

Local and Personal

Tomorrow will be a big business day because all food supplies and other necessities must be purchased then, as the next day is Thanksgiving day when all the stores and other places of business will be closed all day.

Will someone send us the present address of Verne Stevenson, who has been at Wolf Creek until recently?

Mr. and Mrs. Earl York arrived in Med. city last evening by auto, with Miss Laura York, who was stricken with an appendicitis attack last Sunday at Charleston in the Coos Bay district, where she has been teaching school and was operated on this morning in the Sacred Heart hospital here. Through mismanagement having been given after Mr. and Mrs. York had departed hurriedly for Charleston on Sunday afternoon, it was incorrectly stated in this newspaper that Miss York had been operated on at Marshfield on Sunday. Her condition this noon was reported as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Coal by the sack or ton, Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

Mrs. Roland Fench is ill with the flu and her husband, the assistant postmaster, is confined to his home by a severe cold.

Turkey dance, Walkers', Wednesday, also big Thanksgiving dance Thursday.

Guests from a distance registered at Medford hotels include Neal Abern of Cincinnati, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stanly and A. E. Waters of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Schneiderman of New York City, Harold Burelson of Minneapolis, A. E. Sharp of Detroit, Mrs. J. J. and Dorothy Irwin of Vancouver, B. C.

Guaranteed hemstitching, 7c. Work not drawn. Mrs. Canouse, 2417 1/2, Dollar Store.

Harold Fuller, a ranch worker, was fined $25 in the city court today on a charge of intoxication on Monday, to which he pleaded guilty.

Tomorrow, Red Letter day at M. M. Dept. Store, 19 S. & H. green discount stamps free. No purchase required.

Ten out of the state cars registered here yesterday with the local state auto traffic bureau.

Iron mending, runners removed, and shoes worked back. Handicraft Shop, 2167 1/2.

In telling of the wedding of Neva Bernice Messel of Lake Creek and Norval Eugene Wiley of Central Point by Rev. C. H. Hilton of Grants Pass last Saturday, the Daily Courier of that city says: "The wedding was at 8:30 when Miss Neva Bernice Messel became the wife of Norval Eugene Wiley. These young people are both of Jackson county. They were going on a visit to the bride's family, and thence to Portland to live. They were accompanied by friends. The ring ceremony was used."

Double S. & H. green discount stamps on all purchases tomorrow, red letter day at the M. M. Dept. Store.

Mrs. A. L. Haulle of Portland arrived here this morning to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. W. Reynolds.

Bargains, silk velvet remnants for pillows, Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg.

Ed Fawcett, owner of the Fawcett mines in the Copper district, spent this morning in the city shopping.

Wooden toys, games, rubber balls, horns and musical toys all at half price at Shields' Big Closing Out Sale.

Best Utah lump coal, Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

Herbert Grey, advertising manager of the Mail Tribune, who has been ill with flu at his home, is reported some better today.

Double S. & H. green discount stamps on all dresses and coats tomorrow at the M. M. Dept. Store.

Completion of the $50,000 Josephine County General hospital at Grants Pass is scheduled for this week. The hospital has been leased to an operating company which will take charge as soon as construction work has been completed.

Coal by the sack or ton, Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

Mrs. M. J. Bremer returned to home in Etna, Cal., after a month's visit with her sisters, Mrs. W. J. Scheffler of Medford and Mrs. Frank Stephenson of Central Point.

Dance, Jacksonville, Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th, 9 till 2.

Following his order yesterday, discontinuing all candy punch-balls in Jackson county, Sheriff Ralph Jennings today reported no trouble on the part of punchball operators in compliance with the order. Today found the boards removed from their usual places and caught a number of operators with a large supply of boxes of candy on hand. The sheriff this forenoon was determined to eliminate every candy selling device whereby the means of chance was employed, outside of devices which guarantee the player value received.

Notice to all S. & H. green trading stamp savers: All Fluhrer's stamps must be redeemed by December 1st. Offer expires on that date.

