

PRESENTING ALL-PACIFIC COAST COLLEGIATE FOOTBALL ELEVEN

Here are the gridiron stars of 1928 who made the mythical All-Coast team. They were chosen by the Associated Press after a canvass of all the coaches of the outstanding universities and colleges of the various conferences.

PRACTICE STARTS EARLY NEXT WEEK FOR BASKETBALL

Basketball is next on the list for the Medford high school athletes and Coach Frank Callison will start practice early next week...

With four of last year's first string team back, the chances for a district championship are again strong...

The members of last year's first squad who will be back with the first call for practice are: Bill Morgan, all-state guard; Al Melvin, forward...

It is probable that Coach Callison will use MacDonald, a six-footer at center, and try and find a sharpshooting forward to operate with Melvin.

No schedule for the year has been drawn up, but it will probably include games with Klamath Falls, Salem, the Oregon Frosh, Eugene, two with Roseburg, and the usual four games with Ashland to climax the season.

"POP" WARNER THINKS CAGLE BACKFIELD ACE

Stanford Coach Rates Army Player As Best Halfback — Tells of Passing Feat in Recent Game at New York.

By F. C. Vosburgh, Associated Press Sports Writer. NEW YORK, Dec. 5. — (AP) Glenn Warner's mighty Stanford football eleven had a field day...

With the Army, but the coach of the Californians acquired a healthy respect for one Mr. Christian Keener or Cagle, halfback ace and captain-elect of the cadets. In fact, Warner rates the Army red-head as the best backfield player he has seen on either side of the continent.

"My teams now have played against both Cagle and Chuck Carroll, the University of Washington backfield star," ruminated the old fox of the coaching game. "They're a couple of great players, no mistake."

MINNESOTA LANDS TRIO OF PLAYERS ALL-CONFERENCE

CHICAGO, Dec. 5. — (AP) — The hotly contested Western conference football race, in which nine well-matched eleven's participated, has been reflected in the all-conference team selected by the coaches, of fields and writers for the Associated Press. Eight schools place players on the first eleven and only Chicago, which wound up the most disastrous season without a Big Ten victory, failed to land a player on either the first or second teams.

Minnesota, the team that missed the conference championship by two one-point defeats, placed three of its stars on the first eleven, while Indiana landed two. All the other schools, with the exception of Purdue and Chicago, had at least one man selected for the first eleven.

When Food Sours

Lots of folks who think they have "indigestion" have only an acid condition which could be corrected in five or ten minutes. An effective anti-acid like Phillips Milk of Magnesia soon restores digestion to normal. Phillips does away with all that sourness and gas right after meals. It prevents the distress so apt to occur two hours after eating. What a pleasant preparation to take! And how good it is for the system! Unlike a burning dose of soda—which is but temporary relief at best—Phillips Milk of Magnesia neutralizes many times its volume in acid. Next time a hearty meal, or too rich a diet has brought on the least discomfort, try—
