dogs. Your own pet peccah would look vicious in the other fellow's yard. The objection to fame as a prize is that the same people who give it can take it away.

Are men more thrifty than women? Well, does a woman come home and say she's going to have the house warm enough to suit her and darn the expense? The millennium will be here soon after you see the first bronze statue inscribed: "To John Jones, who minded his own business."

It's a case of true love if he discovers how dumb she is and still thinks her wonderful. Americanism: Calling on the famous man to satisfy your curiosity; feeling ill at ease because you can't offer peanuts as you can at the zoo.

The reality of prosperity depends on whether you compare it with the hard old days or the present state of the big guys. You don't need a press agent to attract attention. Have somebody tow you in.

Every town has a bully who gets by because better men dread the notoriety they would get by licking him. The five senses: Money sense, social sense, class sense, common sense and horse sense.

Typical U. S. "knowledge": Chile (rich, cultured, larger than Great Britain) is a little jungle country full of naked niggers. Correct this sentence: "When I ask John what he thinks of a new hat," said she, "he always gives me his honest opinion."

UNIONVALE—100-bushel yield of corn from two acres reported here by John Hibbs. Convenience, comfort and good appearance all combined.

Colonel Knight thinks the recent political doings of Florida may persuade Congress to change the inheritance tax law, extremely unjust and harmful to his state. President Coolidge's son will soon be married to Miss Florence Trumbull, daughter of the governor of Connecticut. She and the President's son set a good example to this country, which is a little too inclined to self advertising and notoriety. The young couple will NOT be married in the White House.

Campbell Carson, after hunting gold for 30 years, invented a copper smelting furnace that earned tens of millions FOR OTHERS. A long law suit is winding up in his favor, and the very old man will have millions, now that it is too late for them to do him much good, or much harm.

Another Sleepless Night

For years I didn't know what a sound night's sleep was. I would toss and turn all night, getting up in the morning looking and feeling like a rag. To make things worse I was bothered during the day with a nagging headache, dizzy spells and indigestion. I was literally a wreck when I began taking ox gall for my liver. I took it in the form of Dioxol Tablets and had not finished one package before I felt like a new man. I began sleeping soundly at night and could work energetically through the day.

Your liver can have more to do with your health than you suspect! When the liver becomes sluggish it fails to cleanse the blood of the poisons formed in food waste. These poisons permeate the system, causing a toxic condition known as auto-intoxication. This in turn brings on nerves, sleeplessness, high blood pressure and diseases of the stomach and kidneys. Natural ox gall, extracted from the liver of the ox, is recognized as the finest tonic for the human liver. It is a natural liver stimulant and literally rejuvenates that organ, which is to rejuvenate the entire system. The pure genuine ox gall is to be had in dainty, tasteless form in Dioxol Tablets. Each Dioxol Tablet represents ten drops of pure ox gall and costs less than two cents. Try a few and see the difference they make. Genuine Dioxol has picture of ox's head on package. On sale at all good drug stores. Special Agent, Jarmin & Woods Drug Store.

SOME GASH! AND IT WAS OVER NOTHING THAT MUTT KICKED ME IN THE HEAD. COWARDLY, I CALLS IT!

FIRST I'LL SEE A DOCTOR AND THEN I'LL ENGAGE A LAWYER. I'LL SUE THAT BIG HUNK OF CHEESE.

DOC, MY FRIEND MUTT KICKED ME IN THE HEAD. HOW MUCH WILL YOU CHARGE TO SEW UP THE GASH?

STEP INTO MY PRIVATE OFFICE AND I'LL TAKE A PEEK AT THE WOUND.

HE AIMED AT MY FACE BUT I DUCKED.

M-M! I'LL SEW THAT UP FOR TWENTY BUCKS.

LISTEN! I JUST WANT PLAIN SEWING, NOT HEMSTITCHING OR EMBROIDERY. COME AGAIN, DOC!
