Life carefully planned

ASK any of the boys who've made good and they'll tell you it didn't just happen by a lucky break. Their success was the result of careful planning. Hard work. Night school, perhaps. And above all, always attending strictly to this important matter of health.

"I had no time for outdoor exercise," is the story you'll hear. "I couldn't afford one of those gymnasium courses. But I figured I could keep myself in good shape by taking Nujol. I've taken it ever since. And it's helped as much as anything to keep me fit and on the job every day."

There's no easier way to keep in first rate condition than by taking Nujol. Nujol is not a medicine. It's just a pure, natural substance that helps your system to function as Nature meant it to under all conditions. Normally. Regularly. Easily.

It not only keeps an excess of body poisons from forming (we all have them), but aids in their removal. Nujol can't possibly upset or disagree with you, because it contains absolutely no medicine or drugs. It is simply a pure natural substance. Perfected by the Nujol Laboratories, 26 Broadway, New York.

Start Nujol today. Give it a fair try—for the next three months, anyway. By the end of that time—even before then perhaps—see if you don't feel much more all 'round fit.

You can buy Nujol at all drugstores for a small sum. Worth trying, isn't it? Nujol is sold in sealed packages only. Stop and buy a bottle on your way home tonight.

Baby FOR Sale

Father a college professor; mother cultured and refined; heredity guaranteed. Price—$30,000.

PASSIONATELY devoted to her husband, Marjorie often said she would sacrifice anything for his success and happiness. And now, as he sees failure, disillusionment, despair—all for a lack of money—she sees only one way out.

She has heard of women, rich and childless, who would give thousands of dollars if they could adopt a baby, and be sure of its heredity. But as the golden dreams of approaching motherhood fill her soul—as she visions her coming baby, with its bright, laughing eyes and curly hair—she wonders if she could go through with it.

True, the secret of her coming baby is still her own. Even her husband, who would be wild with joy at the news, does not know—need never know. But can she steel herself to barter God's greatest gift for the sake of her husband's future? Can she resist the loving touch of tiny, helpless baby hands that are already closing tightly around her heart? Can she sell her unborn child? Even while she prays for courage to make this terrible sacrifice, she is thinking that perhaps the rich woman who comes to her aid could take her abroad, "for a few months' travel." There her baby could be born. And to the world it would be the other woman's baby.

It all seems so easy—so tragically easy. Still, as she visions the helpless little mite of humanity that lives close to her heart, she wonders if she can do it. Can anything ever take the place of the little life that for her, will die the moment it is born?

This is the amazing true-life problem that a gentle, refined American woman has had to solve. She tells her story, "Nature's Vengeance," in January True Story Magazine.

REBEKAH MEETING ONE OF BEST IN DISTRICT HISTORY

(By Mrs. Othella Strahan.)

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. White, Mrs. Eliza Goodale, Mrs. Frances Burkhardt, Mrs. Jessie Burkhardt and Mrs. Othella Strahan of Lilac Oak Rebekah lodge No. 198, Rogue River, Ore., attended the district convention of Rebekahs which met for their annual session at I. O. O. F. hall, Medford, with Olive Rebekah lodge No. 28 of Medford as hostess lodge. Mrs. Heine of Medford, chairman.

The convention was honored by the presence of Mrs. Louise Perozzi, president of Rebekah assembly of Oregon, who resides at Ashland; past president of Rebekah assembly of Oregon, Jeannie Burke of Grants Pass; Mrs. Stella Merrick, past president of the jurisdiction of California, and several district deputy presidents.

Mrs. Eleanor Ames of Olive lodge No. 28, gave the address of welcome; response by Mrs. Roberts of Hope lodge No. 14, Ashland.

Reports from various lodges were very good.

Well written papers of fraternal nature were read and much good derived from them.

Olive Rebekah lodge No. 28 and Post Noble Grands club of Medford served a very appetizing lunch at noon.

The afternoon session was very interesting, with various phases of lodge work being demonstrated and exemplified, much to the benefit of all present.

Election of convention officers resulted in unanimous voting for Mrs. Ibe, chairman, Ashland; Mrs. Bergman, vice-chairman, Medford; Miss Bertha Coy, secretary, Gold Hill; Mrs. Batten, treasurer, Grants Pass.

