COMPENSATION CLAIM PUZZLES COMMISSION

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 21.—(AP) The state industrial accident commission has a puzzling question to solve in the claim for compensation presented by the widow of the late J. P. Hinder, Krowsville chief of police, who was accidentally killed while hunting deer. The accident happened near Grants Pass, and the claim is set up that Hinder went to that place on official business and that the hunting was incidental thereto, that the widow should receive compensation from the state.
