

CHILDREN WILL BE EVACUATED FROM BELGIUM

Whooping Cough Epidemic in Flood Area—Drainage Work May Take Time—Bad Weather Passes—Red Cross Aids.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 29.—(AP) Evacuation of children from flooded Belgian villages has been decided upon by the authorities because of the appearance of whooping cough. Some of the villages probably will not be cleared of water for two or three weeks. It is possible that after the children have been taken out, adults will be evacuated.

There was a cessation of bad weather today and danger of further flooding of the lowlands by bursting dikes and overflowing rivers seemed to have lessened. It was realized, however, that one-eighth of northern Belgium can be flooded quickly as the result of bursting dikes. In Ostend, West End, Middlekerk and Blankenberg, three-quarters of the houses were either unroofed or standing in water. Promenades along the sea front were either badly damaged or in ruins. From these places came urgent pleas that soldiers be sent to repair breaches in the dikes. A national emergency fund was being raised to provide for the homeless. The Red Cross was caring for 20,000 people, many of whom had lost all their possessions. An unofficial estimate placed the total damage in the neighborhood of $5,000,000.

BEGIN HEARING ON PROPOSED CUT IN FREIGHT CHARGES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—(AP) Hearing on the application of trans-continental railroads for permission to reduce freight rates between Pacific coast port cities, began here today before an examiner of the Interstate Commerce commission. The roads pushed their claim in order to meet steamship competition between port cities.

H. C. Hallmark, assistant traffic manager of the Southern Pacific, began his argument today. Frank A. Cleveland of Seattle, freight agent of the Northern Pacific, filed a request that in the event such reductions were allowed, the Northern Pacific be permitted to establish similar rates in the Coeur d'Alene district in Idaho.

LITTLE CHANGE IN PORTLAND TRADING

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 29.—(AP) The local market experienced little change over Thanksgiving day. Produce trading was slow. Cranberries were slightly higher in anticipation of the Christmas rush, quoted today at $1.25 to $1.50 a box. Supply of local cauliflower is practically exhausted. Remaining lots were fetching all the way from 75 cents to $1.50, with California cauliflower species on the market soon. Sweet potatoes are up to 43-4 cents a pound in some instances. Consignment of California collar sweats are to be offered at 5 1/2 cents a pound.
