

CAMP NO. 2 WILL CLOSE DOWN FOR WINTER SHORTLY

Camp No. 2 is to close operations for the winter on or about the first of next week. The last of the logs were loaded Thursday and brush piling is all that remains to be done.

Mrs. L. P. Cross was hostess to a dinner party at her home last Thursday. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Jones, Mrs. H. L. Nutting and Mrs. J. A. Crump. Mrs. Cross maintains the reputation of being an excellent cook.

Mrs. O. E. Jones and Mrs. Wm. Platt drove to Medford last Wednesday.

Mrs. Eddy has been suffering from an attack of tonsillitis, but is reported to be much better. Jack McKay, foreman at Camp No. 2, has left for his home in Klamath Falls.

Roy Tildenback is on the sick list having a touch of grippe. All we can hear from Butts Falls now is "When will they turn on the juice."

The mail clerk will soon require additional help as he has noticed a couple of young ladies soliciting an extra mail sack to handle the Tribunes.

The many friends of Jim Garman will welcome his return to Camp one. Jim lost his snow shoes and could not take the chances of remaining on Mt. Pitt all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gonderman on Wednesday were visiting their daughter, Mrs. Frank Smith. Tom was formerly an old resident of this camp but for the past year has been employed by the Clearing Lumber company at Standard, Cal. Tom for the next few months will be busy building a new home and making other improvements on their ranch located on Crater Lake highway.

The Mrs. DeJarnett, Boyles and Richman motored to Medford on Wednesday to do some shopping. They said Christmas shopping should be done early.

Carl Jackson has taken up the duties of bull back at Camp one. He replaces C. Pedroni who resigned.

Robert Albertus Flemming, who it is remembered a few weeks ago tried to reduce the population of mud hens on Tule Lake, is nearly two guns with him this weekend and may have better luck.

Ollie Jones and Jack Crump are deeply interested in the wool market these days. They have almost consummated a deal for a large ranch near Crescent City. It is rumored they have sent to Australia for samples of the Virgin Wool run.

The Four Spot have withdrawn their reward for the lost hat.

Crosley Earns Place With Radio Leaders

From a small beginning seven years ago, Crosley has grown to be one of the leaders in the radio field. Crosley's popularity has been earned—Crosley's performance has been proved. Now you have an opportunity to prove Crosley's value because you can choose your radio in your own home and compare the performance.

Continued improvements and refinements in manufacturing details are constantly being made in the popular Crosley's. Brilliance and perfection of tone are two features, which instantly attract attention, according to Mr. Brown of the Music Box.

HAPPY IDEA AT HUNT'S CRATERIAN

The return of Ted Doney to the state was the cause of Fanchon and Mavis musing their latest idea the "Happy Idea. With Ted is Bobbie Thompson, his adorable dancing partner, clever songs and dances, some acrobatics and a surprise number feature this lively presentation.

The Varsity Four Quartet offer the latest popular numbers in collegiate fashion. All are university graduates and talented singers.

Jerry Cox, the dancing acrobat, does a slow motion dance and when it comes to fast stepping he runs away from all competition.

Bill Allright, eccentric and acrobatic dancer, presents a novel and difficult dance routine.

Alone and Evans are a clever pair of acrobats. Their hand-balancing work is graceful. They do several novelty numbers.

KEN MAYNARD AT RIALTO TODAY

"The Glorious Trail" starring Ken Maynard, is at the Rialto today.

The picture is based upon actual historical fact and has as its theme the stringing of the first telegraph wires in the west and the connecting link that brought the east and the west into closer contact.

The story has closely interwoven human element that shows the terrible hardships and pretensions encountered by the daring men who made possible this feat.

Ken Maynard's admirers are finding "The Glorious Trail" outstanding for this daring star of the saddle.

Ollie Jones and Jack Crump are deeply interested in the wool market these days. They have almost consummated a deal for a large ranch near Crescent City. It is rumored they have sent to Australia for samples of the Virgin Wool run.

The Four Spot have withdrawn their reward for the lost hat.

Coming Attractions

Buddy Rogers in Talking Film "Variety." In which Charles "Buddy" Rogers makes his bow at Hunt's Craterian theater tomorrow is a talking picture with a beautiful musical score. The orchestra of 75 pieces played for this accompaniment. Many scenes may be heard singing. Every effort was made to portray the true life of a modern youth at college, and the picture fairly shrieks with authentic atmosphere.

In the cast are Charles "Buddy" Rogers, Charles "Buddy" Rogers, Charles "Buddy" Rogers, Charles "Buddy" Rogers.