According to a report recently issued from the forest service, Oregon in 1929 will receive $63,669.69 for construction and maintenance of roads and trails within the national forests.

Twenty-five sport and dress coats, values to $25, to be closed out for $5 each at Shields' Big Closing Out Sale.

Foggy weather for tonight, and fair weather with not much change in temperature is forecast for tonight and Wednesday, following a light for this forenoon and a maximum of 46 and minimum of 35 yesterday.

Extra special Tuesday and Wednesday Famous Grape Juice at $17.50, special price $5. Popular priced hats $3.95, $2.98 and $1.98. The Band Box, 223 East 6th St.

Included among the Oregonians registered at Medford hotels are Arthur A. Selander and Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Rasmussen of Salem, C. Hall of Coos Bay, L. W. Nette of Lakeview, H. J. Kelsky and T. Johnson of Eugene, P. D. Miller of Roseburg and the following from Portland: D. M. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Betts, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Fahrney, J. M. Howard, W. W. Tracy, T. J. Burke, Harry McGill, Mr. and Mrs. D. Parsons, Jr., J. C. Shaw, G. C. Mously, Fred Jackson and F. A. Mead.

Turkey dance, Walkers', Wednesday, also big Thanksgiving dance Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Druscher returned to their home in Dunsmuir, Cal., after visiting in this city for the past week with Mrs. Druscher's mother and sister, Mrs. Ellen Daugherty and Miss Agnes Daugherty.

Hemstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making, Handicraft Shop, Phone 762.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCready will leave tomorrow for Eugene where they will spend Thanksgiving with relatives and friends.

All better dresses 1/2 price at Mullins'.

J. Melvin Stark and D. E. Peery of Los Angeles are guests at local hotels from Los Angeles. Other California guests include F. E. Martin of Soland and Mrs. M. W. Neary, J. N. Carson and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. O'Keefe of San Francisco.

Thanksgiving dance at U. S. hall, Jacksonville, Wednesday, 9 till 2. Best of music. Supper at Amy's.

Peter Albertson, sales manager of the Pelican Bay Lumber company of Klamath Falls, accompanied by Mrs. Albertson and Mrs. Bridgford, played golf on the Rogue Valley golf links yesterday.

Dance, Jacksonville, Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th, 9 till 2.

Motorists traveling over the Pacific highway are warned by the touring bureau of the California State Automobile association that the section under construction between Hooding and Dunsmuir is slippery during wet weather and chains are needed. This condition will exist until the section has been surfaced with rock.

Look at these prices for Tuesday and Wednesday: Hats to $9.50, special $3.95, $2.98 and $1.98. Kiddle hats, $3.95 values, $1.25. 29 extra green stamps. The Emmy Lou Hat Shoppe, in M. M. Store.

A strong north wind delayed the arrival of the northbound air-mail plane today from San Francisco for nearly an hour, causing the ship to seek as low a level as possible, to escape the wind which at Oakland, Cal., was blowing at a rate of 25 miles per hour at a height of 6500 feet. This wind, however, was found beneficial by southern flyers.

Turkey dance, Walkers', Wednesday, also big Thanksgiving dance Thursday.

Visitors from Seattle at Medford hotels include F. C. Cole, O. J. Thomas, W. E. Root and F. K. Bowen.

Cheap lumber and cedar posts, Medford Lumber Co., 2371 1/2.

Mrs. J. H. Marshall is ill at her home with the flu this week.

Tomorrow, Red Letter day at M. M. Dept. Store, 19 S. & H. green discount stamps free. No purchase required.

Turkey thieves in the Yakima, Wash., region must skin their loot as well as "pick" it if they are to escape detection by former owners.

The Yakima Turkey Growers' association, irritated by an epidemic of thievery, has decided that all birds owned by its members shall be tattooed this year. By the new method of tattooing the brand remains on the bird as long as the skin remains.

