

NEBRASKA BOWS TO ARMY STAR; HARVARD WINS

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 24.—The red-shirted giants of Nebraska tried to stop the red-headed terror of the army to day, but failed after a gallant start. As a result, Christian Keener (100) single led West Point to a smashing 13 to 0 victory over the Corn Huskers and gave another boost to his all-American rating for 1928.

The cadets scored all their points in a last-half rush. Led by Cagle, they put Nebraska to rout after the red-jerseyed Corn Huskers had baffled the soldiers in a standstill in the first half and had finally taken the lead on a beautiful 29-yard placement kick by Claic Sloan, star halfback.

It took just two plays for Cagle and the Army to overcome this deficit in the third period and take a lead that was never relinquished. The first play was a pass, tossed by Cagle to Moseley for a gain of 29 yards. The second was a slushing, twisting 20-yard dash off tackle by Cagle, who left would-be tacklers strewn in his wake as he travelled 36 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown.

YALE BOWL NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 24.—(AP)—Johnny Harvard got his run today and using his lateral pass for ammunition, shielded Eli Yale out of his own bowl with a 17 to 0 defeat. Johnny's arm was loaded from first to last while the defending home team had nothing with which to shoot. A record breaking crowd estimated at 78,000 saw the Harvard triumph.

The defeat was as bad as it sounds. Harvard today was at least two touchdowns and a field goal better than Yale. The Elis never had a chance to score.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 24.—(AP)—The greatest back to wear the violet of New York University, dazzling "Mike" Strong, carried a ripping, tearing football team today in the greatest pluckin' hefts his alma mater ever has known.

Under the averticing, dazzling eye of this super-star of football, the all-American is there. It was one, the raging Violets crushed the hitherto undefeated Skiba of Carnegie Tech, 27 to 13, while 40,000 football maniacs reviled in a pluckin' program.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.—(AP)—Princeton was blasted from the list of undefeated eastern football teams in its final game this afternoon by a devastating Navy broadside in which the big gun was "Whitely" Lloyd.

With the 200-pound blond half-back scoring all of the points the Naval academy wound up an in and out of season in a burst of glory by tripping the touted Tigers by nine to nothing before a throng of 70,000.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—(AP)—Georgetown warmed up for its big game with the undefeated University of Detroit eleven last Saturday by defeating Fordham here today, 27 to 7. The Blue and Gray machine piled up a 43-point lead in the opening period.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—(AP)—Flashing a reversal of form in the second half Gonzaga University of Spokane defeated Loyola University of Los Angeles here today by a score of 13 to 6. Loyola had the visitors whipped at the end of the half, six to nothing, but a strong offensive by the Gonzaga team in the final periods netted them a touchdown in each quarter, converting once.

MONMOUTH WINS LOCAL BANDS TO NEW TOURNAMENT BY WEIGHT FROM ACCOMPANY TEAM PLAY ANNOUNCED

The Oregon State Normal of Monmouth defeated the Southern Oregon Normal of Ashland today 12 to 0.

The superior weight of the Northerners checked their lighter foes once on the on-foot line, and it was the only time during the game that the Ashland Teachers threatened to score.

Monmouth scored its first touchdown on a forward pass, and the second on line plunges.

In the fourth quarter the Ashland Normal opened up with a series of forward passes, and for the first time made first down. They marched to the twenty yard line, where they were held for downs.

Both teams kicked frequently in the first half, Monmouth having the edge, and both suffered from offensive penalties.

The Monmouth players were rugged and larger than the Ashland squad, who put up a same fight, but lacked the punch to put over a touchdown. Earley Senn, a former Medford high school star, was the best ground runner for the visitors.

Neff, also a former Medford high guard, and Hines, a colored youth from Baker, Ore., were the outstanding players for Ashland.

There was a crowd of about 500 present, including a large number from this city. Between halves the normal girls serpentine over the field.

The line-ups:

Monmouth	C	Ashland	Madden
Lewis	G	Smith	Neft
Smith	C	Dove	May

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 24.—(AP)—Purdue's football team was too much for Indiana here today and the Crimson was downed 13 to 0 in the final game of the season. It was the 31st meeting of the teams and the victory was the seventeenth for Purdue. Indiana has won 10 games.

Mary Temple, 3-year-old child of Spokane, Wash., became separated from her parents and spent a night alone in the mountains with no serious results.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 24.—(AP)—A rough young man named Brono Nagurski, as tough on the gridiron as his name sounds, ruined Wisconsin's chances of winning unchallenged possession of the Western conference football championship today, when Minnesota swalloped the hitherto undefeated Badgers 6 to 0 with a crowd of 46,000 viewing the spectacle.

Nagurski, Minnesota's pulverizing fullback, scored the touchdown that tumbled Wisconsin out of the championship early in the second period of a bitterly fought game, after Ed Burke, the Badger fullback, fumbled on the Wisconsin 15-yard line. Pullarick, a Minnesota guard, who rarely gets his name in the papers, pounced on the ball and the Gophers, seizing this only break of the game, pounced the points that wrecked Wisconsin's title hopes.

The Medford high school band of 25 pieces, winners of the state contest last year, and the Medford Elks band of 22 pieces, will accompany the Medford high school football team to Portland, when the acknowledged state high school champions of Oregon, outside of Portland, will play Benson high in that city Thanksgiving Day. The two bands will leave Wednesday evening, on the Southern Pacific train, that is expected to carry 1000 Southern Oregon football fans to the metropolis.

The Medford team will leave on Tuesday evening, and will come back on the same train, they will arrive in Portland Wednesday, and in the morning, will have a short work out on Malmonah field.

All of the Medford team is in good condition, with the exception of Orin Cookste, first string fullback, who has been bedfast with a severe cold. Five other first string players are recovering from colds, and were able to report for practice Saturday morning.

CARDS TIE BEARS

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 24.—(AP)—The University of Oregon football team presented its graduates with the first home-coming grid victory in four years today, when it defeated Montana 31 to 6.

A heavy fog obscured Hayward field and increased in density as the game drew to a close.

The passing attack unleashed by the Grizzlies in the last few minutes of the game, was screened by the heavy mist, and Oregon was forced to give way to a touchdown by Montana.

Kitzmilller's kick of the extra point was wild. Kitzmilller, the Flying Dutchman of the Webfoot backfield, scored again in the second quarter on a lateral pass. The Grizzlies failed to lay a hand on him and he sifted through from the 17 yard line. A tricky pass from Kitzmilller to Robinson gave Oregon the extra point and an early 13 to 0 lead.

Two more touchdowns in the second quarter placed Oregon in safe lead, and Coach John J. MeEwan began sending in a flock of substitutions. A long pass, 21 yards over the goal line, from Kitzmilller to Robinson netted another score. Near the close of the