A wonderful banquet was served by the hostess lodge at 6 p. m., to a large crowd of Rebekahs.

The Klamath Falls degree staff arrived in time for the banquet, after which they exemplified the Rebekah degree in a very beautiful and most impressive manner.

Mrs. Louise Perozzi, president of Rebekah assembly of Oregon, then favored us with an instructive and interesting address. The Olive Rebekah lodge No. 28 of Medford presented her with a beautiful gift, and also presented flowers to Mrs. Heine, chairman of the district convention of Rebekahs.

Many short talks were given by the following: Mrs. Stella Merrick, past president of the jurisdiction of California; Jeannie Burke, past president of Rebekah assembly of Oregon, and from each lodge present, all agreeing it to be the best convention ever held.

Mrs. Ibe, chairman of the district convention, appointed her officers, and the drill team of Olive Rebekah lodge No. 28 seated the convention officers with a beautiful drill.

An orchestra was present, and after lodge had closed, those remaining danced until a late hour, when all went home looking forward to next year's session, when they will be entertained by Amethyst Rebekah lodge No. 97 of Gold Hill and Lilac Oak Rebekah lodge No. 198 of Rogue River, who will act as joint hostessess to the district convention of Rebekahs' next annual session.

PROFESSOR F. R. REIMER TO GIVE TELESCOPIC KNOWLEDGE OF MARS

It will be quite an aerial stunt when local radio fans are thrust "Down to Earth" Friday night, after being taken up to Mars by Professor F. R. Reimer, over KMED, the Mail Tribune-Virgin radio station, from 9 to 10 o'clock.

Professor Reimer has spent many nocturnal sessions, exploring the regions of the great god of war, and has some fascinating facts to tell about what he saw through some of the world's largest telescopes.

Following his introduction on the Southern Oregon Electric company hour Friday night, the breezy little play "Down to Earth" will take the audience on an airplane ride down to the realities of life. Fletcher Fish, Earl Davis and Mary Greiner will take part in the play with Floyd Rush enacting the role of the trick property man.

Safeway Stores Manufacture Their Own Candies

On July 19, 1928 the first batch of candy was turned out of the Safeway candy factory, operating under the name of General Foods Products company, Los Angeles, Cal. The production is now at the rate of one carload of about 30,000 pounds per day. The plant running 24 hours per day is unable to supply the demand of the Safeway Stores at this Christmas season.

To date, orders for more than 3,000,000 pounds of candy have been placed with the factory to be delivered to their stores for the holiday trade. Handling this vast amount of candies requires a crew of something like 200 skilled workers. This means a payroll of approximately $250,000 a year.

Besides candies, this factory manufactures Spanish salted peanuts and peanut butter.

Up-to-date the two Safeway stores in Medford have received 10,889 pounds of this candy.

Christian Church Has Interesting Program By Missionary Society

(By Church Reporter)

The Sunday evening services at the First Christian church on last Sunday evening, was in charge of the Ladies' Missionary society of the church. The program, under the direction of Mrs. Augie Ray, consisted of a pageant, "Around the World with the Disciples." It is portrayed in a most effective manner the real work of missions by having the representatives from the various mission fields both home and abroad, pass before the workers of the local congregation, who had not fully realized the great good and need of the work they had been doing in missions.

The stage setting, with its profusion of ferns and flowers the soft lights, the special music, added much, as the large audience heard reports from the many fields as told by persons in native costumes, who appeared to have just arrived. It was a real sermon, stimulating missionary zeal, and deepening the spiritual tone of the church.

EAGLE POINT P.-T. A. TO GIVE BOX SOCIAL FRIDAY NIGHT, DEC. 7

EAGLE POINT, Dec. 5.—(Spl.) The Eagle Point P.-T. A. will give a box social Friday evening, December 7, the receipts to be used for buying Christmas candy for the Christmas program.

About 16 pupils of Eagle Point school enjoyed the hot dish served by the P.-T. A. ladies on Monday. They plan to make this a regular daily event, the cost for each child being between two and five cents a day.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL IN SPECIAL ASSEMBLY

Friday, November 7th, the Junior high school student body is sponsoring a special assembly. The Senior high school girls' glee club will sing a group of songs and Freddie McKean will do a tap dance. Mrs. Brown will give a reading. All the parents are cordially invited to attend.