Best Utah lump coal, Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

Herbert Grey, advertising manager of the Mail Tribune, who has been ill with flu at his home, is reported some better today.

Double S. & H. green discount stamps on all dresses and coats tomorrow at the M. M. Dept. Store.

Completion of the $50,000 Josephine County General hospital at Grants Pass is scheduled for this week. The hospital has been leased to an operating company which will take charge as soon as construction work has been completed.

Coal by the sack or ton, Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

Mrs. M. J. Bremer returned to home in Etna, Cal., after a month's visit with her sisters, Mrs. W. J. Scheffler of Medford and Mrs. Frank Stephenson of Central Point.

Dance, Jacksonville, Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th, 9 till 2.

Following his order yesterday, discontinuing all candy punch-balls in Jackson county, Sheriff Ralph Jennings today reported no trouble on the part of punchball operators in compliance with the order. Today found the boards removed from their usual places and caught a number of operators with a large supply of boxes of candy on hand. The sheriff this forenoon was determined to eliminate every candy selling device whereby the means of chance was employed, outside of devices which guarantee the player value received.

Notice to all S. & H. green trading stamp savers: All Fluhrer's stamps must be redeemed by December 1st. Offer expires on that date.

According to a report recently issued from the forest service, Oregon in 1929 will receive $63,669.69 for construction and maintenance of roads and trails within the national forests.

Twenty-five sport and dress coats, values to $25, to be closed out for $5 each at Shields' Big Closing Out Sale.

Foggy weather for tonight, and fair weather with not much change in temperature is forecast for tonight and Wednesday, following a light for this forenoon and a maximum of 46 and minimum of 35 yesterday.

Extra special Tuesday and Wednesday Famous Grape Juice at $17.50, special price $5. Popular priced hats $3.95, $2.98 and $1.98. The Band Box, 223 East 6th St.

Included among the Oregonians registered at Medford hotels are Arthur A. Selander and Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Rasmussen of Salem, C. Hall of Coos Bay, L. W. Nette of Lakeview, H. J. Kelsky and T. Johnson of Eugene, P. D. Miller of Roseburg and the following from Portland: D. M. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Betts, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Fahrney, J. M. Howard, W. W. Tracy, T. J. Burke, Harry McGill, Mr. and Mrs. D. Parsons, Jr., J. C. Shaw, G. C. Mously, Fred Jackson and F. A. Mead.

Turkey dance, Walkers', Wednesday, also big Thanksgiving dance Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Druscher returned to their home in Dunsmuir, Cal., after visiting in this city for the past week with Mrs. Druscher's mother and sister, Mrs. Ellen Daugherty and Miss Agnes Daugherty.

Hemstitching, hose mending, pleating and button making, Handicraft Shop, Phone 762.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCready will leave tomorrow for Eugene where they will spend Thanksgiving with relatives and friends.

All better dresses 1/2 price at Mullins'.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schuler, formerly of Hood River, recently arrived and have taken residence on the Three Oaks orchard, of which Mr. Schuler is manager. He is an experienced fruit man and they are pleased with the Rogue River valley.

Dance, Jacksonville, Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th, 9 till 2.

S. & H. green trading stamp offer on Fluhrer's bread wrappers expires December 1st. Make your redemption at the M. M. Department store before that date.

The Seventh Day Adventist church has just received a new moving picture machine. The first picture will be shown Wednesday, November 29, at 7:30 p. m., in the Adventist church, corner of Edwards and Beatty streets.

Give Fuller Brushes for Christmas. For immediate service, Tel. 1294-J.

We double fork, our coal — no dust. Hansen Coal Co., Phone 239.

George Treichel, who has been confined to his home for five weeks with illness, was down to his place of business a short time yesterday.

Tomorrow, Red Letter day at M. M. Dept. Store, 19 S. & H. green discount stamps free. No purchase required.

