IS PRESIDENT COOLIDGE INCONSISTENT?

OUR Democratic friends in Washington point with a certain glee to what they term the inconsistency of the Coolidge administration. Secretary of State Kellogg asks us to approve a treaty, outlawing war, while President Coolidge asks us to appropriate hundreds of millions for an augmented fleet to wage war.

CHRISTMAS COULD BE IMPROVED

IT WOULD BE interesting to know how much money the American people are spending this year for Christmas presents. The total would undoubtedly run into hundreds and hundreds of millions.

YULE SUGGESTIONS OFFERED IN ADS

Christmas is a time when we are tempted to spend as much as we can on gifts. Under the former administration, we would place the money spent by the Medford Lodge of Elks, for example. People who actually need food and warm clothing are provided with both.

CORN MART UPSET; WALL ST. LIST LESS

CINCAGO, Dec. 15. (AP)—Lively upturn in the value of corn resulted today from the government crop report, but the market quickly ran against something like a stone wall. NEW YORK, Dec. 15. (AP)—The stock market continued to drift in listless fashion today, as traders found no incentive to accumulate stocks in the face of the prospect of increasingly tighter money beginning early next week.
