

BULL MOVE AGAIN HITS IN WALL ST.

Upward Trend Resumed Today After Setback Wednesday — Wright Gains 51—Motors Join Ascension—Big Pools Operating—Coppers in Demand.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The "bull" movement again went forward in riotous fashion on the stock market today and prices of a wide assortment of issues were sent soaring 5 to 51 points after yesterday's reaction. Wright Aero shot up 51 points to 272, a record price, and Montgomery Ward made a 24-point jump to the previous high of 428. Even the motors, neglected of late, joined in the upturn. General Motors recovering from a four-point loss, and Hupp, Packard, Chrysler and Nash selling up 4 to 6 points.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Speculation for the advance was resumed in a violent manner in today's stock market after yesterday's setback. Powerful pools brought forward at least a dozen high-priced specialties and whirled them upward 5 to nearly 35 points, presumably at the expense of an overworked short interest. With the exception of the motors, which were a main under pressure, the general list joined the upswing. Although there was still a widespread divergence of opinion as to whether yesterday's reaction had sufficiently corrected the weakened technical position of the market, there was no question but that the market had developed an enormous reserve of buying power. There was a marked scarcity in the floating supply of high grade issues, tending to confirm the belief that investors were not yet ready to sell and that large blocks of these securities had been taken out of the market by investment trusts.

Wright Aeronautics furnished the main pyrotechnics of today's session, soaring 51 points to a new high record at 272 1/2. Midland Steel Products preferred ran up 27 1/2 points, Radio 25, Montgomery-Ward 26, Curtiss Aeroplane 15, Victor Talking Machine 12, Inspiration Copper 9, National Biscuit 7 1/2, Union Carbide 7, Allied Chemical 6 3/4, Corro De Pasco 5 1/2 and Commercial Credit 4 1/2.

The brisk demand for the coppers was inspired by the raising of the annual dividend on Greene Cananea from 84 to 86 and the resumption of payments at the rate of $2 annually on Inspiration, which paid its last dividend of 25 cents, in the spring of 1927. Total sales approximated 5,655,400 shares.

Tunney and Bride to Have Boxer Neighbor

When Mr. and Mrs. Gene Tunney (left) return from their honeymoon in Italy to take up their residence, temporarily at least, in London's exclusive Mayfair, they will have for a near neighbor Bombardier Wells, English "gentleman boxer" who, like Tunney, has now retired from the ring. The Tunney apartment on Down street (above) is on the row on the left of the picture.

LONDON (AP)—Gene Tunney's little home in Mayfair is awaiting the retired world's champion fighter and his bride, who are now honeymooning in Italy. It is a tastefully furnished apartment in Down street, somewhat larger than one would expect for one couple, but in keeping, according to the caretakers, with Mr. and Mrs. Tunney's plans to do a lot of entertaining. One of their first visitors is expected to be George Bernard Shaw. They have taken the apartment for one year.

Although Gene has chosen one of the most exclusive sections of London in which to live, he will have at least one neighbor to remind him of the old boxing days before he quit the ring.

This neighbor is Bombardier Wells, the "gentleman boxer" and darling of the English press. For Bombardier, who is also in retirement, now operates a hotel and "pub" within half a block of Tunney's apartment.

Bombardier was as surprised to hear that Tunney was to be his neighbor as Gene probably will be to learn that Bombardier lives nearby.

"So he is really coming, is he?" Well, he was one of the best. He was as good as Corbett, good as any other champion we ever had," Bombardier said.

"No, I haven't met him yet. I'd like to meet Gene and welcome him. He did a good thing quitting when he did. He's made his."

Down street, where Tunney's apartment is situated, is only two blocks long, but it is in the very heart of Mayfair and all that Mayfair implies in the way of society. Hyde Park is at one end of the street; Bombardier's "pub" is at the other. But then nearly every corner in London has a "pub"; there's even one in Buckingham palace.

Down street is an austere thoroughfare in which the blinds are nearly always drawn and the chauffeurs sit at the wheels of their cars with uncompromising mien. People move along the street slowly and an air of exclusiveness hangs perpetually over the place.

Although Tunney has quit the professional ring, he is looked to fight five bouts for charity in one night soon after he arrives.

When Tunney was in London just before his marriage, Navy Preston, English sportsman, remarked that Dempsey still had one record that Tunney had not beaten.

"What's that?" asked Gene. "Dempsey fought four heavy weights consecutively at my conduct tournament three years ago," answered Preston. "Is that so?" said Tunney. "Then I'll fight five."

Old fashioned dances, played by old time fiddlers will be held every Saturday night at Hilbert's hall, beginning this Saturday, according to an announcement made today by Gene Stowell, Charles Skeeter and Ray Muckey, who will conduct entertainment features.

POPE APPEARS TO CONSECRATE A MONUMENT

Pius XI Attends Ceremony at Monument to Predecessor, Pope Benedict XV—Thirty Cardinals in Attendance.

ROME, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Pope Pius XI made one of his rare appearances on the balcony of St. Peter's today attending the solemn consecration of the monument to his predecessor, the late Pope Benedict XV.

The ceremony was attended by all the cardinals resident in or visiting in Rome, the corps of diplomats accredited to the Holy See, the pontiff's own court, and the members of the Roman aristocracy. The dedication speech was delivered by Cardinal Mistrangelo, archbishop of Florence, chairman of the committee of cardinals that undertook the erection of the monument. The pontiff extolled his predecessor as a pope of prayer. He recalled how Benedict XV, after the refusal of the belligerents in the World war to accept his peace overture, said that it was therefore all the more necessary to pray more fervently and continuously, and even after the armistice continue to beseech the Almighty that wartime passions might speedily be healed. The monument, said the pontiff, stands as an admonition to all that prayer, or union with God, is the basis of the whole Christian life.

Today's ceremony was attended by the late pope's sister, Countess

Perocco; his nephew, the Marquis Giuseppe Della Chiesa; the present Pope's niece and her husband and several members of the Grants Pass Country club were numbered among the sur of those golf enthusiasts who saw Farrell and Hammer play on the local course yesterday. Among them were Joe Chinnock, Frank Mashburn, Col. I. A. Robie and Karl Hammerbacher.