Wood — all kinds — oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

Stanley Seldel, University of Washington graduate and original member of the Varsity quartet, which made a successful tour of the country, stopped over in Medford yesterday, where he filled in on last engagement with the Fanchon and Marco show. He left yesterday for Seattle where he expects to complete some special work at the University of Washington and to organize a new varsity quartet. He will take these back to New York City where they will be trained under his cousin, Otto Krewitz, well known musical director, for the start on an extensive tour of the country.

Double S. & H. green discount stamps on all purchases tomorrow, red letter day, at the M. M. Dept. Store.

Highest grade Utah coal, any size, anywhere, any amount. Hansen Coal Co., Phone 239.

Lucien Forrest McConville, manager of the Seattle show, has spent the past two weeks in Medford, returned to his home in the north yesterday.

On account of illness of the help at the Rogue Elk, there will be no Thanksgiving dinner served on that day.

Doors and windows cheap at Medford Lumber Co., 2371 1/2.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Laird and Mrs. Clyde Laird of Berkeley, Cal., returned to their homes yesterday, after attending the funeral of Charles J. Laird, which was held here Sunday. While here both couples stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pruett.

Thirty silk dresses, values to $25, suitable for evening or street wear, to be closed out for $2.95 at Shields' Big Closing Out Sale.

Cheap dry lumber at Medford Lumber Co., 2371 1/2.

Mrs. Allen Peoter of Ashland left the Purucker home yesterday with her six-pound boy, born November 13, for her home in the southern city.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tengvall, Hotel Holland, Phone 393.

Double S. & H. green discount stamps on all purchases tomorrow, red letter day, at the M. M. Dept. Store.

Ralph Laidley, publicity director of the local high school, is still ill at his home with a severe case of flu which he contracted over a week ago.

Big dolls, little dolls. Mamma dolls and baby dolls, dolls of all kinds on sale at half price at Shields' Big Closing Out Sale.

Special turkey dinner "Thanksgiving day at Amy's Place, Jacksonville, 75c a plate. Phone 293, reservation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. King arrived in the city from Davenport, Wash., yesterday and spent the day visiting their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson of this city. They left last night for the south, where they will spend the winter in Los Angeles and Long Beach, returning to their northern home March 1st.

Double S. & H. green discount stamps on all dresses and coats tomorrow at the M. M. Dept. Store.

Wood — all kinds — oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

Giving diversion as the grounds, John Lowman yesterday in circuit court filed a divorce suit against Minnie Lowman. The couple were divorced November 16, 1919, were divorced, remarried December 10, 1925, and lived together until January, 1927, when the divorce was granted to the plaintiff, according to the claims of the latter. They have three children, all of whom are in southern California.

Thomas Realty Co., real estate, insurance, and small loans on anything of value. Palm Block, corner Main and Front, upstairs.

That good coal — low in ash. Hansen Coal Co., Phone 239.

Due to the wetness of the weather, paving work in Medford is temporarily at a standstill, according to the city street department today.

However, crushed rock was being laid on Holly street this forenoon to prepare it for early paving if weather permits.

It is better to have insurance and not need it than to need it and not have it. Medford Investment Co., 125 East 6th St.

Hot, clean coal, Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

When he appeared in the local justice court yesterday, Jack Dickson, arrested at Ashland a short time ago for the alleged transportation of 68 gallons of alcohol, was fined $200, but was unable to pay the fine and is being held in the county jail in default thereof.

Wheeled goods, wagons, mechanical toys and dishes all half price at Shields' Big Closing Out Sale.

Hose mending, runners removed and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop, 2167 1/2.

Among the temporary auto-licenses issued at the sheriff's office yesterday was one to Ivan Gay of North Riverside and Homer Dunn of Ashland.

E. E. Kelly will leave tonight for Portland on legal business.

Best Utah lump coal, Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

Bounty warrants were issued at the county clerk's office yesterday to E. A. Whelaney of Talent for one coyote and to Joe Oswald of Eagle Point for a coyote.

Children's picture and story books all at half price at Shields' Big Closing Out Sale.

