LEMMON EXCITES ELKS BY TAKING BEST OF PRIZES

Now that the Elks have had their fun with the big Christmas tree party of last night, which, as annually, was a tremendous success, a very large fund for the Christmas charities of the lodge, the work of preparing baskets of eatables for Christmas day consumption by the needy, and otherwise dispensing cheer among the unfortunate of the city and vicinity, will be begun the last of next week for distribution on the Monday before Christmas day.

Last night's event began with the hundreds of lodge members all in a jolly, money-spending mood, and they let financially loose with much vigor for two hours, fairly scrambling over each other in their eagerness to buy tickets for the various gifts from the "Christmas tree," and closed with every one of them, but one, going home with a deep and abiding hatred for C. C. Lemmon, a past exalted ruler, who has hitherto enjoyed an enviable, impeccable reputation.

Late last night and today the "good brothers" of the lodge were busy taking pecks at the aforesaid reputation, which the sands of time cannot obliterate. Such a bunch of "soreheads" is seldom seen. The usual brotherly love of the lodge for fellow members went to the woods because the grand prize from the tree fell to Mr. Lemmon. That in itself would not have caused all this ill-feeling, but the fact that the winning number was 13 and the day was the 13th, and that the Lemmon person, who was conducting the drawing himself, picked out the winning number, was too much for the cervus alius felix.

However, he it said in Mr. Lemmon's behalf that he turned pale, stammered and stuttered, and finally, as he held onto the $60 gold watch, completely overcome by shame, but no remorse, donated $20 to the Christmas tree fund while still holding tightly onto the timepiece.

An attempt was finally made to have the No. 13 holder given an impromptu court trial at once before Judge Taylor, County Judge Sparrow and Judge Johnny Reed of Gold Hill, but the movement fell through as Judge Taylor had some home, and the astounded members feared to trust to the justice of the other two jurists, with whom Crawford C. Lemmon was seen to whisper a moment before.

FOREST SERVICE SEES NO HARM IN YULETIDE CUSTOM

"The Children of Moscow, in soviet Russia, are this year forbidden to have Christmas trees. The Russian Society for the Defense of Nature laments the destruction of young fir trees," so reads a recent news item.

"Not so in America, where foresters strongly endorse the continuance of the old custom which brings joy to youthful hearts," says John D. Guthrie of the U. S. forest service, Portland, Ore.

Forestry is the growing and handling of trees for human uses and needs, and a Christmas tree surely is a legitimate human use and need. Cutting Christmas trees may be done in such a manner as to improve the forests and to give forest conservation. By cutting trees from thick patches of young growth and using the shapely tops, and not cutting more trees than actually are to be used, a real benefit will be done to the forest, federal foresters say.

CHILD VOICES TO PRESENT CONCERT CHURCH DEC. 21

A children's chorus of between 50 and 100 voices, selected from students of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades of the Medford school system, and trained by Miss Esther Church, music supervisor, will present a concert of Christmas carols at the Presbyterian church December 21.

The program will be composed of old favorite Christmas songs, some of which are of ancient derivation. The object of the concert is to inject a colorful note into local holiday activities and to call the attention of the public to the type of training along musical lines being accomplished in the Medford school system.

TOOK ADVICE OF HER MOTHER

Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wetmore, Colo.—"When I was married 14 years ago I was in bad health for a couple of years and when I tried to do anything I would get tired and worn-out. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound off and on all these years and have recommended it to hundreds of women. I have given birth to six children and have taken the Vegetable Compound as a tonic before child birth. It has done me worlds of good. My mother had taken it several times and she recommended it to me."—Mrs. Joux Baasza, Wetmore, Colorado.

Wild Blue Fatal, ended in tragedy when the car SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 14.—(AP) (Continued) a wild ride through the streets. However, 20, of Carlsbad, was fatally injured. He died a few minutes later in a doctor's office.

Ticket sales for the Finley Henderson airplane crash at the fair grounds next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 today were reported to be good, with members of the high school football champion team in charge of sales. The building, into which Pilot Henderson, an ex-army flying instructor, will crash his plane, has been constructed and can be inspected at any time at the fair grounds.

He has done the stunt only seven times before with success recorded him each time, and he expects to be equally as successful next Sunday.

He received the inspiration for the stunt at Kelley Field, Texas one day when 13 planes crashed, injuring only one pilot, and for four years he made plans whereby he could crash a plane without injury to himself. It was not until 1924 that he tried it the first time, with great apprehension for his safety. The stunt worked perfectly and has each time since.

He will wear padding, supplied by Lanport's Sporting Goods Store and will consist of football and baseball caps, including a football helmet. In addition to the crash, Mr. Henderson is arranging an entertaining aerial show and is planning on a parachute jump.
