TURKEY SHIPMENTS FAIL TO CHANGE PORTLAND PRICES

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 27.—(AP) Record turkey shipments out of the state and a bumper crop failed to make any appreciable change in the prices quoted on the local market. Thirty-five carloads, representing 70,000 turkeys, were shipped out of the state. Dealers estimate that the Thanksgiving trade has absorbed about 35 per cent of the Oregon turkey supply, with th remainder waiting for Christmas. The market was steady at 35 cents for the best No. 1 dressed stock.

Citrus fruits had a slight decline on today's market with navel oranges quoted at $5 to $6, according to size, and lemon at $6 to $7.50.

Local cabbage was priced at $2 to $2.50 in crates.

Butter, eggs and dairy produce remain steady.

Representative of Advertising Agency Makes Survey Here

C. P. Shaw, of San Francisco, head of the travel service department, on the Pacific coast, for Campbell Ewald Co., one of the leading advertising agencies of the country, was in Medford last week enroute to Portland and was here again today enroute south.

Mr. Shaw is making a survey of the business conditions on the coast, of how the products of the companies they represent are being handled by the dealers, and finding what co-operation they, or their clients, can render to help the dealers increase the sale of the products.

Mr. Shaw also makes a thorough survey regarding the newspapers in each district and the coverage they have in the trading area.

Campbell Ewald Co., with offices on the coast and in the east, represent many of the largest manufacturers and distributors in the country, including General Motors Co.

COAST GUARD BASE LAID WASTE IN FIRE

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 27. (AP)—A check-up today after a spectacular fire at the coast guard base, revealed the loss of one life. Fifty other coast guardsmen escaped. The fire laid waste two coast guard buildings.

The spread of the blaze, caused by burning oil, necessitated releasing 20 government ships tied in the harbor. The administration building was saved.

Jacob B. Tateman of Chelsea, Mass., attached to the destroyer Ericsson, was found burned beyond recognition in the ruins of the hospital building.

Luigi Zaccheo, known in Arona, Italy, as "dean of innkeepers," recently died at the age of 90.

MICHAEL STRANGE OBTAINED DIVORCE RECORDS DISCLOSE

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 27.—(AP) The secrecy which surrounded the divorce which Michael Strange obtained from John Barrymore before his marriage to Dolores Costello, has been dissolved with the disclosure here yesterday that the petition was filed and the decree granted in the actor's real name—John Blythe.

Attorneys for the wife quietly filed the papers here in behalf of a client client identified only as Mrs. Blanche Blythe of New York. The petition was pushed forward and on August 18 last, Supreme Court Justice Russell granted the decree. It became permanent three months later, just six days before Barrymore and Miss Costello were married.

It is not generally known that the actor's real name is Blythe, as is that of his noted sister, Ethel Barrymore. Barrymore has been the stage name of the family since the days of their father, Maurice Barrymore.

YOUTH AT LAKEVIEW SUICIDES AFTER FUSS

LAKEVIEW, Ore., Nov. 27.—(AP) Henry McCulley, 20, committed suicide here last night by shooting himself through the heart with a pistol. McCulley was said to have had a quarrel with his mother and sister, and leaving the house walked to the service station where he was employed and shot himself while three of his fellow workers looked on, unable to prevent the suicide because of its unexpectedness.