Expert Discusses Values of Foods

A demonstration of food values is being conducted this week at Alexander's Grocery by Mrs. Pearl E. Raven, who represents the Battle Creek Food company, Battle Creek, Michigan.

Scientific methods of applying diets to special maladies and of providing tasty, wholesome food for healthy folks to keep them feeling fit, comprise the talks.

The foods under consideration have been developed through a period of 45 years by experts who prepare diets for the Battle Creek sanitarium.

Owing to expansion of business in latter half of this year, prosperity for 1928 will in many lines surpass the record year of 1926, says the American Bankers Association Journal.

Be Ready

When your Children Cry for It

Baby is likely to wake you any night with that sharp cry which means just one thing—colic! Be ready. Keep a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria in the house. A few drops of this pure vegetable, pleasant-tasting preparation comforts a colicky, fretful or feverish baby in a jiffy. In a few moments your anxiety is over and baby's sleeping soundly again. And you've only done what your doctor would advise. He'll tell you Fletcher's Castoria doesn't contain any harmful drug—that it's safe for the youngest infant and effective for children of all ages in cases of constipation, colic, gas, diarrhea and those upsets when you don't know just what is the matter. Avoid imitations. Genuine Castoria bears the Fletcher signature.

COUNTY OFFICIALS TO ASSUME OFFICE MONDAY, JAN. 7

County officials elected at the general election will assume office Monday, January 7, the state law providing that new terms shall begin the first Monday after January 1. New Year's day falls on Tuesday.

In the county treasurer's, assessor's and clerk's offices, the incumbents A. C. Walker, J. B. Walker and Mrs. Delilia Stevens Meyer, respectively, were elected without opposition, as was County Engineer Paul Rynning.

Sheriff Ralph Jennings and Mrs. Suzanne Homes Carter, school superintendent, were elected over opposition.

County Judge Alex Sparrow will begin a regular term January 7. He was appointed by Governor Patterson to fill the unexpired term of the late W. J. Hartnell.

New officials who will be sworn in January 7 are:

Harry D. Norton of Grants Pass, succeeding Judge Charles M. Thomas upon the circuit court bench.

George A. Codding, succeeding District Attorney Newton C. Chaney, both of this city. George Nellsen, formerly a deputy district attorney under District Attorney Newton Chaney, will be appointed deputy prosecutor under Codding.

There will be no changes in the personnel of the county offices as at present constituted.

NATIONAL GUARDS CAPTURE CONVICT

PHILADELPHIA, Miss., Dec. 5—(AP)—The mysterious departure of a detachment of National Guardsmen who left Jackson early today was cleared up a few hours later by their capture of Virgil Dunn, who had been standing off the sheriff's forces in Neshoba county. Dunn, an escaped convict, was shot three times before he was taken. He was said to be seriously wounded.

The Mississippi guardsmen had departed from Jackson under sealed orders in command of Adjutant General J. M. Hairston and Governor Bilbo had declined to say where he had ordered them. An automobile loaded with newspaper men went on their trail. Dunn, who had been hiding in the hills escaped to a nearby woods when the soldiers arrived, but was followed up and taken after a fight.

20% Extra Dividend Declared for 1929

Fortunate indeed have been the policy-holders of this seventy-eight-year-old mutual legal reserve life insurance company, who have received seven regular increases in dividends in the last 21 years—with an extra dividend of 20 per cent in 1925 and again in 1926—and now payable in 1929 to all policy-holders of record and those who apply before December 31, 1928. This faithful, persistent performance in the interest of our policy-holders—for there are no stockholders—puts the National Life Insurance Company of Montpelier, Vt., in the front rank out of more than 250 companies operating in the United States, according to the reports of the most prominent insurance authorities just released.

Oregon Citizens Appreciate This Service

so much so, that hundreds of prominent Oregon citizens and heads of business enterprises are taking advantage of National Service for 1928. Among them: Charles Hall, president of the Pacific Bancorporation—who applied for and was accepted for $200,000 in the National in favor of the Pacific Bancorporation—in addition to many other prominent Oregon bankers and heads of business concerns.

It May Not Be Possible to Call in Person on All Who Desire to take advantage of this opportunity. An acceptable application for at least $1000 before December 31, 1928, will make you a policyholder of record. We will adjust kind and amount to your needs