Weather coming. Have that roof reroofed by a first-class shingler. All work guaranteed. John R. Sailer, 635 North Central, Phone 272-1.

Marriage licenses were issued at the county clerk's office yesterday to Thomas Langworthy of San Francisco and Hattie Wright of Joseph, Ore., Herman Thode and Hazel Fish, both of Redding, and to Manuel Thomas and Mary Rose, both of Yreka.

Double S. & H. green discount stamps on all dresses and coats tomorrow at the M. M. Dept. Store.

Daily's Taxi, Phone 15. New Studebaker sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. William Onuf' left last evening for their home in Seattle, Wash., following several days spent in Medford visiting friends and relatives while en route from a motor trip to southern California.

John H. Lock, painting and decorating. Fine interior work a specialty. Phone 118 or 369.

Safety first! This Building and Loan association operates under state supervision. Southern Building & Loan Association.

After having visited eight or nine public schools in California during the past week, in company with county school superintendent, teachers and principals from other Oregon points, Mrs. Susanne Homes Carter today resumed her duties as county school superintendent. The party was made up of 12 persons and was met at Redding by a California school official who remained with them until the school visiting tour, which went as far south as San Francisco, was completed.

Wood — all kinds — oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631.

Hot, clean coal, Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

In the neighborhood of 35 people visited the opening yesterday of the new health center at Central Point, marking the first one to be opened in Jackson county. With members of the Central Point health committee in charge, the center was open from 2 to 4 o'clock, with light refreshments served to all visitors.

Don't wait until your property is on fire. Insure now. Medford Investment Company, 125 East 6th St.

Oregon Fire Relief Association of Medinnville, Ore. C. L. Goff, Asst. 419 East Main St., Tel. 922, 1887.

Emil Joutsen of Huron, S. D., and Donald Whiffen of Middleton, Ida., were among the motorists from a distance who registered today at the local branch of the out of state auto registration bureau.

Points set to name. Mastercraft Song Publishers, Seattle, 261

All better dresses 1/2 price at Mullins'.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Downie of Willow Creek, Mont., are spending a visit in Medford at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Eugene Thorndike, and Mr. Thorndike.

Fred Gattfield and Amos Turnbull have opened a general repair shop at 219 N. Grape St., and are prepared to give first class service, repairing any type of heating plant, plumbing or sheet metal. Phone 574.

City Sanitary Service, Phone 542.

Pleading not guilty in court at Jacksonville on charges of assault on Mrs. Ethel Roberts, they were arrested Saturday night on Benson street, bail for J. B. Johnson was set at $200 and for Roy Campbell was set at $500. The men are accused of having possessed 21 gallons of moonshine and a quantity of gin and alcohol.

All better dresses 1/2 price at Mullins'.

For those fenders and auto bodies straightened at Drills Sheet Metal Works, opposite Lewis Squier Service Station. Phone 418.

E. B. Day and family, who have been Gold Hill residents for some time past, this week took up permanent residence in Medford in the L. B. Scheffer dwelling on Queen Anne avenue.

Put your holiday concerts secure a copy of the song "The Ways of Faith," written by Mrs. Mary G. Carey, at the local music store.

Dressed hens, 25c. Johnson's Market.

Thanksgiving supplies were among the features of today's public market and included a good supply of dressed turkeys at bargain prices, and among other things, a supply of mince meat.

Own your own home through us. Southern Building & Loan Association.

All Fluhrer's bread wrappers must be redeemed for S. & H. green trading stamps before December 1st. Redemption offer expires after that date.

Among the many Medford people ill at home with the flu or bad colds are Mrs. Ethel Roberts, in charge of the local Red Cross work, and her mother, and Mrs. Edna Moore, Gertrude Mae, Leon B. Haskins, Frank P. Farrell, Larry Schade, Fred Scheffel, Edith Niell, Ruby Timmons and Mrs. Sarah Pyburn.

Our shares are good investments and pay good dividends. Southern Building & Loan Association.

