sometimes require a tonic as do their elders*

GIVE your child the right chance to develop, and you will not regret it in later years. Many children become under-nourished due to lack of appetite. Keep the appetite keen. Food nourishes the body and makes it grow.

In such cases, S.S.S. is the proper tonic. It improves the appetite, helps Nature build rich, red blood cells—those vitalizing elements in the blood that build and sustain the body.

In building rich, red blood cells, S.S.S. improves the processes by which the body is nourished.

For more than 100 years, S.S.S. has been helping children

SCHOOL CHILDREN OF BUTTE FALLS WRITING ABROAD

BUTTE FALLS, Ore., Dec. 13.—(Special)—Letters were sent this week by members of the Junior Red Cross to several foreign countries, including Japan, China, Bessarabia, Germany, England, Hawaii, and the Philippines. The fifth and sixth grades wrote about the lumber industry, and the seventh and eighth grades wrote about our national holidays. The juniors are anxiously waiting for the time to come when we may expect answers.

The juniors have enough material now for the portfolio to Hungary and it will be sent as soon as poster paper can be secured. Butte Falls high school basketball team played Central Point Friday night at Butte Falls. The score was 23 to 12 in favor of Central Point. After the game refreshments were served to the teams and Central Point visitors in the domestic science room.

On Wednesday night, December 19, Butte Falls will play Phoenix at Phoenix. Mrs. D. M. Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoover were business visitors to Medford Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Louise Kamerer of Medford is spending the week visiting relatives in Butte Falls. Mr. and Mrs. John Shields of Carliotta, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. Haight from near Dodge Bridge were calling on friends in Butte Falls Sunday.

Mrs. Ruth Michell, teacher of the third and fourth grades, returned to school Monday after a week's illness with influenza. During her absence Mrs. David Cleveland substituted in her room. Mrs. Guy Moore spent Monday in Medford. Rudolph Zimmerman spent the week end in Medford.

Mr. Iverson, Presbyterian Sunday school organizer, held services at the church Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Courtney were Medford visitors Thursday. Mrs. Mathews and son of Eagle Point spent several days last week visiting with relatives of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Larsen of Medford spent the week end at the Mahoney home. Word has been received here of the death of Charles Hawkins. Several school children were taken to Medford Friday to have dental work done.

Most of those who have been ill with influenza and colds are well or better. School attendance is almost normal again. School will close Friday, December 21, for Christmas vacation. It will reopen January 7.

The children of the grade and high schools are collecting fruit, clothes, games, books, etc., to make up a Christmas box to send to the Boys and Girls Aid society, Portland, Ore. The home is dependent upon donations for its upkeep. If anyone wishes to donate anything they may bring it, or send it to the grade school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wymore and Mr. Bachelor visited friends in Gold Hill Sunday. Earl Wymore and Oris Abbott left Wednesday for Eugene, where Earl will register for the next term at the University of Oregon.

J. J. Simerville returned home Tuesday from Klamath Falls. Mrs. Webber was shopping in Medford Wednesday. Buel Hildreth, who has been a resident of this place for many years, passed away Monday night. He leaves many friends and relatives in this community to mourn his loss. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Little Emma Krister passed away Monday after the brief illness of one day. The sympathy of the whole community is extended to the bereaved family. Several from here attended the dance at the Derby playshed Saturday evening. Music was furnished by Moore's orchestra of this place.

Electric washing machine agents have been busy in Butte Falls the last week. The school orchestra is advancing with strides and will be ready to present their first number in public the night of the Christmas program.

ILLINOIS MAYOR AND WIFE SHOT TO DEATH BY BURGLAR IN HOME

CARHONDALE, Ill., Dec. 13.—(AP)—J. C. Hundley, wealthy pioneer and former mayor of Carhondale, and his wife were shot to death shortly before last midnight by a burglar in their home.

Hundley, who was 76 years old, was shot in the head as he undressed for bed. The intruder, who apparently had lurked in the bedroom, fled down stairs and escaped. Mrs. Hundley, a black stairway, killing her instantly with three pistol shots, he turned off the lights, went out the front door, locked it, and escaped.

Neighbors, awakened by the shots, entered by a back door and found Mrs. Hundley dead and Hundley unconscious. He died shortly after a. Mrs. Hundley, his second wife, was 67 years old. Revenge for a killing of nearly 40 years ago suggested itself to police as a motive for Hundley's slaying. He once killed a music teacher, they recalled, for holding a tryst with his first wife. He was acquitted, pleading the unwritten law. His first wife, who obtained a divorce soon after the killing, now lives in Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Hundley was shot, police believed, because the slayer feared she might recognize him.

MEDICINE WOMEN JAILED IN TURKEY FOR ANCIENT CULT

STAMBOUL, Turkey, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Seven stooping, veiled crones with hair and finger tips stained with henna and wrists jingling with blue beads to ward off the evil eye, are mumbled imprecations against the new order of things as they sit in the prison cells to which the police of the Turkish republic have conducted them.

They are the remnants of a once powerful clan, that of the Moslem "medicine-women." These seven last dogged practitioners have been arrested for having defied the Kemalist law forbidding the exercise of their ancient art. During one day's raid, the police found the seven in different old quarters of Stamboul, each in the act of effecting some one of the many traditional cures, such as waving before a baby's nose a