Don't pay for insurance whether you buy it or not. Medford Investment Co., 125 East 6th St.

WANTED — Position nursing or cooking. Phone 543-R.

FOR RENT — Modern 4-room house; electric stove, garage. Phone 276.

WANTED — Position nursing or cooking. Phone 543-R.

FOR SALE — Shepherd puppies. Phone 14-F-4.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ralls and Mrs. Katherine Hudson were among the Grants Pass residents spending yesterday in Medford.

Rev. D. L. Fenwick, who has been assisting in the meetings held at the Free Methodist church here for the past two weeks, left yesterday for Portland, where he is pastor of the Central Free Methodist church of that city.

Let us tell you about our insured savings plan. Southern Building & Loan Association.

Ashland high school will tangle on Thanksgiving day with a strong football team from Myrtle Point, the high school management assures the local fans of a most interesting game as the Myrtle Point team is one of the strongest in this part of the state, having defeated several of their opponents in the southern Oregon section.

All Fluhrer's bread wrappers must be redeemed for S. & H. green trading stamps before December 1st. No exchange will be made after December 1st until notice to the contrary is published.

Mrs. Fred Wahl has as her Thanksgiving day guests her mother, Mrs. Rose, and sister, Mrs. C. L. Swormstedt, both of Portland.

Call 574 if you have sewer or plumbing stoppage or if you need a new bibb washer for that leaky faucet.

Because of it being the day before Thanksgiving, the public market will be open tomorrow instead of Thursday, and is expecting a very large business.

Rent receipts never bought a home. Southern Building & Loan Association.

Robert Beck, the Crater national park ranger stationed at Anna Springs camp last season, and Mrs. Beck went to Klamath Falls today, and will probably spend Thanksgiving day in that city.

New dresses, silk and other beautiful materials, for sale. Latest designs from New York City. Very reasonably priced. Sizes 38 to 46. Call 264-1.

Regular communication of Rooms chapter, O. E. S., Wednesday evening, initiation. HATTHE M. ALDEN, Secy.

PAKIEE — New club house for Rod and Gun club dedicated here.

PLAYERS READY FOR NORRIS PLAY

The Coosco Players are all set to go on the air tonight in the latest Helen Norris radio drama, "The Guardian," which will be broadcast over KMRB, the Mail-Tribune-Virgin station from 9 to 10. The play, which will have its premiere audience over the Medford station, shows a decided improvement in technique.

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week

Medford Pharmacy Heath's Drug Store Strang's Drug Store

Notice Pythians

Once a Pythian, always a Pythian. There are many true Pythians in Medford and vicinity who are not affiliated with Talamon Lodge.

Births

A 19 1/2 pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Newton at their home on North Bugeidman street on Saturday night, Nov. 24.

WHEN KIDNEY'S WARN OF TROUBLE

Eased of her pain and distress, this from Mrs. Robert Blaine, Terre Haute, Ind. "For two years I suffered with kidneys and bladder. After taking Folex I found my troubles gradually disappearing. Backache and headaches stopped. No more dizziness and tired feelings, and my vision cleared. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed. Men and women everywhere use and recommend them. For sale by Jarmin & Woods Drug Store.

DANCE

Wednesday AND Saturday Nites WALKER'S MEDFORD'S NEWEST PAVILION

We Have a Beautiful Array of

Cut Flowers and Potted Plants

For Your Thanksgiving Table

ORDER EARLY

Monarch Seed & Feed Co.

323 East Main Phone 260

ANNUAL OPENING HOLIDAY SEASON ON NEXT MONDAY

Preparations are complete for the big annual Christmas opening to take place this year next Monday evening, when window displays, which have been planned for months, will be unveiled at 7 o'clock, displaying one of the largest varieties of Christmas goods ever seen in Medford. Plans have been completed for the arrival of Santa Claus who will greet every youngster in Medford with a top at the chamber of commerce at 7 o'clock.